N. Y. Correspondence of the Commercial. NEW YORK, Jan. 25, 1856. The last European news received by the Africa is most important in a financial point of view. The embarrassments of the Eastern war are slowly but surely undermining the colossel fabric of England's financial supremacy. Her prestige of military power has been destroyed, her naval reputation has been seriously impaired. and her money kings can no longer move the exchanges of the world with a nod.

But, if we are wise, Epgland's loss may be Columbia's gain. While Wall Street trembled at the smallest cloud hanging over the London Exchange, we could not truly boast of our independence. The money sceptre still ruled us as firmly as the edicts of the third George. Now is the time for our final declaration of Independence. Our resources are unbounded. Our internal improvements are developing the most secluded valleys and wilds of our territory. Our productions are varied. as the opposite climes of their birth Our people are industrious, persevering and en-same spirit of patriotic self denial which they exercised. We must learn to cut off the demand for foreign luxuries and superfluities, we must sell more than we buy, we must keep out of debt, and thus preserve must keep out of debt, and thus preserve will have to do so at once, as none will be printed in the best manner. The author has for stay years been gathering together all the facts and items in regard to the numerous steamboar disasters on the Western and Southern waters, and now intends publishing them in book form.—The price of the work will be put at the low sum of One Dollar. Ten thousand copies will be issued for the boatmen; at other than the facts and items in regard to the numerous steamboar disasters on the Western and Southern waters, and now intends publishing them in book form.—The price of the work will be put at the low sum of One Dollar. To secure this much to be desired position, it is plain, that the first effort must begin with the masses, in the willage in the home circle. Self denial and economy there will beget the same virtues in every department and a few years

All communications and letters should of America.

The business of the city is seriously impeded by the accumulations of .snow, ice. and water in the streets and gutters -Sleighs are yet running through Broadway, though the warm sun of the last two days will soon bring out the wheels. Locomotion is therefore slow and business sympathyses. All is ready however for a fair and strong start, as soon as the streets are clear. Gold bursts its bands with the Spring, as well as the other flowers of life.

A new confidence game is being inaugurated in and about the city. Certain parties owning land, associate ostensibly to build a rail road, agreeably to the provisions of the General Rail Road Law. The Legislature is then importuned to grant them a ferry privilege, and to permit them to expend their funds first upon the establishment of the ferry. This obtained, they make a sham commencement of the Rail Road, sell out their lots upon its reputation. set the ferry in operation, drop the Rail Road, and leave the lot holders to weep over their inaccessible property. The ferry is good enough for the confidence men.

Punning Judges used to be frequent in the history of England's Jurisprudence .-We have but few on our record. Last week, however, the decorum of the bench was disturbed by an accidental pun. Judge O. is a magistrate of much gravity and dignity. He is scarcely ever known to laugh, and is especially noted for his abhorence of two infirmities of human nature, viz: puns and cutaneous diseases. Last week a jutor's name was called in his court .-The man advanced to the Judge's desk and said "Judge, I should like to be excused." "It is impossible" said the Judge decidedly "But Judge if you knew my reasons."-"Well, sir, what are they?" Why. the fact is-and the man paused. "Well sir proceed " continued the Judge. " Well Judge if I must say it, I've got the itch !" Clerk ! scratch that man out ! hastily ened Judge O. drawing his chair back to the wall in horror. The uncontrollable laughter of the audience informed him of his in voluntary pun-horror on horror multiplied

The rapidity with which men often rise in our republic has a notable example in our city. Some time since an English shoemaker imported himself bere and set op his stall. In a short time he was at the head of a summer hotel in the country, and soon afterwards opened an aristocratic caravansary in the city. His eldest son entered West Point and now holds a commission in the U. S. Army. About the ground Coff-e; best refined, pulverized and los same time an excholoric old Englishman arrived here, represented himself as an eleve of Napoleon at the Polytechnic school of Paris, set up a French Academy, and presto! through fashionable influence his son went through West Point, and also achieved a commission in the army. This is a great ountry ! it is ! it is.

DIRECTORY. HE undersigned have now in course o. prepar-ation a NEW STEAMBOAT DIRECTORY. which will be issued in October next: the book will contain over two hund ed pages, flustrated in the best sayle, and next! bound in a durable manner. It will be one of the most interesting books ever published, and will be a book that will be interesting to all cleaning the manufactors. ing to all classes of people. The Steamboat Di-rectory will contain a complete list and description of all the steamboats now affect on the Western and Southern waters. The length, model, speed power, and tonnage of each boat, where and by whom built, the name of the boat, with the trade she is in. Also, the names of Captains and offi-cers, her age, &c., &c. The Directory will contain a history of Steamboats and Steamboating on the river, with the name of the builder, commander and owner.

Nestern waters, since the application of steam also, a sketch of the first boat built for the Ohi-

The River Directory will contain a list and description of all the Steamboat Disasters that have occurred on the Western and Southern waters, becausifully illustrated with a tlat of all those who oceaned on the Western and Southern waters, boostifully illustrated, with a flat of all those who have perished by their burning, sheking and exploding, on the Western and Southern waters.

The Directory will contain Maps of the Ohio, Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois, Arkansus, White, Red, Ouachita, Yazoo, and other rivers, with the towns, and cities laid down, with correct distances also, many other river and commercial items of interest to the people at large. The book will contain the cards of the various United States mail boots, with the trade they are in, &c., &c. The life of the li bouts, with the trade they are in, &c., &c. The lirecory will also contain a complete list of all the responsible Strambon: Licensed Officers, their responsible Strambont Licensed Officers, their places of residence, &c., &c.; the new Steambout Law, his requirements, with comments, showing the can soon take the step up to the throne of the world's money power.

But in order to do this safely, we must first emulate the virtues of our forefathers. We must throw the tea overboard in the responsible Strambont Licensed Officers, their responsible Strambont Licensed Officers, their places of residence, &c., &c.; the new Steambout Law, his requirements, with comments, showing interest the competent officer, &c., &c., and all the important United States Supreme Court Steambout United States Supreme Court Steambout Commercial Privileges, Bills of Lading, important Decisions of the various United States courts, in regard to Freights lost and damaged. &c., &c.; with many other things of interest.

The Directory will be illustrated in the best style and printed in the best manner. The author has for six years been gathering together all the facts.

NOT DEAD.

THE "LIVE GIRALLE" AGAIN! A New Era About to Dawn Upon North-Carolina.

At the constant and earnest solicitation of nearly every body, but especially the old acquaintances of "ye Animal," we have been induced to promise, if provender" enough can be secured, to trot that heast out again to the gaze of all mankind, and the universal admiration of womankind during the first week in January, 1856,

"The Live Giraffe," while it was a neutral pa per while it grazed in its own green pasturage, played with the girls and joked with the boys, was the most popular sheet animateur inanimate, that ever issued from a Southern press; and had it been content to have lived in its own native sphere it would now have been the 'Brother Jonathan" of the South. Such a result can but be evident to any thinking man; it was indeed Accidents from the use of Burning Fluid, on the high road to tame and a most enviable Camphene, and other Explosive Campounds. used distinction. But becoming fat, in an unlucky moment like the man who had grown "rich enough to ride an ass," and had therefore gotten above his fellows, the "Animal" leaped the bars of its accustomed field and the next thing we heard of him, he. like a man turned politician from preacher, was pining for the good things of tile and no doubt, like the silly lamb of old that cluded the sight of the shepard, and got into the thick woods which was found to be infested with wolves, he wished himself back in his old range But the bars had been put another tail high and he couldn't get back; besides he had grown so lean that he could not jump It is said that bought wisdom is the best in the world if it dont cost too much. A mighty true saying; one in which there is more of truth than poetry or romance, and in view of this old saving and the Annimal's experience his old friends need have little fear that he will at any time hereafter cut the same caper again. He'l kick any man that would intimate such a thing. The Live Giraffe will then be neutral. It will e devoted to fun. to the news and literature. It will be made the vehicle of publishing many a hought to the world fonny, grave and instrucive that would have wasted itself on the air "as summer ros s do " but for its columns; it will seek every opportunity to turn grave and uninteresting matters into pleasant and agreeable incilents; upset all ill-natured humanity it meets ith and mould it anew; expose all rascality aherever found whether in Church or State-(that's promising a great deal) or in the social circle, and keep a strict watch on the press, literary, religious and political and see that each keeps its bounds. The ellizens of Raleigh know well enough the value of such a sheet and would not do without it another year for half a million. Why, since the exit of the Animal from their borders, they have had more bad luck than was ever heard of before More Trusts have been made more lieus been given upon property, more assignments made, more quarreling and tighting, more drinking of lupor more meanness generally, and more illi-uck than ever was known at any period since the great plagge in Exypt.

Now this is as plain as daylight, and the only rum dy for such evils is to trot out the Animal gain. So I think

Now, this is the proposition I shall make patronize the Animal, and to get that a surance I shall give you full opportunity to correspond with me and to send in all the names that can be se-wars o the success of the Animal. He will soon grow tat when he begins to take exercise and, then he can plead his own case, if not with eloquent words at least with an occasional kick at the boys. It has been intimated to me that the conne tion I sustained to the "Carolina Pennant" would minre the Animal since the Pennant" had sud denly expired and left thany of its subscribers in the suds I have to say here, and I hope it will satisfy every body that I had no interest in the Pennant." I wrote most of its Editorials for which I should have received something according to age ement but I did not. I have tried this co business and it neither pays nor suits my ge nins. I want a broad hemisphere, a wide lati ende, and nobody to divide with me in the spails Then friends we now underst nd each other, want you to send me your names between now d the first of January; if enough respond, the Animal" will make his bow; if not, no harm done, TERMS: Two dollars per annum payable or telivery of first number; two dollars and fifty cents if paid in a x month; three dollars if not said till end of year. No s oney will be required notil the first No, is issued.

of the party is furnished.

Shaves are insured for one or five years, at rates which will enable all Slaveholders to accure this class of properity against the uncertainty of life.

Slave insurance presents a new and interesting feature in the history of North Carolina, which will prove very important to the Southern States.

The last four months operation of this Company shows a very large amount of business—more than the Directors expected to do the first year—having already issued more than 200 Palicios.
