CLASSICAL.

We have quoted from the same author, in another column, but there should be a special notice of the classical beauty of the following from the gentleman who has been President of Harverd University, and highly distinguished for his lassical and other knowledge.

"The Free States have been so long terrified or fast insted by the serpent Slavery, that escape from its folds seemed hopeless, notif a kind Providence, watching over the destinies of this nation, has at length permitted it to exhibit itself in its true character,—vicient, lawless, unprincipled, true character, - viclent, lawless, unprincipled, insolent, and overbearing, prostrating liberty in the senste chamber at Washington, its jaws red with the blood of free citizens at Kansas."

This is exceedingly well for an L. L D. a title well merited, no doubt. But we think he is entitled to the whole of the initials claimed by Dr. Panguess in the play; he was not only an L. L. D. but an a double a.

The old line whig party of New York, held a State Convention at Albany on the 14th inst .-They are strongly antagonistic to Mr. Buchanan and the platform of the Cincinnati convention, and Col. Fremont and the platform of the repubdican party, on account of the sectional character of the party. They elected Delegates to the National Whig Convention, to as emble in Baltimore next week. FILLMORE was the favorite candidate on the occasion; but we guess they will think better of this matter, when they assemble, "count noses," and so forth.

Since the above was in type, we learn from a private source, that these Old Line Whig meetings which go for FILLMORE, are Know Nothings

FATAL ERROR.

We see by the papers and also learn from con versations with our neighbors of the Know Nothing or American Order, that Mr. Fillmore is beld up with the hope of diverting votes from Fag-MONT, if nothing more-and by this course they may weaken the power by which the National Democracy is opposed.

We speak of the organization South; at the North they have gone over, pretty generally we believe, to Black Republicanism. If the object be indeed to strengthen the power that contests with the anti constitutional hordes, who will strive to elect an anti-constitutional President, in the person of FREMONT, they labor, we think, under a fatal error.

There is another view to take of this subject. Let us consider these persons at the North, composed of democrats and old line whige, under the name of the National Democracy, who have really as faithful an attachment to the Constitution and Southern Rights under it, as any of the people within the Southern border, who are suffer ing denunciation and persecution on our account. If any one chooses to tell a lie, and say there are not large numbers of such persons in the free States, we cannot help it. We go upon the assumption of what we know to be true. What will our friends say, in looking at our causeless divisions here? "We are striving and suffering" say they, "to preserve the Constitution and the rights of our brethren of the South, and behold they are not united, on a question of plain and palpable rain to the Institution which is necessacy to their existence." Is it consistent with the feelings and impulses of human nature for them to put forth their full strength under such circonstances? By no political contrivance can the South gain what she will lose by every obstruction thrown in the way of the only party that will

As to Mr. Fitt. Mone, our opinion is the same as at first - that there is no possible chance of his election by the people-no chance of his being able to get into the house even; but if such a throughout the South. But as things now stand, thing was possible, we hope it would not be accomplished by the suicidal vote of any Southern

But this point is altogether speculative. Contiquing Mr. Fit. Mong in the field will have no other effect than to keep his party together in localities and to engender hostile feelings and partizan rancor among those who ought to "reaon together" and for this hour of common peril, be of "one mind and heart," whatever political acter of his Black Republican assailants. Bu- floor of the banquet room, and then caused nets organizations may be chosen hereafter.

The noble sentiments of Senator Parr and other old line whige, is entitled to all praise .-They felt it to be the duty of patriotism to vote for Mr. Buchanan as the strongest candidate opposed to the Black Republican party, whose destructive tendencies are plainly an lopenly avowed. These gentlemen reserve to themselves the for him. Nor do his principles bring him in anright, and indicate the intention to exercise it, of re-organizing the old Whig party when the battle array him and his friends against all sectionalism. constitution shall have been closed. THE CASE PLAINLY STATED There are few of our readers, we believe, who have not heard of Mr. Josian Quincy, of Boston. He was of the Federal party-subsequently with the Whigs, we believe, and now a Black Republican. In quoting his language below, we do not do so to charge a special monstresity on Mr. Quincy, but to exhibit the doctrine of the whole party opposed to us, and let our readers see the true issue now presented to the South and the North:

At the coming election, I cannot doubt that the Free States, in which the greatest proportion of practical wisdom, active talent, and efficient virtue exists, will take possession of this government; restore to the Constitution the proportio s of power established by Washington; re-instate, in full force the barrier against slavery, called "the Missouri compromise;" make Kansas a Free State; and put an end forever to the addition of any more slave States to this Union-duties to be fulfilled at every hazard even of the dissolution of the Union itself. If this Union is destined to break to pieces, it cannot fall in a more glorious struggle than in the endeavor to limit the further extension of slavery,-that disgrace of our nation, and the curse of our race. The above is from an address recently deliverhas been very consistent in his course; ever doing all the harm he could to the South, whether for many miles. The destruction of property has as a Representative in Congress, Mayor of Boston, or President of Harvard University. He is Yesterday evening a report reached the city that as severe and hot in his language at 82, as he was Last Island-a summer resort-had been engulf-

Surely there is not a man of plain land. Some more rain fell in this city this evencommon sense in the Union who could commit so ing." stupid a blunder.

Have we not well said, when we have over and over again told our friends that there was no sincerity in the northern expressions of regard for the Compromises? We have found, with sorrow, that even southern men regret the breaking up of these unconstitutional acts—the Compromises.— the sad occurrence : We are surprised that they have not observed that politicians of the free States have flouted at them; and never permitted their provisions to be acknowledged in theory or practice, wherever they could possibly avoid it.

But Compromises are not now to be discussed. The only question now before the country is Constitution or no Constitution. The undisguised doctrine of the Black Republican party is that no more slave States shall be added to the Union. On this issue the Presidential contest is based and

What would be said of those who contend for Southern Rights under the Constitution, were they to declare that there should be no more free States? Would not the world cry out against this unblashing repudiation of the Organic Law under which we claimed our rights? Yet we have as good a right to say this as the other party has to assert the reverse. Are we sunk so low that we will submit to be told that we shall not have our constitutional rights-we of the Southand not offer a united resistance to the audacious and treasonable mandate?

HON. RUFUS CHOATE.

The Whigs of Maine lately had a celebration the town of Waterville on the 13th inst.

The Hon. Rufus Choate was invited to be present, but being unable to attend, he sent a letter, in which he defined his own position on the Presidential question; and avowed his intention to vote for Mr. Buchanan.

He says, in conclusion, practically, the contest in my judgment is between Mr. Buchanan and Col. Fremont. In these circumstances I vote for Mr. Buchanan. He has large experience in public affairs; his commanding capacity is universally acknowledged; his life is without a stain. I am constrained to add that he seems at this moment, by the concurrence of circumstances, more completely than any other, to present that sentiment of nationality,-tolerant, warm and comprehensive,-without which, without increase of which, America is no longer America; and to possess the power and I trust the dispositions to restore and keep that peace, within our borders, and without, for which our hearts all yearn, which all our interests demand, through which and by which alone we may hope to grow to the true

SECTIONALISM.

The Editor of the Savanah Georgian and Journal, has the following sensible remarks in regard

"Our Southern opponents seem terribly concern ed at the idea of a sectional contest; for the Presidency which they flatter themselves, is to be prevented, (some how or other.) by the candidacy of Mr. Fillmore, and to be promoted, (some how or other) by the union of the South upon Mr. Buchanan. We confess for ourselves, that we are utterly unable to comprehend in what way the canvass is made less sectional by the running of Mr. Fillmore. As far as the black republicans are concerned, the contest is purely sectional .-They have deliberately determined that, as regards themselves, this shall be its character-a determination which can only be changed by the nomination of the Fremont electorial tickets Fremont is a candidate for the vote of only the Northern States. He is therefore a sectional candidate. The contest therefore on the part of his friends, arranged as they are both by their resi-

A party consisting of Mr. John Rrown, wife and two children, and sister; P. C. Winslow, wife and two children, and daughter of Adam Baker, started in a sail-boat in the morning for a pleasure excursion among the Islands. Everything passed off pleasantly until the boat was on its way home, when a rais came on, and the woman and children went into the cuddy of the boat. Suddenly a whiriwind struck the boat so powerfully that nothing could withstand it-and she sank stern first, and every person in the cuddy was drowned. Those upon the deck were saved by getting upon the bow upon the boat which still remained above the water, until assistance arrived. There were boats in sight when the calamity occurred, so that assistance was speedily rendered and the boat towed ashore about half-past nine.

Our correspondent says that the whole town was thrown into distress by this sudden and awful dispensation of Providence. It is certainly a remarkable circumstance-in the river, within a short distance of whore the boat capsized, it had been for hours before and since the accident almost a perfect calm.

The following are the names of those drowned: Mrs. Alvira Brown aged 40 years; Lydia Brown, aged 24 years; James Brown, aged 12 years; Mrs. Miranda J. Winslow, aged 29 years; Ella M. Winslow, aged 4 years; Irvin F. Winslow, aged 21 years; Emma Baker, aged 12 years.

REVOLUTION IN SAN DOMINGO. NEW YORK, Aug. 15 .- Advices from San Domingo to the 3d state that a revolution was in progress there, growing out of the terms of the Spanish treaty, which favors the descendants of Spain. The Spaniards being the most numerous, wish to hoist the Spanish flag again, and citizens and soldiers were hastening to the Spanish consul to get registered as Spanish citizens.

A great excitement had arisen in consequence All the tribu als were closed and business suspended. The President of the Cabinet was threatening to resign, and the foreigners and liberals were looking anxiously for a government vessel to protect them. The liberals say that the Spanish flag shall never again be hoisted there.

The Spanish consul was opposing the ratification of the American treaty, and thwarting the A merican consul in all his measures.

ROSES IN FORMER TIMES.

Among the ancients, to enjoy the scent of roses at meals, all alundance of rose leaves were sha ken upon the table, so that the dishes were completely surrounded. By an ingenious contrivance roses during meals, descended on the guests from above-Heliogabalus, in his folly, caused violets and roses showered down upon the guests in such quantities that a number of them, being unable to extricate themselves, were suffocated in flowers. During meal times they reclined upon cushions stuffed with rose leaves, or made a couch of dence and their principles against the South, is the leaves themselves. The floor, too, was strewed with roses, and in this custom great luxury was displayed. Cleopatra, at an enormous excandidate is false, and only false. add to the profits of authors and publishers. NEW-YORK MARKET. For 3 days preceding. August 16 .- The Shipping and Commercial List

Cotton-There is rather more tone to the market since the arrival of the Canada, but prices are without quotable change. Some 3 a 4000 bales have changed hands, mostly for account of spiners, within our range. We quote: 10 a 131.

Flour Southern Flour is in better supply, and Ct. by J. & D. McRae & Co., with lumber.

Br. Schr. George Prescott, Henderson, for Jeremie, to Pierce & Dudley, with lumber, shingles, 50 for mixed to straight brands, $7.60 a $8.25 for common to good fancy and extra, and $8,50 a $10 for f pcy and extra. Corn - Corn is in good demand, and the market for good qualities is firmer; sales 175 000 bushels, closing at 58 a 59 cents for unsound Western mixed. 62 a 63 for sound do.; for other kinds see Naval Stores - Turpentine continues very scarce the receipts consisting of only trifling lots, and the stock on hand being only a few bundred bar-rels, insufficient to fix a price. At Wilmington. we understand the last sales were at $3, and a by machinery, and strikes about seven times in small lot South Carolina, here, brought $3.62; — Spirits Turpentine has roled very quiet since our last; the receipts are very light, and receivers continue to demand 44 cents, but a lot of 150 bbls pressed upon the market yesterday, was sold at 414, cash, though this is not a criterion of he market; at retail, there has been a good demand at 44 a 45 cents, cash—stock 4500 bbls. Common Rosin is in fair request at our figures. Tar is held pretty firmly, with sales of Washington and Wilmington in lots as wanted. at $2 a $2,25—stock 6 a 7000 bbls. Sales 70 bbls. South Carolina Crude Turpentine at $3 624 per 280 lb.;

White, $3,75 per 280 lb.; and 300 do., on private WHOLESALE PRICES CURRENT. Rice-There has been a better demand since our last, and with sales of 1000 tes, part for export, at $3,75 a $4 621, cash, the market closes with more steadiness, BALTIMORE MARKET. Aug. 16 .- Flour has declined; sales of City Mills at $6.50. Wheat is 6 cents lower; sales of red at $1.35 to 1.45, white $1.45 to 1.48 Corn -sales of white at 58 to 621, yellow 60 to 61 cts.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET. Aug. 11 .- Only 60 bales of Cotton were sold today, and prices are nominally the same. Meas Pork commands $20 per bbl. India bagging is worth 23 cts.

CHARLESTON MARKET. Aug. 14.-Cotton, there was a moderate demand for this article to day, and the transactions reached only 18 bales at 10c.

THE VALLEY BANK. Legal measures, it is stated, are about being adopted sgainst this swindling concern. A law-yer has already been despatched to Hagerstown to promote the appointment of a receiver. The New York Post says that the bills of the bank only got into circulation, even among the brokers in Wall street. by the given guarantee of the Messrs. Leland, whose agent went daily into Wall street to take up what bills were wanted to be redeemed, and to out as much as he possibly could into circulation. When the Mesers L. land stopped thus redeeming, the brokers ceased to take them, and found themselves with a considerable amount on hand, notwithstanding the guarantee that was given. As anonymous correspondent of the Post states that the issues of the bank are well secured and that at the meeting of he directors on Wednesday last, they found oil's in circulation, $156 000; assets, $171.000.
