WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1856.

POETRY.

From the New Orleans Delta. BALLADS FOR THE YOUNG SOUTH.

BT JOSEPH BRENNAN.

Men of the South! our foes are up In flerce and grim array; Their sable banner laps the air-An insolt to the day ! The Saints of Cromwell rise again In sanctimonious hordes, liding beneath the garb of peace A million ruthless swords. From North, from East, and West, they seel The same disastrous goal, With Christ upon the lying lip, And Satan in the soul ; Mocking, with ancient Shibboleth Sall wise and just restraints-Baints of Heaven was Empire given And ws alone are Saints !"

Men of the South | Look up-behold The deep and sullen gloom, Which darkens o'er your sunny land With thunder in its womb ! Are ye so blind ye cannot see The omens in the sky ? Are ye so deaf ye cannot hear The tramp of formen nigh 1 Are ye so dull ye will endure The whips and scorns of men, Who hide the heart of Titus Ostes Beneath the words of Pen 1 Are ye so base, that, foot to foot. Ye will not gladly stand For land and life, for child and wife, With naked steel in hand 1

Bons of the brave ! the time is come To how the haughty crest. Or stand alone, despite the threats, Of North, or East, or West ! The hour is come for manly deeds And not for puling words-The hour is passed for platform prate-It is the time for swords ! And by the fame of John Calhoun To bonest truth be true, And by old Jackson's iron will, Now do what ye can do! By all ye love and all ye hope, Be resolute and prond. And make your flag a symbol high, Of triumph-or a shroud!

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London 1 graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Par-is, Philadeiphia, and else where, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being sharmed at sudden sounds, and bashfaness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of plensure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-tim-ed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delay-ing till the constitutional symptoms of this horrig disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated throat diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, destaurs, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the Bread, face and extremities, progressing with frightful ra-pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fail in, and the worth or the bones of the nose fail in, and the victim of this awfuldisence becomes a learning the set of commis-scration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf-ferings, by sending him to "that kentre from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. John ton plodges himself to preserve the most inviolable sentery; and, from his extendive prac-tice in the first Rospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate vision of the hearth di cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid case. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the uns shiftuiness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use f that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufficient to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his what a pity that a young man, the hope of his rountry, and the darling of his parents, should be enotched from all prospects and enjoyments at life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit.— Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE. Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary regulates to promote connuclial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage: the pros-pect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the meinn-choly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. OFFICE NO. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK.ST.

(One of Many) - The Boston Post pub. lishes an eminently patriotic letter from the Hon. Wm. A Crocker, of Taunton, Mass., a gentleman who has been, as he states all his life a thorough and steadfast Whig. and a warm personal and political friend of the great statesman of Massachusetts, Daniel Webster. He is well known to the public as an extensive manufacturer of locomotives. After reviewing at some length, the present political condition of the country, he proceeds as follows :--

In this condition of affairs, and amid the gloom which overshadows the land, I discover but one hope of safety. That hope is in the Democratic party. Whatever differences may have hitherto separated this party and the party with which we have been accustomed to act, however heated the contests through which they have passed, one thing must be admitted, the Democratic party has at all times and on all occasions been a national party. It was the Democratic party which met and crushed the spirit of disunion when the standard of nullification was raised in South Carolina. It was the Democratic party which stood by and sustained Henry Clay and our own Webster in the great struggle with sectionalism, in 1850, and it is the Democratic party which is now without distinction of locality, at the north and the south, in the east and the west, do. ing battle manfully for the Constitution and the Union, against a combination of factions. In truth the Democratic party is the only conservative party remaining, and the only organization to which conservatism may look for restoration of peace and harmony and obedience to law. It is quite sure that on some minor points-minor as compared with the all-absorbing issue of the times-I may differ with the was never before heard of, sweep the myrparty referred to; but shall I allow such consideration to interpose to restrain my action when the Union is in danger and the common weal at stake? For myself, I answer no. In this contest my vote and whatever of influence I possess, must be given in support of the Domocratic party. I should, perhaps, have been impelled by a people sense of duty to this conclusion, whoever might have been the candidate of that par ty for the Presidency. But the prudence, firmness and wisdom displayed by the late Convention at Circinnati, has removed all doubts. In presenting a platform of prin, midons of a corrupt eligarchy from power. by the strong arm of physical violence. This was a little ridiculous, after so elaborate and studied an effort to prove that the whole people, not excepting a single class, were wholly given over to an idolairy of the worst conceivable character. He must count on a very sudden and miracul-
