VOLUME XI--NUMBER 40.

WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1856.

WHOLE NUMBER 1295

MISCELLANY.

From the Buffalo Advertiser, June 4.
Ex-President Tyler's Letter to a Black Man.
We cheerfully give place to the following letter. It carries sufficient explanation of the circumstances under which it was written on his face. Hope Butler is a well behaved colored man, who has resided among us for several years, and is favorably known to many of our citizens:

SHERWOOD FOREST,
CHARLES CITY COUNTY, Va., May 21.
MY GOOD FRIEND--I was highly gratified in the receipt of your letter of the 4th May, and shall not fail to make known your kind remembrance to my brother, Doctor Wat. H. Tyler, when I see him--His post office is the "Old Church, Hancock county," and he would be very much pleased to receive a letter from you.

Mr. William Allen is residing at Claremont, having married Miss Jessup, from Canada, and Mrs. Organ lives at Berkeley, the birthplace of Gen. Harrison, which she purchased in the last two years.

Doctor Minge, after having sold out here and emigrated to Alabama, has returned to Virginia, and purchased the farm formerly occupied by Mr. Cooke, near to Flowers de hundred. Mr. Francis Rufin still lives at Cabin Point, and Gen. Harvey in Richmond. I regret to say that our excellent friends Park Crump and Dr. Robert Butler, have paid the great debt of nature. Two more estimable men rarely, if ever, lived.

These have I given you an account of all those you inquired after, and I doubt not but that each of them who now live would most cordially salute you wherever they might meet you, or in your adopted State of New York. They say to you what is true in regard to the penalties imposed on free persons of color returning to this State. But it may truly be said that the stringency of our laws is entirely to be ascribed to the factious interference of those who are evermore engaged in the task of disturbing their neighbors, rather than to the spirit and feelings of our own people. You were always treated with attention and respect by this people, because you were known to be correct in all your dealings and faithful to all your engagements, and you can well avouch that all colored men who conduct themselves becomingly among us are treated at all times with consideration and respect. There are no types of "Uncle Tom and his Cabin" except during the time of his quiet and happy home with Mr. St. Clair.

I had the pleasure of meeting with Mr. Cook last year at Saratoga, and through him made inquiries concerning you. I am glad that he made known the fact to you, as to what I am indebted for your letter.

I shall take pleasure in mentioning your remembrances to the gentlemen as desired, and am gratified to learn that at your advanced age you continue to enjoy good health. So may it long continue to be--Such is the sincere wish of one who respects merit without distinction of race.

Very truly your friend,
JOHN TYLER.

Mr. HOPE BUTLER.

COWHINDING AFFAIR IN BOSTON.

Considerable excitement was created in the vicinity of stores numbered 90 to 100 on Pearl street, this forenoon, by the appearance of a gentleman residing in Cambridge, who was on the lookout for a clerk in a shoe store in the immediate vicinity of the latter number. The Cambridge gentleman discovered the object of his search in a store three or four doors from that in which he is employed, and immediately drew a stout cowhide and commenced laying it well on and about the head and shoulders of the clerk, who fled, and took refuge in his employer's store, but was pursued, and sundry blows inflicted upon him. The cowhiding left distinct marks on his face and neck. The cause of this attack is said to be the fact, that the clerk has on more than one occasion insulted the wife of the assaulting party, his insults being so gross that the lady has refrained from leaving her house for several weeks past, from fear of their repetition.

Boston Journal, June 9.

JAPANESE NOTIONS OF AMERICANS.

A gentleman who accompanied Comper's Japanese expedition relates to us a curious anecdote of that people, who, tho' generally intelligent, make some mistakes, like the rest of folks. One of their stories runs as follows: "The Americans are very obstinate people. They publish what is called a fi mi, (newspaper). These fi miz have no good in them, telling nothing but lies. One day one of these obstinate hogs fell into a trance in consequence of having eaten too much. Some thought him dead. It was announced in the fi mi, at once--a large reward being paid by the rich American for the first news of a man's death, as his head is considered a great luxury, if fresh. The man came to, but the obstinate creature insisted that he was dead. Taking up the fi mi and pointing to the article: "There!" said he, "don't you see that I'm dead?" He remained obstinate to the last, and refused to live until he died. Bokusa! kizui miz! (a dreadful curse) on those outside barbarians.

DEATH OF A DAUGHTER OF LUTHER MARTIN.

The Detroit (Mich.) Tribune records the death of Mrs. Juliet Scott, a venerable lady of that city, and adds: "She was the last surviving child of the Hon. Luther Martin, deceased, who in his day, was probably the most eminent lawyer in the United States. He was formerly Attorney General of Maryland, and was the leading counsel of Aaron Burr on his great trial for treason. Mr. Martin was devotedly attached to his daughter Juliet, and gave her a thorough and polished education. For many years she was a shining star in the most cultivated society of New York, Baltimore and Washington. Mrs. Scott had been both an orphan and a widow for more than a quarter of a century prior to her decease. Over twenty years of this period she has resided in this city, during a portion of which time, in connection with her most worthy daughters, she has been engaged in the honorable vocation of instructing the young, and many are the ladies of our city who will bear in grateful remembrance the name of Mrs. Scott, to whose careful training, both of intellect and heart, they have been placed under lasting obligations.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Great Excitement at San Francisco in Relation to the Murder of Mr. King, the Editor of the Bulletin--Old Vigilance Committee Re-organized--The Jail Captured and Prisoners Taken Out.

NEW ORLEANS, June 11.--The steamer Daniel Webster has arrived from San Francisco, with dates to the 21st, and from San Juan to the 6th.

Great excitement existed at San Francisco, owing to a terrible murder which had been committed. A man named Casey shot James King, the editor of the Bulletin, in the public streets, on the 14th, and Mr. King died two days after--on the 16th. Great excitement ensued.

The old Vigilance Committee called a meeting, and placards of an inflammatory nature were posted calling on the citizens to take the law into their own hands. On Sunday, the 18th, some three thousand citizens, completely organized into divisions and companies, armed with muskets, marched by three separate streets from the committee rooms and took possession of the jail, taking thence Casey, together with the gambler Cora, and carried them to the committee rooms, where they remained strongly guarded up to the sailing of the steamer. It was supposed they would be hung.

The whole city was dressed in mourning for the death of Mr. King, who was highly esteemed. Casey was formerly an inmate in Sing Sing, which fact being stated in the paper caused the difficulty.

The committee of safety is organized throughout the State, and it is said, have $75,000 with which to carry out their measures. One hundred gamblers are to be driven out the State.

The committee is also said to have plenty of arms and ammunition. Their proceedings were characterized by the most perfect order and propriety.

The steamer George Law for New York had nearly $2,000,000 in gold on board.

There had been no arrivals at San Francisco.

WALKER'S EXPEDITION.

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.--The Daniel Webster, which left Aspinwall on the 4th instant, arrived yesterday, bringing intelligence that the United States Surveying steamer had reached Panama, and that the difficulties with authorities growing out of the recent surveying riot had been amicably settled. Travellers could now cross on the railroad with perfect safety. Cortland Cushing died recently at Punta Arenas, and King, the proprietor of the San Francisco Bulletin, had been assassinated. There was great excitement among the Americans in California with reference to Nicaragua.

Advices have been received here from Central America to the 5th.

Walker's position was unchanged.

The cholera had broken out amongst the troops. Many were dying with the black vomit. They were also suffering dreadfully from dysentery.

THE "AWFUL MURDER OF BROWN."

A day or two ago Mr. Rockwell, formerly a resident of Kansas, returned to Hartford. He says he saw and heard nothing of the awful battles, conflagrations, civil war, &c., reported to be going on in Kansas, until he got this side of the Mississippi river, and he came directly here, not stopping much on the way.

In regard to the "awful murder of Brown," who was so frightfully "hacked to pieces," as the Tribune and other papers asserted, Mr. Rockwell says he saw the whole transaction. Brown was a worthless fellow, addicted to low company and fighting. He had been arrested for a misdemeanor, and on being set at liberty, he boasted that he could and would "whip any d--d pro-slavery man in Kansas!" A proslavery man took him at his word, and they agreed to fight on a wager--the stakes being a Sharp's rifle and a Colt revolver. They then went upon the ground and got ready, when Brown's courage failed him and he backed out. Hereupon his antagonist struck him across the head, making the blood flow, when Brown's friends seized him, and pining him on a horse, rode with him twelve miles on the coldest afternoon last winter. Those who went with him must have suffered greatly from the cold, and Brown actually froze to death. This was the fact in regard to Brown's death, which papers of the New York Tribune stamp, have gone into convulsions with the idea that he was brutally "murdered" without provocation, and his body hacked to pieces by the proslavery 'demons' in Kansas! These facts serve to show the general tenor and character of the warfare which the Abolitionists intend to carry on--a warfare of abuse and misrepresentation.

"These Abolition presses will not correct their untrue statements about the case, though we here give them the facts. No; they are sorry to see any different phase of their bloody stories, because the truth injures them as good working material to go into the Presidential election with."

CIRCULAR.

A BOOK FOR EVERY SOUTHERN METHODIST. Early in 1856, probably in the month of February, I expect to publish a new work, to the particular features of which I beg leave to call your attention.

THE ANNALS OF THE SOUTHERN METHODIST CHURCH, FOR 1855. will be a 12 mo. volume of not less than 300 pages, will be printed in demy octavo, on plain good paper. It will contain all available statistics in every department of the operations of the METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH. The design embraces a full and complete history; accounts of the sessions of all the Conferences, with all else connected with our educational movement; a resume of our Missionary operations, embracing whatever seems of general interest in that department; the movements of the Tract and Sunday School Societies; whatever appertains to our publishing interests, with announcements of all New Books published by our Concern, or written by Southern Methodists; what has been done in the way of the Plan of Episcopal visitation; and the Plan of Episcopal visitation; accounts of the sessions of all the Conferences, with all else connected with our educational movement; a resume of our Missionary operations, embracing whatever seems of general interest in that department; the movements of the Tract and Sunday School Societies; whatever appertains to our publishing interests, with announcements of all New Books published by our Concern, or written by Southern Methodists; what has been done in the way of the Plan of Episcopal visitation; and the Plan of Episcopal visitation.

It is believed, will be a fair and full digest of the progress of Southern Methodism. It will occur to you at once, that if I have succeeded in procuring a sufficient number of subscribers, a considerable amount of it, will not only be a very agreeable book for present reading, but that every year will add to its value, showing the progress of our Methodism. In this particular juncture of its history.

THIS DIGEST will be especially valuable as a book of reference. The principal portion of general interest, in relation to the events of 1855. It is hoped that a satisfactory answer will be found in the Annals. While it is in the hands of the Ministers in our Church, I will desire copies as soon as they can be obtained. I have paid regard to what I supposed the taste of general readers. The older members of the Church will find it interesting, and carry them back to their earlier remembrance, as in this department I have not restricted myself to the history of the Church, but have included a full and complete history of the year, which, as history and biography, preserves the memories of the Olden time, and of the early members of the Church. It will be published at One Dollar a copy. Those who subscribe in advance, shall receive the first copies issued from the press. A gold dollar will be sent to the subscribers, and will be payable to bills of distant banks. Those of the banks in North and South Carolina will be as good as gold. In return a copy will be sent well wrapped and prepaid. My address is Goldsboro', N. C. CHARLES F. DENNIS. Dec. 29. 122-1m

PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL."

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C. THE existing condition of political parties, and of partisan strife, naturally suggests the establishment of such a journal as the "Southern Sentinel," proposed to become. The present, indeed, is a most important and interesting era in our country's history. The Constitution has been invaded; it has been trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; and the rights of the people have been trampled upon. The political and social condition of the South, derived from a time-honored experience, is a subject of the highest importance, and one which should be brought to the attention of the people. These evils, so far as it is possible, shall be exposed.

THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL" will endeavor to attract to its columns, all who have a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the Democratic party, and by the Fathers of the Republic. It will not only be a political and religious journal, but will be a journal of general interest, and will be a journal of general interest, and will be a journal of general interest.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to subscribers at the rate of $2 per annum; $2.50 for the end of six months; and $1.50 for three months. Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies. J. F. KEENAN, Editor. 130-3t
