MISCELLANY.

SANSAS AND THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT. -THE DISTURBERS TO BE PUT DOWN. The Washington Star states that positive instructions have gone to Kansas which will, it is believed, lead to such measures on the part of the Covernment's officers, military and civil, as will prompt ly put down the civil war there It further adda

. It is deeply to be regretted that Gen. Smith permitted Lane to enter the Territory at the head of an army of brigands, with arms in hand, and thus to create the necessity for the counter precipitation of an army from Missouri for their dispersion and punishment. The Government here have a duty to do in the premises which, we are satisfied, will be done at all hazards. The fact that Gen Smith failed to take the responsibility of driving Lane and his men out of the Territory ere they had perpetrated one of their hundreds of recent your lers robberies and arsons, can form no legitimate re ason why the General Government should fail to prevent the Missourians from taking their revenge. We have no doubt that Lane and every man of his force who can be arrested will be duly arrested by the troops of the U. States, but none but troops called into service by the General Government will be permitted to participate in ar resting them. Any others found in arms in the Territory, under whatever pretence, will be regarded as participants in the existing civil war which it is the imperative duty of the President of the United States to put down at all hazards, and will be dealt with accordingly. Such, in few words, we believe to be the substance of the instructions said to have been forwarded to Gen. Smith and Gov. Geary.

EXPLORATION OF THE NILE. The new expedition to the head-waters of the Nile, under the command of the ommand of the French Count d' Esdayrac de Lauture, and under the protection and auspices of Said, Pasha, promises to exceed all similar projects hitherto set orfort. At Vienna twelve officers of the Austrian general staff expressed their willingness to join the expedition, from which number three were selected, who, together with the meneralogist, Mayer, recently in the service of the Dutch Government in Berneo, make up the complement of Germans in the expedition. The whole force will comprise twelve Europeans, besides the leader, and three hundred soldiers furnished by the Egyptian Government. A. mong these latter, who are principally naives of the interior of Africa, there are supposed to be a sufficiency of interpreters -

For the navigation of the Nile the expedition has thirty barques and two small stenmers and a crew of one hundred men. besides the necessary men and meaus to continue the journey by land beyond the he d of navigation. Never before was scient fic expedition fitted out in like man-

The expedition will leave Europe on the 10th of September, Count d'Escayrac with the Germans embarking at Treiste and the French expeditionists at Marseilles The entire party will meet at Alexandria, and expect to reach.
