PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C. THE existing condition of political parties, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "Southern Sentinel" proposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invoked; the laws transpole and analysages, religious library in the constitution has been invoked; the laws fore. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; ballen boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanatici-m, unchalned from its mie and its fagget piles in the North, is heard to how among us in the South. These evils, as far as it humble abilities shall serve.

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL Will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political but arrivous liberty, and will do battle against evsey political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

The Sentinel will also, to relieve the monotony of political devote space to literary toyles original of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shall include Agricultural and the latest Com-mercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor ex-penses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South. The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to sub-scribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year.— Discount made to behalf of clubs, who shall take fire, ten or more copies.

PLANTING POTATOES.

The Intellectual Vigor of a People is indicated by the THE CRITERION; LITERARY AND ERITICAL WELKLY JOURNAL, 16 pages, 4to.

WAS commenced on the 3d of November, 1855, and has thus far received very general approarion Anxious to extend its influence, and place t upon a substantial basis of support, the Publish-r desires most enriestly to direct the attention of he thinking public of America to its claims upon heir con-ideration.
The main feature of the CRITERION is its "clews of Current Literature. In this department e given thorough and able calticisms of all the most important Books as they are issued, pointing out their chief characteristics, and indicating their moral tendencies, thus keeping its readers informed of all new publications which deserve their attention. It also contains— Copious Intelligence of Afairs in the Literary Gossip concerning Books and Writers, Announcements of contemplated Publications, and Lists of New Books issued in America and Europe. - The Drama, Music. Fine Arts, and -cience, also receive attention, and several columns of carefully selected and agreeable mater are given in each number. In addition to the above there is a department of Miscellanes for reading of an entertaining character, care fully relected from new books and the ablest reviews, and a weekly collection of Notes and Queries, which contains a great variety of curious and valuable information.

It is confidently believed that a journal such as the CRITERION cannot fail to have a good effect upon our national literature, and to some extent upon our national character. It will be found esecially valuable in directing the attention of youth to works of real excellence, and encouraging an appreciation for valuable reading which is being rapidly destroyed by the circulation of superficial and sophistical books. To the reading man the iterary intelligence alone must render it very desirable; and to all who wish to promote an improve-ment in taste, the encouragement of merit, and an uncompromising condemnation of vicious style, mock sentiment, and evil principles, such an enterprise cannot—at least, should not—be indifferent.
To members of Historical, Literary and Scientific Societies, Lycrums and Debating Clubs, the subjects discussed in this paper will at all times prove of peculiar interest, and it is the design of he editors to thoroughly convass from time time those important philosophical questions which agitate all inquiring minds, correcting false theories, and encouraging profitable investigation.

The CRITERION is published at $3 per annum. payable yearly, half yearly or quarterly in advance. Specimen copies supplied on application to the Publisher. CHARLES R. RODE,
No. 113, Nassau street, New York.
