MISCELLANY.

ELOPEMENT-SEDUCTION-ADULTERY. Quite an excitement prevailed in the upper ward of Carbondale, Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, on Thursday morning, 22d inst, in consequence of a married man, named Wm Silsbee, eloping with a beautiful young girl aged only fourteen years, the daughter of a respectable mechanic of the First Ward The circumstances are of an aggravated character, as we find them in the Carbondale Transcript That

On Wednesday afternoon, this gay lothario, Silsbee, hired a horse and carriage from Mr. Durfee, packed up his trunk and took it with him, stating to his wife he would return in a day or two, drove round a few other streets, and, by agreement, took in a young female passenger who was waiting for him, and away they went en route for Illinois. Toward dark they arrived in Scranton and sojourned with " mine host " Kressler, and registed their names as Wm. Brown and lady. After supper they called for a room and retired for the

In the meantime, the father of the girl, and the father of Silsbee's wife, learned of the sudden departure of the twain, and fearing all was not right, started about 8 o'clock, in pursuit of the fugitives, and ar riving in Scranton discovered their whereabouts; they then procured a warrant from Justice Pier, for the arrest of Silsbee, and proceeded to their room, where, by a little stratagem, they got Silsbee to arise from his bed to open the door-and to their consternation and shame, in rushed the unwelcome guests! and nothing but the just and righteous veneration for the majesty of the law to punish the faithless husband and foul seducer, prevented them from inflicting summary vengeance on the villain.

The guilty pair were brought back to this city, the girl to the bosom of her afflicted parents, the man Silsbee before Alderman Pughs, who decided that he had no jurisdiction, as the offence charged was committed beyond the limits of the city .-The prisoner was then taken before Lewis S. Waters, Esq., at Blakely, and after a fair and impartial hearing, was committed to the county jail in default of bail. Constable Wilson accompanied the "nice young man" and lodged him in the jail at Wilkes-Barre, to await his trial at the next Court of Quarter Sessions, there to ruminate over his folly and vice, and the untold heaped upon his family.

FEARFULLY DIABOLICAL. The Baton Rouge Comet, of the 10th, is guilty of the following atrocious per-

DREADFUL ACCIDENT .- A lady was walking along yesterday evening, near the corner of St. Maximilion and St. Napoleon streets-at her heels followed one of those choice little "weethings" of the canine family, made, it would seem, out of a remnant of the dog | temptation to be dishonest. material in nature, after all other manner of dogs were made and pronounced perfect. The Pug at the lady's heels aforesaid was a fine variety-tail curled in the most elegant and graceful manner. Other dogs saw him as he passed, and dated May 17. He says he is wholly unathinking it might be an easy victory ble to discover the important and weighty "barked at him." This was the signal for still other dogs, and presently about twenty came together in what is classically called "a row." The lady scream-letters in opposition to the recognition. ed for the safety of her pet; and well which he characterizes as a most flagrant she might. The fact is, for a moment he could not be distinguished in the general engagement, and the awful idea flashed across the lady's mind that perhaps the bull belonging to "Jones," on St. Africa street, had swallowed him, and his beautiful form and features ried a little undersized beauty, says she should never more delight her eye. Be | would have been taller, but she is made of this as it may-a crowd of twenty or such precious materials, that nature could more, men, small boys and women included, came to the spot and all got excited together. The dogs retreated to one of those angles in the street leading into Royal Beauregard Square-here they were somewhat huddled togethersome actively engaged in pulling off the larger dogs-other persons holding others' dogs by their continuations. The lady owner of the small Pug was hemmed in and mashed. Is it to be wondered at that she exploded? Not at all. The pressed in hoops of her petticoat gave way, scattering boys, dogs and men about in an awful and terrific manner. Some were knocked as far as "Royal Beauregard," and others were found much mutilated in "Pete" alley. We cannot dwell on the spectacle presented when the dust of the battle settled-it can be better imagined. Suffice to say (we need not tell the ladies, for they know it already, and here they may close their eyes,) the lady aforesaid was dressed in the fashion, and had received in this country says: "We have mentioned the absence of Mr. Dallas, the American Minister, from the Mansion House. He dined the same evening with the friends and subscribers to the Literary Fund, where he made the speech of the evening. The American Government has frequently been represented at the Court of St. James by very able men; but we can call to mind no Minister of the U. States who has won such general admiration in this country in so short a time .-The literary power and elegance of this gentleman's after-dinner addresses are perfect models in their way. They are so pointed and so terse, and marked with such on hand a supply sufficient to meet any demand, reading even more than they impress in the delivery. His allusion to the fact of the great Benjamin Franklin, his countryman, having been towards the close of the last century the President of this same Literary Fund Association, was only excelled in good taste by the reference to the Englishman who established in the United States a kindred institution.'

GEN. CASS ON WALKER.

In the Nicaraguan meeting in New York, on Friday night, a letter was read from Gen. Cass, endorsing the recognition of the Nicaraguan Government, and say-

I am free to confess that the heroic effort of our countrymen in all Nicaragua excites my admiration, while it engages all my solicitude I am not to be deterred rom the expression of these feelings by sneers, or reproaches, or hard words. He who doesn't sympathise with such an enterprise has little in common with me .-The difficulties which Gen. Walker has encountered and overcome will place his ame high on the roll of the distinguished men of his age. He has conciliated the people he went to aid, the government of which he makes part is performing its functions without opposition, and internal tranquility marks the wisdom of its policy That magnificent region, for which God had done so much and man so little, needs some renovating process, some transfusion by which new life may be imparted to it Our countrymen will plant the seeds of our institutions, and God grant that they may grow up in an abundant harvest of industry, enterprise and prosperity. A new day, I hope, is opening upon the States of Central America. If we are true to our duty they will soon be freed from all danger of European interference, and will have security in their own power against the ambitious designs of England far better than Clayton Bulwer treaties or any other diplomatic machinery by which a spirit of aggression is sought to be concealed till circumstances are ready for active operation.

GOOD ADVICE TO APPRENTICES. When serving your apprenticeship you will have time and opportunity to stock your mind with useful information. The only way for a young man to prepare himself to study during his leisure hours -First, be industrious in your business-be frugal, be economical-never complain that but heartfelt pangs of a lovely and affect you are obliged to work; go to it with ationate wife, and the disgrace that he has lacrity and cheerfolness, and it will become a habit which will make you respected and beloved by your master or em heretofore solibers lly bestowed upon him ployer; make it your business to see to and promote his interest; by taking care of his, you will learn to take care of your own .-Young men at the present day are too fond of getting rid of work. They seek for easy and lazy employments, and frequently turn out poor miserable vagabonds You must avoid all wishes to live without labor; labor is a blessing instead of a curse; it makes your food, clothing, and every other thing necessary, and frees you from every > PROTEST OF DON MARCOLETA. New York, May 27. The city papers have been furnished with the official protest of Don Marcoleta against the recognition of the new government of Nicaragua, reasons which caused the U. States government to abandon its former position violation of div ne and human laws, and the encouragement and sure guarantee of fillibusterism in Nicaragua. He says he has addressed similar protests to all the diplomatic circle at Washington.

FROM SANTA FE. St. Louis, May 26th.-The Santa Fe mail arrived at Westport on the 21st instant. The mail was stopped by a band of thirty Keowah warriors, who demanded provisions, but offered no injury. A large number of Camanches were seen, but they were peaceable. The mail furnishes no news from New Mexico.

The Intellectual Vigor of a People is indicated by the Character of its Literature."

THE CRITERION; LIFERARY AND CRITICAL WEEKLY JOURNAL. 16 pages, 410.

V and has thus far received very general appro ation. Anxious to extend its influence, and place upon a substantial basis of support, the Publishr desires most earnestly to direct the attention of he thinking public of America to its claims upon heir consideration.
The main feature of the CRITE #ION is its Reviews of Current Literature. In this department are given thorough and able criticisms of all the most important Books as they are issued, pointing out their chief characteristics, and indicating their moral tendencies, thus keeping its readers their attention. It also contains-Copious Intelligence of Affairs in the Laterary Gossip concerning Books and Writers, informed of all new publications which deserve

Announcements of contemplated Publications, and Lists of New Books issued in America and Europe. The Drama, Music, Fine Arts, and Science, also eceive attention, and several columns of carefully selected and agreeable matter are given in each number. In addition to the above there is a department of Miscellanes for reading of an enter-taining character, carefully selected from new books and the ablest reviews, and a weekly collection of curious and valuable information. It is confidently believed that a journal such as he CRITERION cannot fail to have a good effect upon our national literature, and to some extent upon our national character. It will be found especially valuable in directing the attention of youth to works of real excellence, and encouraging an appreciation for valuable reading, which is being rapidly destroyed by the circulation of superficial and sophistical books. To the reading man the literary intelligence alone must reader it very desirable; and to all who wish to promote an improve ment in taste, the encouragement of merit, and an incompromising condemnation of victors style, mock sentiment, and evil principles, such an enterrise cannot—at least, should not—be indifferent. To members of Historical, Literary and Scientific Societies, Lyceums and Debating Clubs, the subjects discussed in this paper will at all times prove of peculiar interest, and it is the design of the editors to thoroughly canvass from time to time those important philosophical que tions which agitate all inquiring minds, correcting false theoies, and encouraging profitable investigation. The CRITERION is published at $3 per ar num. payable yearly, half yearly or quarterly in advance. Specimen copies supplied on application to the Publisher, CHARLES R. RODE,

Notes and Queries, which contains a great variety

The Annals of Southern Methodism, for 1855, will be a 12 mo volume of not less than 360 pages, well printed, from stereotype plates, upon good paper. It will contain all available statistics in every department of the operations of the METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

The design embraces the Plan of Episcopal visitation; accounts of the sessions of all the Conferences held in 1555, the appointments, numbers, &c; a summary of all reported revivals, notices of the dedication of new Churches; reports of College AS commenced on the 3d of November, 1855, Commencements, with all else connected with our educational movements; a resume of our Missionary operations, embracing whatever seems of gene rai interest in that department; the movements of the Tract and Sunday School Societies; whatever appertains to our publishing interests, with announcements of all New Books published by our nouncements of all New Books published by our concern, or written by Southern Methodists; what the Church is doing for the instruction of Slaves terms will be at the option of the contractor, for Historical and Biographical Essays; interesting personal reminiscences; and a miscellany of important facts and incidents.

THIS DIGEST Will be specially valuable as a Book of reference. To whatever question of general interest may arise in regard to the events of 1855, it is hoped that a satisfactory answer will be found in the Annals. While it is believed that the Ministers in our Church will desire copies as soon as they can be obtained, I have paid regard to the what I supposed the tastesof general readers. The older mem-bers of the Church will find sketches that carry them back to their earlier compeers, as in this de-partment I have not restricted myself to the history of the year, but have collected whatever has appeared during the year, which, as history and biography, preserves the memoirs of the olden time, and of the early men of Southern Methodism. The work will be published at One Dollar a copy. Those who subscribe in advance, shall receive the first copies issued from the press. PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL," A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C. HE existing condition of political parties, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establi-hing of such a journal as the "Southern Senti-nel" proposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed be-fore. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to howl among us in the South. These evils, sofar as it humble abilities shall serve,

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL Will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political but agricus liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention. The Sentinel will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects. which shall include Agricultural and the latest Commercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to sub scribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year .-Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London; graduate from one of the most eminent Culleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some is, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfuiness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misgrided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their expectations.

and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commitawful disease becomes a horrid object of commis-seration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf ferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore; whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid discase. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects, produced by early habits of youth, viz:—Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous irritability Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings. Aversion of Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c... are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of allages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciaing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emacinted, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REME-DY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. what a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit.—

Such persons, before contemplating

MARRIAGE.

Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote committal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a wear; pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with on rown.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHNSTON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not failto fall into the hands of the many impudent and unlearned. Imposters, with innumerable False Names or combined Quackshops, swarming these large cities, copying Dr. Johnston's advertisements or advertising themselves as physicians, lillicrate shallow-brained fellows, too lary to work at their original trade, with scarce too ideas beyond the brute, who, for the purpose of Enticing and Deceiving, carry on five or six offices, under as many different False Names, so that the afflicted Strangers, escaping one, is sure to tumble headlong into the other. Ignorant Quacks with enormous lying certificates of great and astonishing cures from persons not to be found, who keep you taking large bottles of Lucance Wathe and other packages of filthy and worthless compounds, cumingly prepared to impose upon the unfortunate and unsuspecting. Trifling month after menth, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and, in despair, leaves you with ruined health, to sigh over your gailing disappointment. It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to severtise, ron HE ALONE CAN CURE YOU. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he deems it necessary to say that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his office.
