VOLUME XI---NUMBER 1

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 18, 1856.

WHOLE NUMBER 1256

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMERCIAL

POETRY.

OUR BABT. At our house, at home, we've a sweet little baby As fat as a 'com in the full; And for mischlef, fan, music, or whatever it may

Of brats he's the general of all ? With cheeks like two roses, The prefilest of noses Endeared is our Moses, By every fond the; In fair and four weather, He serves as a belier, To bind us together; My Betsy and I,

From morning full blossomed, till night dra her curtain. His means for employment ne'er fail; and though hushed be his gabble of music we certain. When he drags the old cat by the tail. Now calling, and bawling. And tailing and sprawling. And mauling, and squalling, At work and at play; In the dish-water packling, Or Jowler pack saddling, Or about fiddle-faddling, He passes all the day.

Tho' his third year is ended this present Septer

He's equal to any at five; At two he could put on" as well. I remember As the best "shoulder striker" alive; In consideration Of his qualification. Of his guarnession Tim in contemplation Of placing him where All the Mrs. Duncans. And all the Mrs. Flunkins Will say he's "some punkins;" And that is—"Tag Fara."

There's nought can escape his minutest insp Displayed on the toy-seller's boards;

And he helps himself, too without fear of det

To the nicest the pantry affords. He's just in condition. To meet competition. At the grand exhibition The rogue with two cycs – There's one thing – depend on't; To make a quick end on't, If he can lay hand on't – He sure takes the prize.

THE PURGATORY OF SUICIDES.

BT T. B READ.

"I drained the cup that kills with sleep, And pillowed my head on the breast of Deat And phowen my first on the breast of De-He closed the liels that censed to weep And kissed the lips at their latest breath! That moment I had untimely bigh Out of the chrysalls of earth! I saw that by the horid deed? chain was sundered, yet I was not freed; rst away from a windowed cell Into a diageon unfathomable; Into atter night - where I only could hear the sighing of cold plantoma near. shrank with dread; but soon I knew They also shrank with dread from me; presently 1-began to see Thin shapes of a ghastly has That sudden agues thrilled me through Some bore in their hands as signs of guilt. Keen poignards crimson to the hilt. Which ever and anon in wild despair. They struck into their breasts of sir; Some presser to their pule lips empty vials Till trenzied with their fruitless trials; Some with their faces to the sky, Walked over searching for a leam; Some leaped from shadowy turrets high, And fell as in a nightmare dream Halt way, and stopped, as some mad rill That leaps from the top of an alpine hill, Ere it reaches the rock it hoped to win, is borne away in a vapor thin: Some planged them into counterfeit pools-Into water that neither drowns or cools The northble fever that burns the brain, Then climbed despairing to plonge again: And there were lovers together clasped O'er tomeless brazures, who sighed and gaspo Staring wonder in each other's eves, And tantalized that they did not die. "Then as I passed, with marvelling stare They gazed forgetting their own despair. Oht horrible! their eyes did gloat Upon me. till in my ashen throat I felt the flery viper thirst Which ever in that dry air is nurst. And ere I was aware I had related the cup it was n ine to bear; I had raised the cup it was not the debit dim. My pale lips cleaved to the goblet dim. And found build dust on the heated rim; And then I knew - oh misery!— It was the same I had pledged to thee— To absent thee and to present Death. Pledged and disined at one long drawn breath; Drained to the dregs! Then a bot wind sigher. Close in my ear-"Thou Suicibs !" And those two words flew Into my heart, and pierced it through: And my eyes grew blind with pain As a serpent which with rage insane, Strikes himself with venomed fangs, Aud writhes in the dust with self-dealt pang kees, I was muster gunner of as handsoma gun brig as ever did credit to a dock yard or dipped a keel in the water. Love ye, it would have done your eyes good to have seen her skimming before the wind and breasting the biliows as gentle as a boy's first kiss, which only touches the cheek, and that's all. Then we carried fourteen as pretty guns as ever drove a bullet through a Frenchman's timbers. Old Tom Beaumont, (God bless him !) was our commander, and a better soul never cracked a biscuit. He was a bardy seaman to the backbone-an upright und down straight fear-nothing; but the kindest-hear ted fellow in the world, for all that. Well gemmen, as I'm saying-Tom. (we always called him Tom, because we loved him) married young, and for two years was the happiest dog alive He had a wife as pretty as an angel, and as good as bimself; and a little rogue-their son-the very picture gret, ginning to climb upon his knee and pull his whiskers. Man alive couldn't desire more; the very scene might make a Dutchman dance or a Russian happy. After wo years' fair wind and weather, however, in mortal reckoning, it was reasonable to expect squalls. Beaumont had not then joined the navy in a regular way; and at that period he found it necessary to proceed to America, where he had entered in: to extensive mercantile speculations. Finding that he should be compelled to remain there much longer than he dreamed of, he sent for his wife and child. They sailed -but it proved a last voyage to a new guard the azure orbs that, jewel like, resworld! However, gemmen, it's a voyage w must all take, from the admiral down to the cabin boy-that's one comfort; and u.ay we, by the aid of a good chart, steer clear of the enemy's lee shore and brimstone shouls !

'Poor Tom's inquiries were fruitless -No one ever heard of the vessel, and no one doubted that all hands were low as Davy Jones. It was like a shot between wind and water to Beaumont; but he bore up after a way, though it had shivered his main sheet.

Well. as I was saying, it was during our scuffle with the Yankees, more than wenty years after Tom had lost his wife and child. We were returning with the ind child. We were returning with the intile brig from the West Indi's, when I was roused in my hanmock by a bustle on deck, and the cry of 'a Yankee!' 1 sorang up at the glorious news, and the glorious news, and brough the clear moonlight perceived an unpudent looking lubber bearing upon us full sail, and displaying American colors

eri-weekl

From the New Yo.k Sunday Dispatch. A SKETCH. BY META GRET.

' 'Tis night, and the silver moon is stealing From her veil of clouds, like a blushing bride.' Bathed in its silver light, the large, old fashioned crib that stood by the open window, on its downy bed, quietly a sleeping infant lay. The soft curls clustered low. ingly above its tranquil brow ; and droop ed caressingly over the fair eyelids as if to ted within their setting of glossy fringe. Upon the snowy folds of the covering, the small, white dimpled limbs, replete with grace, reposed free from care. A childish mnocent smile of love and glee, rested upon the yet untainted face. By its side fell carelessly a bright, fine flower-inete emblem of its own innocence and purity. Softly, upon tip-toe, the young mother glides to the couch, wherein reposes her heart's treasure, and pressed her lips upon the upturned brow; her dew stained face bears traces of recent suffering, she breathes a 'God bless you, my darling boy.'-The hot tears fall upon the rose tinted hoy whose frail bark has just een launch-ed, and is impelled by the hand of Fate.-

May its course be upon the cam and un ruffied stream, having ever within its reach the flowers of friendship, love and truth.

Years have marked their flightupon the secord of time since last within this room

we saw the glad young mother leaning over an innocent babe, now grown to manhood, living a gay and reckless life, far from his childhood's home. 'Tis the same room, but now the statues, pictures and mirrors are shrouled with white, the light steals through the half closed blinds, and naught disturbs the calm that reigns there but the hushed breathings and muffled

Beneath the silken draperies of the couch, robed in a snowy shroud, lays one who sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. The long lashes rest upon the marble cheek, the wavy hair is parted smoothly on either side, while a wreath of dew drops sat like a coronal upon the wrinkled brow.

A mother lay there with no tie of blood to shed a tear over her inanimate clay. A-

'Tis past ! thy careworn spirit fied, And thou hast joined the mighty dead, tread of the attendants.

Mother,

cheek and startle the little sleeper; he opens his liquid orbs, so full of heaven. throws his arms around his mother's neck. OF the best American manufacture. Nov. 4. J K. BLONSOM. 500 VERY pri-ne selected Empty Spirit bi this ring !' he exclaimed breathless, brightness as he reads, 'My son, your and shaking like a yacht in a hurri- mother is dying-cone,' Those words cane. The portrait,' replied the youth, mulock the deep cavens of memory -was a part of what my mother Pictured on its walls is vivid colors are saved from the wreck : and as I was many scenes where his mother's eyes herself. The ring was taken from her holy love. He sees al his life in a refinger; and from the engraving upon trospective glance. How many times it, I have home the name of Belmont !' had that kind mother's words been dis-'My sou !-- my own Tom !-- child of regarded. O, would that he had ever my Eleanor ? cried the happy old fa-ther, hugging him to his breast. kept pure and innocen, as when first she nonrished her lament light on his ther, hugging him to his breast. 'Gemmen, you can imagine the rest,' said our one armed companion; and the world claimed him for her own, is and our one armed companion, and the world channed man for the bown, is and be passed from the threshold of idded, 'and by your permission, here's i health to old Tom Beaumont and his son. Heaven bless them !' The story bark is almost wrecked, a messenger bark is almost wrecked, a messenger in the bown, when his bark is almost wrecked, a messenger is a ment for sale or Sulpment. affected his listeners to tears, and they comes with the sad intelligence that the parted with the old seamen with re- beacon light which waved him off the shoals and reefs, and pointed to the pure deep waters wherein he might escape the dangers that beset him, was now growing dim, never more to be relit .--The eyes that looked so wistfully have closed forever, and the head that yearned to forgive, hushed, cold aud dead, while broad lands and wire ruins stretch their heavy barriers to guard him from the presence of a mother's dying smile. He rushes out in the cdd moonlight, which seems to mock his misery, nor stops until, by the aid of seam, he has conquered the rough distance between them. Almost exhausted, he enters her room and steals to the bedside. No eye welcomes him, no hand daps his own, no word of gentle love greets his ears; all is silence. He bends his impious knee, and weeps tears of agony upon the lifeless hand. They are in vain, they will not recall the spirit, or wile out the stain of ingratitude to her whose firm faith in a Saviour's love, died resigned, leaving apon her mortal remains an expression of calm, holy peace, which, showed that her s was not a temporary but an everlasting rest, which 'He ever giveth to his beloved.' May 9 HOOP IRON.

Sanda Punton to sur warran deb

Commercial.

Is published overy Tunnav, Tauantan and Saturnay at 35 per housen, psychic in alloaner BY THOMAS LORING-Eneros and PROPARA Corner Prostand Market Streets, RATES OF ADVERTISING. 1 insertion SU 50 1 antr. 2 me " 1 month, 1 00 1 1 6 2 50 1 -12 Ten lines of loss make a square. If an adver-forment exceeds ten lines, the price will be in All advortisements are payable at the time beir insertion. Contracts with yearly advertisers, will be man the most liberal tarty No transfer of contracts for yearly ad 151 will be permitted. Should stremans a change in business as an anony necessary, a charge according to terms will be at the option of the a the time he has advertised. terms will be at the option of the contractor, for the time he has advertised. The privilege of Annual Advertisers is attictly limited to their own insmediate business; and all advertisements for the summit of other persons, as well as all advertisements not immediately con-nected with their own business, and all energy of advertisements in length or otherwise beyond the limits angaged, will be charged at the units inter-for the safe or rent of housen or indicates beyond the for the safe or rent of housen or indicates in town or country, or for the safe or hire of negroon, a birth-er the property is owned by the advertiser or by other persons. These are excluded by the terms "immediate business" All starisements insorted in the triweeWie Commercial are entitled to one tesertion in the Weekly free of charge. 132. Weekly free of charge. JOB, CARD AND PANCY PRINTING. EXECUTED IN SUPERIOR STYLE. AGENTS POR THE COMMERCIAL. NEW YORK-MORSTE, DULLERS & POTTES Boston-CHARLES SHITH, NU.6, CENTRAL Wharfs Philadsiphia-S. R. CONEN. Baltimore-WM. H. PEARBARD WM. THOMSON. AUBURN FOR SALE. THE Plantation of the autheriber mear Roleigh, and on the Central Ball Road, is not yet dispused of. A descrip tion has siready been given -but no one will of course make so important a purchase without 83. Apply to WM. R. POOLE, Esq., who lives nest the place, or to the subscriber. Wilmington. N. C., Aug. 14, 1986, 126 d. THE NORTH CAROLANA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMP'N. BALMIGH, N. C. THE above Company he abeen in operationsince the lated April, 848, under the direction of the wing Officers, vis 1 Dr. Charles E. Jonhson, President, Wm. D. Haywool, Vice President, John G. Williams, Socretary, Wm. H. Jones, Treasure*.

MISCELLANY. THE LOST WIFE.

YARN OF A GREENWICH PENSIONER.

Some years ago, half-a dozen friends and myself visited Greenwhich Hospital. Our conductor was a weather-beaten, middle aged tar, whose larboard glim had been douced since hoyhood with the small pox, and his starboard fin had been carried a way by a chain shot. By the gold lac-which he sported on his chapeau, the sleeves of his coat, etc., he appeared to hold the rank of a boatswain in the college. He was a communicative ohl boy, and we felt indebted for his civilities. He, how ever, spurned the idea of being rewarded with money.

'No, blow it !' he exclaimed, 'not a tissey not a single brown, but a drop of grog gemmen, if you please.'

So suying, he led way to a neighboring

"Haul to, my lads !" said old Beauaright, so that when the rosy more of mont; 'let them smell powder for breakyouth has passed, the teachings of a mothfast.

er may prove way-marks in the drear wil-'Small time was lost in obeying the orderness of life, to which he can torn when ler, for we were always in readiness for oppressed with care and sorrow, when no welcome company, Twice they attemplonger the music of a mother's voice gladdens his ears. Fond mother, place not your affections upon an earthly idel, which, without a moment's warning, " may be ted to board us, but were driven back for their kindness with some score of broken heads, and the loss of some hundred American fingers. After two hours hard pepshattered at your feet. I ime brings chanpering, Beaumont seizing a lucky moment ordered us to throw a broadside.

the path that you have noted out for him ; enemy; and I heard him mutter, 'flesh of our flesh.'

our flesh.' 'I'he vessel was riddled like the lid or a pepper-box, and sank so rapidly that we were able to save only thirty of her crew Their captain was among the number, and a gallant looking youth he was; but in their last attempt to board us, Beaumont had wounded hun on the shoulder with his cutlass. The blood ran down his arm and poured from his fingess; yet the brave soul never whispered it. nor made a wry face on the matter, but stood and saw his countrymen attended to. Nature, however, gave way, and he fell upon the deck -Beaumont eagerly raised bim in his arms, and conveyed him to his own bed.

On examining the wound, the surgeon took the portrait of a beautiful lady from his breast, and handed it to the commanler. Poor old Tom gazed upon it for a moment-he started-he uttered a sudden scream-I though he had gone mad .-Do you remember that face ?' he exclaime 1, How could I forgat it ?- to have seen it once was to remember it a hundred 'years-it was his wife's !

'I won't tire you with a long story,' coninued the narrator, 'for it's all true, and no varu. For several days the gallant young American lay delirious, as the doctor called it. But-I can't describe it to you, gemmen-had you seen poor old Tom, du ring all that tune ! No, hang me, I can't describe it ! The youth also wore upon his finger a diamond ring, upon which were inscribed the names of Beaumont and his long lost Eleanor. Flesh and blood cloud not stand the sight. There was the old man keeping watch by the bedside. night and day, weeping like a child, pac-ing the cubin floor, beating his breast -- and sometimes snatching the hand of the poor sufferer to his lips, and calling him his murdered son, and himself the murderer. then he would doubt again, and doubt lone, in the midst of splendor, she died-No hand of love smoothed her pillow, or nade him worse. so suying, be led way to a neighboring teven, and entrenched himself in the cor-ner of the partor, with which he seemen-intimately familiar 1 placed myself in the cor-from him some favoring yars. During the first glass it conty spoke of the basiling from him some favoring yars. During the first glass it conty spoke of the basiling during the second, he ailwineed to addior-and bombardments, but, as he finished the third, as if to induce us to call for a fourth-te said: But if's no use talking about battles and them sort of things. Genimen, by yo re-teased in a story. If as waste his suit water, and, by the vary, may say it's about a countryman of your own, noo--for Tom Beaumout was bor, may say it's about a countryman of your own, noo--for Tom Beaumout was bor, New Castle, and he was a boy, man, mate At length the doctor declared the inva-

150 hags Gunno. 200 <sup>10</sup> Brown Salt, 59 bble Herring, cent childhood. Clasping him to her breast, she fondly hopes that in after life the beart may be as innocent as now. Kneeling.

10 half bbis. Snuff. by ADAMS, BRO. & CO March 6. she breathes a petition to Him on high that He may give her wisdom to lead his seps SOAP.

50 BOXES Colgute's Pale and No 1, for sale GRO. HOU-TON

FOR SALE.

JUST RECEIVED Pe- Schr. Alba from New York.

17 BRLS of Best Yellow Sugar low for es GEO. H. KELLEY & BROTHER, March 3. No. 11, North Water Street J. w H. Sp. Age and N. C. C. Adv. copy

ON CONSIGNMENT.

ges, and with it cares and trials; the little form will strengthen and lose the delicate Bales C dar Falls Sheetings-5 Bales Cut

10 BAG's superior, for sale by March 6. GEO. HOUSTON the life bark will not always linger by the shore and cull the fragrant blossoms from its grassy banks, but unheeled will float HERRING'S Patent Champion Fire and Burglar Proof Safe The great interest manifested by the puoli down the calm waters until a reaches the tumult of the scene where edying circles The great interest manifested by the public procure more perfect securily from Fire for volu-ble papers, such as Boxns. Mosrosars.) s so Notes, and Books or Account, that the ordinal SAFES heretofore in use h id afforded, induced th Subscribers to devote a large portion of time at attention during the past fouriesn years in makin improvements and discoveries for this object, and they now begienve to assure their numerou friend and the public generally, that their efforts has been crowned with complete success, and now off the "IMPROVED HERRING'S PATEN WORLD'S FAIR PREMIUM FIRE PROO SAFES," as the form and waves dash ; barely at first it will ride them. Soon, however, the breakers come and dash madly against it; on it goes. The boatman will lose command, and the oars lay passive in hy hands, leaving the bark at the mercy of he wind and waves. Resigned to its fate, and power-less to resist the overwhelming tide that bears it out of the reach of the hand that SAFES," as the would snatch it from the brink of destruc CHAMPION SAFE OF THE WORL tion, and thus it may be with the cherub

HAVING BEEN AWARDED MEDALS AT BOTH TH World's Fair, London, '51, & New York, ' World's Fair, London, '51, & New York, '5 as superior to all others. It is now, and ubted entitled to that appellation, and secured will HALL'S PATENT POWDER PROOF LOCK (which also was awarded MEDALS as above.) fort the most perfect Fire and Burgiar Proof Sulesev before officed to the Public. The Subscribe s also manufactures all kinds Boiler and thilled from Bank Chests and Vaui Vauit Doors, and Money Boxes or Chests, for Bu-kers, Jewelkrs, and Private samilies, for Pla Dia onds, and other Valuables As dare also P tentees, (by purchase.) and Manufactures of Tavyet DI styre DEBUIT a those Bars JONES' PIPENT PERMUTATION BINK LOC SILAS C. HERRING & CO. Patente GREEN BLOCK, Nos. 135, 137 & 138 Wate Agent for North Carolina, JOSEPH R. BLOSSOM, Feb. 12. JUST OPENED LARGE, well selected and varied ass, rtn of Groceries, comprising a fresh lot of Preserved Lard, Coffee, Pickle & Fresh Ments. Starch. Candles. Tin and Wooder Ware, All of which may be found at the corner of a tet and Water streets, at the "Cheep Cash Sta where goods must be paid for on delivery E. D. COWAV, Superinte Jan. 31. Herald and Journal copy. A fee, for sale by 10-12	Jan. 1, 1856. 123.

bls.	HENRY NUTT,	JNO. D. ASHTON, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW,
о.	FACTOR AND FORWARDING AGENT, Will give his personal attention to business entrust- ed to his care. Sept. 8, 1855. 75-1y-c.	SHAWNRE TOWN Illinois. Will practice his profession in the twelve Judj- cial District and Supreme Court, and United States Court for litinois.
a bu		Sept. 27. 84-1y	ne
e by N.	GEORGE MYERS, WIDLENILE AND RETML GROCER Keepe constantly on hand, Witter Fras. Liquors, Propisions, 4 ood and Willow Ware, Pruit, Confectionaries, & South Frontaireet, WILMINGTUN, N. J.	REVISED CODE OF N. CAROLINA. E sion of 1854, together with other Acts of a Public and General character, passed at the same session. The Constitution of the Stats. The	同時は
ct.	Nov. 18, 1855. 109. GEORGE HOUSTON,	Constitution of the United States, &c., &c. Price 34. For sale at the Book Store of Jan. 12. S. W. WHITAKER.	1
Ma	DEALER IN Groceries, Provisions, and Naval Stores; COMMISSION MERCHANT.	HAVE this day associated my brother Oliver, with me in the General Grocery and Commis-	31
-8 liton le by H.	VESSEL AND FORWARDING AGENT, WILMINGTON, N. C.	sion business. The firm will be GEO, H. K KL- LEY & BRO. We have that our kind parons and friends will continue their patronage which they have so liberally bestowed on the senior partner	6
÷.	Aug. 2. CO-IF H. DOLLNER. G. POTTER JF. J. CAMERDEN- DOLLNER, POTTER & CO.	of the concern heretofore. Car stock will consist of Sugars, Coffee, Mo las. Your Butter, Cheese, Lard, Bacon, Rice	11:1
N.	COMMISSION MERCHANTS, NEW YORK. April 30, 1855. 20-1y.	proj se not to be undersold in the price of our arti-	4
fes. lic to	L. N. BARLOW, WHOLESALE & RETAIL GROCER,	Feb. 5. GEO. H. KELLEY 138 tf.	And in case of the local division of the loc and hing	AND DEALER IN LIQUORS WINES ALE PORTER 4c. No 3, Granite Row, Front Street, WILMINGTON, N. C.	LINE, HAIR. PLASTER & CEMENT. CONSTANTLY on hand. and for sale by GEORGE HOUSTON.	A
and ends, have offer	S. M. WEST, Auctioneer and Commission Merchant,	PROSPECTUS OF THE RAIL ROAD TIMES.	I I I I I
NT	WILLINGTON, N.C. WILL sell or buy Real Estate and Negroes at a small commission.	- AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL. Devoted to News, Internal Improvement, Educa- tion, Agriculture, Manufacture & Com- merce.	a n n n n
LD, tE 53 edly, with	ALSO : Strict attention given to the sale of Timber, Tur- pentine, Tar, or any kind of Country Produce. O.far second door, South side of Market street, on the wharf Jane 12, 1855. 33-1y.	W E know that the interests of the People of our State demand such a paper, and believing that one free from pollical strikes and quarrels of the day, devoted to such topics, will be the kind they desire, we confidently egter upon this enter-	10441
KA, orms	ADAMS, BROTHER & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS,	prise with the assurance of meriting and meeting their approbation and support. Our object is to make the Times the mirror of the Siste, in which all can see their true interests held up and encour- aged.
ds of uits, Bt	WILMINGTON, N. C. July 28. 58	INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS To this sub- ject we expect to devote as much space as a full statement of the various operations will require;
CII,	TAS P. GILLESPIE. GEO. 8 GILLESPIE. JAM D. M. GILLEAPIE & CO PRODUCE AND FORWARDING A G E N T S.	the other interests of the State. EDUGATIONft is a source of regret to all interest(d in the Educational interests of our State, (and who is not?) that our papers are so much devoted to party polities, &c., that this great er st.	WII, MINGTON, N.C. Pasticular attention paid to the receipts and Sale of Naval Stores, Timber, Lumber, Corn, Bacon, Col- ton, Ge., Ge.		-
on. I-ut	March 30, 1855. 6. D. CASHWELL,	AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURE AND men	COMMISSION MERCHANT, WILMINGTON, N. C. Sept. 30. 84-1	COMMERCE, at t-is stage of our history, are commanding the attention of all our good State and money-loving citizens. Therefore, the Mark- ets will be reported with care, and all items, calcu- lated to throw light on either of those inseparable
	COCHRAN & RUSSELL. (SUCCESSORS TO THOS. ILIBONE & CO.)	oranches of industry, will be carefully gleaned and inserted every work. It is unnecessary to say more if we had time, but the "whistle of the locomotive" on the East	57 148 M
Mar	General Commission Merchants, No 32, North Whares. and 43 North Water Ste PHILAD CLPHIA.	and the cheering news from the West admonish as to close. Permit us, however, to assure you that the first number of the Times will make its	A 4 9 4 lore" nı, -tí.	J HARVEY COCHEAN, W. S. RUSSELL. Liberal 4 18h idvances made on consignments. Jdly 30th. 1855. 58-tf.	appearance about the time the cars reach this place from the East. TERMS-The Times will be printed weekly in Greensborough N. C., on new material, and con- tain as much reading matter as any paper in the	二 二 二 二 二
io C	BOOPER, DEARBORN & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS,	Sinte, for $2 per aunum in advance. E. W. OGBURN, C. C. COLE. J. W. ALBUIGHT.
nay- nnoi E 28	WILLUINGTON N.C. GEO. HOOPER. J. L'DEARBORN. WM-L BOUPER July 28. 58-11	JUST OPENED.
-	ADAMANTINE CANDLES.	THE largest assortment of Chemicals ever offer- ed in this market, consisting in part of 100 the, Sugar Lend; 50 * Sulph, Zine;	1
W.	reived and for sale by ZENO H. GREENE. Feb.5.	25 " Vallett's Mate; 500 oza. German Quinine; 10 bbls. Epsom Suits;
-	N. E. RUM. 20 BBL S. for sele by GEO, HOUSTON.	15 bbls. Copperas; 26 lbs. Calomet; 30 lbs. Blas Mass; 3 carboys Spirits Nitre (fff);
"Sy	COFFEE.	Agna Azmonia.(fff) and a num ber of other Chemicals, from the Laboratories of Powars and Weightman, Chas. Ellis & Co. Fot sale by C. & D. DuPRE.
12.4	A fee, for sale by GEO, HOUSTON.	sale by C. & D. DuPRR.

AND COUNSELOR AT LAW WNEETOWN Illinois. e his profession in the twelve Judi-nd Supreme Court, and United States

36-1v-e

-PARTNERSHIP.

June 5

GEO. H. KELLEY 138 af.

IR. PLASTER & CEMENT TLY on hand. and for sale by GEORGE HOUSTON.

PROSPECTUS
PROSPECTUS
PROSPECTUS
PROSPECTUS
PROSPECTUS
Provide the second state of the s

2, at t is stage of our history, are the attention of all our good State oving citizens. Therefore, the Mark-ported with care, and all items, calcu-v light on either of those insepart ble ndustry, willbe carefully gleaned and

Will be specially valuable awn Book of a To whatever question of general in receil in regard to the events of 1855. It is hop attraction was a set of 1855. autisfactory answer will be found in the -While it is believed that the Minley Church will desire copies as seen as the obtained, I have paid regard to the what of the taster of general readers. The al-bers of the Church will find abetches in them back to their carlier composer, as in pair ment i

Dec. 29. BUTTER, CHEESE, a GOSHEN Batter, do. Chesas, ka ring and Pine Junie Chesas, Codiate, ring Salmon, Macherel, w

eits Nitre (iff): Animonia (fff) and a num 5, from the Laboratories o an, Chie Ellis & Co. Fo C. & D. DuPRE. JUST RECEIVED

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

CIRCULAR.

A BOOK FOR EVERY SOUTHERN METHODIST Early in 1855, probably to the month of Febru-ry, I expect to publish a new work to the partic-lar features of which I beg leave to null your ur-

THIS DIGEST Will be apprially value bie, and for factor of any second se

My address is Goldebore', N. C. Offantins P. DR

