

FOR GOVERNOR, THOMAS BRAGG, OF NORTHAMPTON.

FOR THE SENATE, OWEN FENNEL.

FOR THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, SAMUEL A. HOLMES, ROBERT H. TATE.

We are obliged to omit several articles to make room for the third day's proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention.

THE CINCINNATI PLATFORM.

We invite attention to the Platform, in another part of this paper. It is all a Southern rights man, an asserter of the principles of the Constitution, can desire.

RUMORS FROM KANSAS.

There are so many exciting and contradictory rumors from Kansas, that we defer their publication till we can come to something that has more the semblance of truth than anything which appears at present.

THE CLERGY AGAIN.

A meeting of the clergy of all denominations, says the Boston Herald, was held at Boston on the 29th. It was largely attended and unanimous.

SITUATION OF SUMNER—HUMBURG.

It appears that we were correct in supposing that the reports about SUMNER'S "critical" situation, were all intended for political effect; to get up an excitement for the Black Republican Party.

"A consultation of physicians was held at 10 o'clock this morning, in regard to the state of Mr. Sumner's health. No person whatever is yet admitted to see him. He was rather more comfortable last night."

We have informed ourselves concerning this rumored "consultation of physicians," and happen to know that it is, and was, all a "hoax."

SEND THEM ALONG.

The Special Washington Correspondent of the New York Tribune, who is said to be GREEKY himself, being at the last accounts, in that city, recommends very valiant measures. He says:

If the Union is to continue, the Northern men are a beaten people sooner or later, unless they meet the force by which Slavery maintains itself, by force—in a word, unless they become a fighting people on the national arena.

This is right. Send them along. If this be not the veritable GALEY it is the GALEY doctrine.—So send them along.

GRAND CHAPTER OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Carolina, for several days in session in this town, elected the following officers for the ensuing year, on Wednesday last:

- M. E. Peter Curtis, Newbern, G. H. P. E. F. Watson, Graham, D. G. H. P. A. M. Campbell, Fayetteville, G. M. J. Meigs, Raleigh, G. R. A. C. J. H. Uley, Raleigh, G. R. A. C. J. W. Blount, Duplin, G. M. 3d V. H. C. Herle, Alamance, G. M. 1st V. Rev. Jas. Reid, Lenoir, G. Chaplain, E. Turlington, Wilmington, G. Tyler.

On Thursday evening last, the Grand Chapter adjourned, after a harmonious and very interesting session.

ANOTHER FIRE!

KINGSTON, N. C., June 5.—The inhabitants of our town were aroused from their quiet slumbers at the hour of 2 1/2 o'clock, A. M., on Saturday morning last, by the dismal hiss of the fire bell. It was soon discovered that the steam mill owned by Messrs. Cobb, Hilton & Beeton, was on fire.

The Legislature of Connecticut has elected a black republican Senator, under the name of American Republican. The vote stood Dixon, 115; Toucey, 101; scattering 7.

ARRIVAL OF THE INDIAN.

England and the Central American States. Decline in Cotton and Breadstuffs.

QUEBEC, June 3.—The steamer Indian arrived here this morning with Liverpool dates to the 21st ult., four days later than previous arrivals.

The Indian arrived at Quebec during the night. In the House of Lords, on Monday, the Earl of Clarendon, in reply to a question from Lord Elgin, said that the letter signed F. Hammond was a genuine document.

The agents of Costa Rica and some of the American States had ever since the attack of Walker, appealed to England to assist them in defending themselves; and a great variety of projects had been laid before the British government for the acceptance of a protectorate by England and the grant of material assistance. All these requests, Her Majesty's government had refused declaring that it disapproved of the existing state of things in Nicaragua, and thought it would cast a shade upon the reputation of the United States, and knew no better plan than for the United States and the British governments to combine for the protection of their subjects.

Despatches from Vienna state that a convention has been concluded between the Porte and the Western powers.

The weather in England has been boisterous, and several vessels have been driven ashore on the coasts of England and Ireland.

NEW JERSEY.

The New Jersey American State Council met at Newark on Thursday week. The attendance was large. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the nominations of Fillmore and Douless, condemning the repeal of the Missouri compromise as an outrage, declaring that Kansas ought to be a free State, and calling upon Congress to restore quiet to the community by passing some satisfactory law in relation to slavery.

SERIOUS RIOT—FOUR MEN KILLED. NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—The whole American ticket has been elected, with the exception of two Councilmen. The Mayor has 2,900 majority.

There was a great deal of rioting during the election—fighting, stabbing and shooting were the order of the day.

The Clerk of the 11th district court was shot and stabbed by the "Sticilian" gang, and in the 11th precinct three "Sticilian" were killed.

Correspondence of the Commercial.

New York, June 3, 1856. The "Music of the Union" is sadly discordant at present. Our citizens find it difficult task to keep time to the old quicksteps of their fathers, marred as they have been by foreign interpolations and the discords introduced by demagogues.

Resolved, That the democratic party recognizes all bawdier them, and for a month, until the dust of the Presidential contest has cleared away, they must wait without laboring.

The honest patriotism of the country is equally confuted by the clamor and discord of the various factions. After a calm and clear survey of the whole field, we may say that the quiet conservatives of all sections will speak, and that their voice of reason will be heard by the country.

Our opera lovers and artists are in despair. The ten thousand organ grinders of New York have well nigh done for them, by the nausea of surficial, day and night grinding through the streets of the gems of song—Sonnambula, Norma, Trovatore &c. fill the air from the Five Points to Gramercy Park.

Second—Resolved, That our geographical and political position with reference to the other States of this Continent, no less than the interests of our country, require that we should the sacred principle involved in the Monroe doctrine.

Thirdly—Resolved, That the great highway which nature as well as the assent of the States most immediately interested in its maintenance has marked out for the free communication between the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans.

Fourthly—Resolved, That in view of so commanding an interest the people of the United States cannot but sympathize with the efforts which are being made by the people of the Central American Republics to prevent the construction of a canal which covers the passage across the oceanic isthmus.

Fifthly—Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect from the next Administration every proper effort to be made to insure our ascendancy in the Pacific Ocean.

Mr. Macklin, of Pennsylvania, moved the adoption of the platform and resolutions without the dotting of an i or the crossing of a t.

Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, moved the previous question.

Mr. Garnet, of Virginia—I demand a division of the question. I object to the introduction of any new doctrine.

Mr. Phelps, of Missouri—The case of the New York delegates has not been settled, and I am opposed to considering the matter further until it is settled.

The N. Carolina delegation enquired whether the committee meant to incorporate the post road resolution as a part of the platform. ["No, no," was the reply of the house.]

The previous question was sustained.

Mr. Breckinridge called for a vote by States, which was agreed to, and the vote was taken on the report of the committee on resolutions submitted, except the last five resolutions.

The vote by States was unanimous, in favor, (New York not taken.)—ayes 261 nays none.

On the five remaining resolutions Mr. Ingersoll, of Connecticut, demanded that they be taken up separately.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, advocated an adjournment till three o'clock this afternoon to get leisure to consider the foreign policy resolutions.

Mr. Pettit—I call the gentleman to order.

The Chair—the gentleman from Kentucky is out of order.

Mr. Phelps moved an adjournment to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Chair decided that such a motion could not be received while the vote was pending.

Mr. Phelps appealed from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. Richardson, of Illinois, stated that a motion to adjourn was in order when a vote was not actually being taken.

The decision that was negatived being doubted, a vote by States was called and the convention refused to adjourn—ayes 183, nays 78.

Mr. Meade, of Va., moved a recess be taken for one hour—negatived.

The Virginia delegation asked and were permitted to leave the room to consider the remaining resolutions.

The convention then adjourned till 2 o'clock.

[Owing to the prevalence of a storm in the line of the western telegraph we were unable to receive anything further of the doings of the convention yesterday.—REPORTE.]

From the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette. A PERFUMED DEBATE—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster.

Resolved, That the Democratic party recognizes all bawdier them, and for a month, until the dust of the Presidential contest has cleared away, they must wait without laboring.

perpetuation and expansion of this Union, in peace and harmony, every future American State that may be constituted or annexed with a republican form of government.

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, to act through the fair expression of the majority of actual residents; and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution, with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union as equals of perfect equality with the other States.

Col. Inge, of Cal., introduced the following, which was adopted in committee after considerable discussion. For the sick headache, and toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Extraordinary Cure of a Bad Breast.—The wife of Mr. Arthur Burn, of New Orleans, Louisiana, was, after the birth of her last child, a constant sufferer with a bad breast, there were several holes in it, and despite of the various remedies tried, her husband got nothing to do for her.

Resolved, That the Democratic party recognizes the great importance, in a political and commercial point of view, of a safe and speedy communication within our own country, between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of this Union; and it is the duty of the federal government to exercise promptly all its constitutional powers for the attainment of that object.

The committee reported the following additional resolution on.

Resolved, That by the condition of the present situation of the old world, and the dangerous tendency of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the right of acquiring citizenship, and by perseverance among us constitutional liberty by continuing to resist all monopolies and exclusive legislation for the benefit of the few, at the expense of the many. And the rights of the people, and the principles of the compromise of the constitution, which are broad and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it is, and the Union as it should be.

Resolved, That the countries connected with the foreign trade of this country is increasing, and the demand for the commodities of the East is increasing. It is made from the purest materials, from a recipe brought from Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the proprietors have letters from all classes, clergymen, physicians, sea captains, nurses, and others who have used it themselves, and recommended it to others.

Resolved, That our geographical and political position with reference to the other States of this Continent, no less than the interests of our country, require that we should the sacred principle involved in the Monroe doctrine.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect from the next Administration every proper effort to be made to insure our ascendancy in the Pacific Ocean.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaint, Dyspepsia, Biliary Colic, Acute, it will cure in an hour, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad sores, burns, scalds, and sprains. For the sick headache, and toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

DIED.

In this town, on Thursday last, Mr. WILLIAM B. JONES, aged 39 years. Mr. Jones served his time as an apprentice with the present Editor of The Commercial, part of the time in the office of The People's Press and Wilmington Advertiser, and the rest of it in the Standard Office at Raleigh. While in the Editor's family he was much esteemed and beloved and was a faithful, industrious and honest boy. That he sustained this character as a man, is well known to the community, where his death is very much regretted. We sympathize with the bereaved wife and four children, in their deep affliction.

COMMUNICATED.

The simple announcement made last week, that CAROLINE G., daughter of George R. and Sarah C. French, departed this life on the 25th of May, filled many a heart with sadness, and caused many a tear unbidden to fall.

And now we but yield to the wishes of many dear friends, as well as to the promptings of our own hearts, in saying something more expressive of our high appreciation of her worth. Caroline had attained to the age of sixteen years, eight months and twenty-one days.

Her sickness was of short duration, but was very severe; she bore it all with great fortitude and resignation, feeling, as was afterwards learned, that she should not recover.

And now that the loved one is gone it is a mournful pleasure to speak of what she was, and of what, by the grace of God, she was enabled to accomplish in so short a time as that which was allotted to her.

Few if any of her age, had made greater progress in all that relates to the solid and ornamental branches of education. Such was her proficiency and such her promise for the future, as to make her an ornament to any family. We have seldom heard a sweeter voice; and much and long will it be missed in our church music and in the family, and especially at the hour of household worship.

Her voice was always ready to be raised in prayer and praise. All who knew her loved her; but those who knew her best, loved her most. It was as a daughter, a sister that she was most dearly loved and most dearly missed.

The fondest affections of her heart had centered upon and entwined around her, and she and they seemed alike unconscious of this small sickness and death like the storm, severed their tender, but growing affections.

She was a punctual and loved Sunday School teacher, and most deeply do we feel, and most sincerely do we lament her loss. By nature she was amiable—but she was more so as an early age she gave her heart to the Savior, and though she never made a public profession of religion, yet during her life she gave many proofs of piety. And though the storm of man came at an hour when she was not expecting him, she was ready. It was the privilege of her father, her pastor and her beloved teacher to converse with her on the subject of her faith, and she died. And we have seldom seen one so fully convinced of speedily dissolving more calm or more willing to die. She contemplated death and spoke of it without fear. She desired her brothers and sisters to meet her in Heaven. And when asked what message she had for her sister, in Boston, she replied: "Tell Maggie to seek the Savior." And thus she fell asleep in Jesus.

For to be such a slumberer meet, With holy confidence to sing, That death has lost his venomed sting!"

J. L. P. From the Full River Monitor, May 10th.

The Monitor of this town contained the simple record of the death of Mrs. Eliza A. Lindsey, wife of William Lindsey, Esq. of this city. Influenced by a sense of justice as well as of duty, we now proceed to pay a passing tribute to the memory of her.

"Who lived, was loved, is dead," and who was endeared to earth by the strongest and tenderest ties of friendship and affection.—The deceased was the only daughter of the late Deacon Emos French, and as such was beloved by all who knew her. She was a devoted Christian, and was kind, generous, exemplary, and was warmly attached to the circle of relations which she moved in. Her life was one of ordinary intercourse of life. She was a beloved member of the First Baptist Church, and was baptized by Rev. A. Bronson, as we find on looking over the Church Record, March 18th, 1848. She had much to live for, husband, children, friends, besides being surrounded by all the comforts of life, and though of frail health her departure to the spirit land was not anticipated until a short time before she passed away. In vain was the physician's skill. Death had marked her for his own and nought could stay his hand. Thus in the sweet, though plaintive strain of one of our gentlest spirits.

Friend after friend departs; Who hath not lost a friend? There is no union here of hearts A long eternity of parting. Were this frail world our final rest, Living or dying, none were best.

There is a world above, Where parting is unknown; A long eternity of parting. Formed for the good alone; And faith beholds the dying here Transplanted to that glorious sphere.

Thus star by star declines, Till all are passed away; As morning high and higher shines, Not pure and perfect day. Not such a night as this, But hide themselves in heaven's own light.

For the bereaved, while sympathizing with them in their sorrow and desolateness, we invoke the consolations of Heaven. In their affliction, how "Sweet is the thought, the promise sweet That friends long missed are ready to meet— That kindred souls, on earth disjointed, Shall meet, from earthly shores reformed, Their mortal cares and sorrows o'er, And mingle hearts to part no more."
