MISCELLANY.

FURTHER FROM KANSAS-PEACE ESTAB-LISHED WITH THE SIOUX INDIANS.

Sr. Louis, June 9 .- An extra Westport Times of the 5th says reliable news has been received of the burning of the town of Bernard, Kansas. The free State men on the night of the 3d destroyed from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars' worth of property. A company of three hundred abolitionists, the same account says, captured the town of Franklin, being opposed by fifteen pro slavery men. Three persons are reported killed. The fight lasted an

The Congressional investigating committee are still here.

The steamer Grey Cloud has arrived from St. Pierce, after an absence of nearly one year, bringing intelligence of the adjustment of the difficulties with Sioux Incouncil of March last. The Indians delivered up twelve prisoners, horses, mules, &c., and promised obedience, to the government. The operations against the Sioux Indians had accordingly been closed. Gen. Harney set the prisoners free after a few days detention only.

The Kansas City Enterprise, detailing the advices, says that 30 Southerners proceeding from Westport, under the command of Captain Pattie, to Bull Creek, were suddenly met by an equal party of Free State men, and after two hours' skirmishing the former surrendered unconditionally.

A party of pro-slavery men, including the son of Gov. Shannon, made a night attack on the house of Capt. Walker, five miles from Lecompton, when they were fired upon and repulsed. Young Shannon was taken prisoner, but released the next day. Governor Shannon took a company of dragoons and searched the houses of the Free State men for two days, taking their Washington, June 3, 1.49 P. M. DEAR SIR: From the telegraphic reports in the newspapers I fear that an embittered state of feeling is being engendered in the Convention, which may endanger the success and harmony of our party. I wish you and all my friends to bear in mind that I have a thousand-fold more anxiety for the triumph of our principles than for my own personal elevation. If the withdrawal of my name will contribute to the harmony of our party and the success of the cause, I hope you will not hesitate to take the step. Especially it is my desire that the action of the Convention will embody and express the wishes, feelings, and principles of the Democracy of the Republic; and hence if Mr. Pierce, or Mr. Buchanan, or any other eminent statesman who is faithful to the great interests involved in the contest shall receive a majority of the Convention, I earnestly hope that all of my friends will unite in ensuring him twothirds, and then in making his nomination unanimous. Let no personal considerations disturb the harmony of our party or endanger the triumph of our principles. S. A. Douglas.

Washington, June 5, 9. A. M. DEAR SIR: I have just read so much of the platform as relates to the Nebraska bill ble that the business be speedily closed.

Washington, June 5, 9 1 2 P. M. Mr. Buchanan, having received a majority of the Convention is, in my opinion, entitled to the nomination. I hope my friends will give effect to the voice of the majority S. A. Douglas.

ANOTHER FORTUNE GONE. Under this melancholy head the Paris intelligence in the New York Express states that a young New York lady is about to marry a French officer, a sous-lieutenant of dragoons. The bride possesses, in her own right, a fortune of five hundred dians, according to the stipulations of the thousand dollars-the lieutenant has his sword and honor. The writer in the Express seems much grieved at such a disposition of the lady's golden attractions .-Certainly, he admits, if the lady is pleased, nobody has any right to complain; but it does seem strange that our country women cannot find, at home, enough honest and comely lads, upon whom to bestow their STILE LATER FROM KANSAS—VIOLENCE hearts and half millions. This lady, it is and the cheering news from the West admonish added, is not the only example. There us to close. The Annals of Southern Methodism, for 1855, will be a 12 mo, volume of not less than 360 pages, well printed, from stereotype plates, upon good paper. It will contain all available statistics in every department of the operations of the METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH. The design embraces the Plan of Episcopal visitation; accounts of the sessions of all the Conferences held in 1855, the appointments, numbers, &c; a summary of all reported revivals, notices of the dedication of new Churches; reports of College Commencements, with all else connected with our educational movements; a resume of our Missionary operations, embracing whatever seems of general interest in that department; the movements of EDUCATION.—It is a source of regret to all interested in the Educational interests of our interested in the Educational interests of our publishing interests, with announcements of all New Books published by our nouncements of all New Books published by our nouncements of the Southern Methodists; what Concern, or written by Southern Methodists; what the Church is doing for the instruction of Slaves Historical and Biographical Essays; interesting personal reminiscences; and a miscellany of important facts and incidents.

THE "ANNALS."

It is believed, will be a fair and full daguerreotype of the progress of Southern Methodism.

It will occur to you at once, that if I have succeeded in preparing this volume with any reasonable amount of skill, it will not only be a very agreeable book for present reading, but that every year will add to its value as showing the posture of Southern Methodism at this particular juncture of its

THIS DIGEST Will be specially valuable as a Book of reference To whatever question of general interest may arise in regard to the events of 1855, it is hoped that a satisfactory answer will be found in the Annals. While it is believed that the Ministers in ou Church will desire copies as soon as they can be obtained, I have paid regard to the what I supposed the tastes of general readers. The older members of the Church will find sketches that carry them back to their earlier compeers, as in this de partment I have not restricted myself to the histo-ry of the year, but have collected whatever has ap-peared during the year, which, as history and biography, preserves the memoirs of the olden time and of the early men of Southern Methodism. The work will be published at One Dollar a copy. Those who subscribe in advance, shall receive the first copies issued from the press. A gold dollar pasted in a letter can be sent securely and is preferable to bills of distant danks. Those of the banks in North and South Carelina wilde as good as gold.

In return a copy will be sent well wrapped and prepaid.

PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C.

PHE existing condition of political parties, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "Southern Senti-nel" proposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed be-fore. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to how among us in the South. These evils, so far as it humble abilities shall serve, THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL Will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political but senset but senset between the political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

The Sentinel will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects. which shallinclude Agricultural and the latest Com-mercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to sub scribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year .-Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

Gleets, Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Pains in the Loins, Constitutional Debility, Impotency, Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Affections of the Kidneys, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Disease of the Heart, Throat Nose or Skin; those serious and melancholy disorders arising from the destructive habits of Youth, which destroy both body and mind. Those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the marinets of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., Impossible.

YOUNG MEN.

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of SECRET DISEASES.

annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of elequence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men, contemplating marriage, being awareof Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, &c., should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a phytleman, and confidently rely upon hisskill as physician.

Dr. Johnston is the only regularly Educated Physician advertising to cure Private Complaints. His remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to all others. Prepared from a life spent in the Great Hospitals of Europe and the First in this Country, viz: England, France, the Blockley of Philadelphia, &c., and a more extensive practice than any other physician in the world. His many wonderful cures and most important Surgical Operations is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Those who wish to be speedily and effectually relieved, should shun the numerous trifting imposters, who only ruin their health, and apply to him.

A CURE WARRANTED OR NO CHARGE.

No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs Used.

OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK St., left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe his name and number, for ignorant triffing importors, attracted by the reputation of Dr. Johnston, link near.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadeiphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being slarmed standens sounds, and bashfuness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the needs of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horr disease make their appearance, such as alcerated sore threat diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dinness of sight, desiruss, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the month or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commissions. awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy eure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid discase. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, rain the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest rejuctance that Dr. JOHNSTON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of the many impodent and unlearned imposters, with innumerable False Names or combined Quackabops, swarming these large cities, copying Dr. Jounston's advertisements or advertising themselves as physicians, illiterate shallow-braned fellows, too large to work at their original trade, with scarce too ideas beyond the brate, who, for the purpose of Enticing and Deceiving, carry on five or six offices, under as many different False Names, so that the afflicted Strangers, escaping one, is sure to lumble headlong into the other. Ignor sut Quacks with enormous lying certificates of great and astonishing cures from persons not to be found, who keep you taking large bottles of Leonard Warrs and other packages of filthy and worthless compounds, cunningly prepared to impose upon the unfortanate and unsuspecting. Triffing month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and, in despair, leaves you with ruined health, to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, rus ms allows Clus crus vor. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he decans it necessary to say that his creden takes or diplomas always have in his office.
