SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1856 ORGAN OF THE TOWN AUTHORITIES

BATHING HOUSE. We have for a long time thought that a well ordered Bathing House would do a very good business here, and are induced to draw the public attention to it from suggestions made to us yeserday by a gentleman who entertains the same view of the subject.

MRS. BROTHERS' HOTEL.

We inrite the attention of the travelling publi to the advertisement of the above-named Hotel, at Fair Bluff. We have never been there, but all who have, and with whom we have conversed, speak in the highest terms of the accommodations and fare, and pronounce it an excellent house.

ELECTION IN RICHMOND. The Petersburg Express reports the news by telegraph, that the municipal election held in Richmond, Va., on Wednesday last, resulted in the success of the Know Nothings.

PEACE! PEACE!

We think there is little doubt about the co clusion of peace in Europe. If this does not make money more plenty with us, it will cause provisions to be cheaper, which will be an equivalent. Times will certainly be better here and exercwhere in the country, for the people at large. W. M. BURWELL.

We learn that the above-named gentleman, who was lately the Editor of the Washington City Organ of the Know Nothing or American Party, refuses to support Mr. FILLMORE "without more reliable pledges of his fidelity to the South." If the course of Mr. BURWELL is predicated upon his present position, we look with certainty upon his acting with the Great National Democratic Party, which has now begun the battle for the Constitution and given an unmistakeable and unconditional pledge of fidelity to the South.

We published an article on Thursday, from the Columbia (S. C.) Times, in which the Editor gives up his Know Nothing affinities, and takes the ground upon which Calnoth, of glorious memory, stood undismayed in an hour of violent conflict and great peril.

It is certainly gratifying to us to find so many of the talented and the pure, coming up to the rescure of Southern Rights, and vindicating our own course in this matter. We do not say that every honest Know Nothing will " come up to the help" on this occasion. But we do say, that such a step is evidence of honesty of purpose, independence of mind, and courage of heart. These are the qualities that are essential to the cause and the crisis-and we are confident that these will find exhibited an amplitude in their behalf, throughout the coming conflict. The motto of the Democratic Party is not "conquer or die."-No-no such thing-it is "conquer" only. Be firm and united fellow citizens and there need be we allude, but there is much to condemn. He gainst Nicaragua, which reached Granada on the speaks correctly of Mr. FILLMORE, when he says: 10th, when Walker immediately returned the "Without having shown marked abilities, he has ever maintained the character of a gentleand as far as we know, that of an upright, fair man. As the President of the United States, he did few things justly subjecting him to censure. He left office with the positive distinction of having strained at nothing, and with the reputation of a patriotic chief magistrate."

Of the Black Republicans he also speaks correctly, when he says:

"If they succeed in exhibiting their real char acter and purposes, there is a strong probability that their leaders, instead of being elected to the Presidency, will be tried and convicted of treason to the constitution. It is a remarkable fact, indeed, that the public mind of a section of the country has become so poisoned and debased that a formidable party of Nigger Worshippers has been organized and is disputing the election of President and Vice President with that old and at least respectable family, called the democra-

He speaks not well-not truly-not justly-not wisely-of President Perace, of whom he says: "He was a candidate without a biography-a great man without a history. He served his country so modestly that no one knew how-and for these things he was nominated and elected, and thereby the account is thought to be squared.—
Just at this moment be is President, and the greatest service he can do for his country is yet before him—that of leaving the White House."

We do not think it necessary to give the " history" of Mr. PEIRCE; though one of the greatest statesmen this country ever knew, prognosticated the event, many years before he was elected to the post of President of the United States. Mr. PEIRCE thus to excite the admiration of a great and discerning mind.

But the history of his administration is all we have to do with at present. We have on no ocasion failed to speak freely of what we conceiv ed to be its errors, and quite as freely in approbation of what we considered praiseworthy.

In regard to the great question before the coun try he has asserted the true principles of the Constitution with a precision, fairness and candor, which bespeak a patriotic heart and an intelligent mind. He has spoken more boldly for Southern Rights than any President has ever done or dared to do before him; and hence is he richly entitled to our admiration and applause. He has laid down the platform on which alone the South can repose in security or the Union rest in safety .-This has not been done in the ordinary way in which politicians invoke the support of the peoole, but in his office as President of the United tes-officially and unreservedly.

The insult conveyed in the concluding lines of the above extract, betrays a motive that does not meet the public eye. There must be unworthy impulses and promptings to cause the Herald to perpetrate this causeless, senseless and unjust sch of good sense and decent manners, If the Herald does indeed intend to vindicate be cause of the Constitution, as may be indistinctly inferred from some of its editorials, let nander order its batteries to fire on the PRINCIPLES NOT MEN. The above should be the governing doctrine in olitical and all other contests, among colightened men. Greatness in men is but an ideality in the sense in which it is usually conceived; the influence of reason is lost in this, which alone should be the umpire in all cases affecting the public welfare. Frequently, men follow political eaders without having any idea about it, but from habit and a sort of instinct equivalent to

It is evidently the practice of political tacticians to draw the minds of those they would have in their service, as much as possible from honest argumentation, and to silence the appeals of reason and drown the voice of truth. Hence arises an idolatry for men, which will not be diverted from its object, and which amounts to the expression you may say what you please about tariffs and Paris on the 12th of March. It only awaits the banks and sub-treasuries and so on, but you shan't abuse Fillmore."

inmp after their leader with evident self-satisfac-

Well, we think abuse of men is not the way to carry out the above motto, but rather a discussion of the principles which men profess. But the idea that doctrines are not to be as freely combated when asserted by men of distinction as well as when urged by the humblest individual, is a great absurdity-an absurdity, however, that certain politicians like to use when they want to accomplish a particular purpose by the elevation of particular men-instead of promoting the general welfare by striving after the truth, and letting the public interest and happiness abide by that,

We look for large crops of humbugs, deceptions and divertisements interpolatory, during the combat of mind in the ensuing election, and in this view we are reminded of a matter that occurred in Virginia-during Mr. Munroe's administration. we think. He had the above motto on his carriage in Latin, viz : "Principia non Homines." His political enemies told the people that the true meaning of the sentence was Princes and no Hominy. What precise effect it had we know not but, of course, it had some; for a Virginian will not do without his Hominy, let whatever else be-

ANOTHER VITRIOL MAN AT LARGE-WHERE ARE THE POLICE?

The flendish practice of throwing vitriol upon the dresses of ladies, which caused so much excitement among us some years ago, and still more recently, has been again revived. On Sunday evening last two ladies, while returning home, with a friend, from a sacred concert at the City Assembly Rooms, had their dresses destroyed by vitriol. The dresses, which were shown to us by the gentleman who accompanied them, were of the most costly silk and velvet, and were so badly damaged as to be unfit for further use.

About seven years ago a young physician, who had indulged in the malicious amusement for a long time, in Broadway and other principal thoroughfares, was at last arrested and committed to the city prison, where he put an end to his life by inhaling chlorofosm. In his case the police were also grossly and culpably remiss in the performance of their duty. A few years later another vitriol man commenced operations, and carried on the practice for several days before he was detected, and during that time destroyed thousands of dollars worth of clothes. He was lightly punished; but the terrible warning presented lishman were disputing on the relative merits and in the death of the unfortunate suicide, and the punishment of the second criminal, seem to have had little or no effect, if we may judge from the revival of the practice. There is one thing certain, however-that if the police were as vigilant as they should be such flendish acts could never be committed with impunity. Are the recent orders of Mayor Wood still in force? If so then we trust the policeman, or policemen, on whose station the dresses of those ladies were destroyed will be held to strict accountability. We have just been called upon by another gen tleman, who states that his two sisters had their silk dresses and mantillas destroyed while on their way home, on Sunday night last, from Dr. Chapious laugh which greeted this bit of exquisite hu- in's church, in Broadway; and a communication in another column informs us that yet a third par ty were sufferers from the same cause. One gen tleman has offered one thousand dollars for the apprehension and punishment of the offenders, an other one hundred and fifty, and a third five hundred. Surely, if such inducements do not arous the vigilance of the police nothing will. How long will this vitriol man be allowed to go at

Number 3 is a new and revised addition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851.— Sumbers 1 and 2, just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Beaders in the United States, and as

The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number 1 'deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superinendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed. These are 1. THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF A FEELING OF SELF DEPENDENCE, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State, and its nstitutions. It was not thought important however, to have more than one number of the Rea ders of merely local interest. 2. TO REMEDY THE EVIL EVERYWHERE COMPLAINED OF IN COMMON SCHOOLS, OF A PERPETUAL CHANGE IN TEXT BOOKS : at expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and this greatevil thus avoided.

3. E.ONOMY, the popular system of Reader being too long and being made so often merely to add to the profits of authors and publishers. This series is to consist of fewer numbers than those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually.

HERRING'S Patent Champion Fire and Burglar Proof Safes

Patent Champion Fire and Burglar Proof Safes.

The great interest manifested by the public to procure more perfect security from Fire for valuable papers, such as Bonds, Montgages, Notes, and Books of Account, than the ordinary SAFES heretofore in use had afforded, induced the Subscribers to devote a large portion of time and attention during the pust fourtien years in making improvements and discoveries for this object, and they now beg leave to assure their numerous friends, and the public generally, that their efforts have been crowned with complete success, and now offer the "IMPROVED HERRING'S PATENT WORLD'S FAIR PREMIUM FIRE PROOF SAFES." as the
