WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 20, 1856.

MISCELLANY.

As a matter of justice to Mr. Dortch, we publish the following account from him of the difficulty between himself and It is well known that printers of an ear-Mr. Robinson :

will do me the kindness to publish this statement of facts.

In the month of June last, Mr. Robinson maliciously attacked me, personally, in his SUPPORT YOUR OWN PAPERS paper, and endorsed a charge against me of incompetency for the post of Director of the N. C. Railroad, and stated that Governor Bragg should have removed me .---This the Governor did not do; but shortly thereafter re-appointed me. The Editor of the Sentinel replied to and effectually repelled his charges. Mr. Robinson then published consecutively, several other articles reflecting on me, of which I took no notice, until I became a candidate for the Legislature, when I spoke of his attacks er. These Stories are all from the pens of sour before the people of Wayne, and defended san warras, and will initiate a new era in Southmyself against them. During the canvass he made no other publications, but as soon the Examiner, its colums will be furnished with as the election was over, he again commenced his attacks, grossly and maliciously reflecting on my private and public character, and published a private letter written by me to him in 1850. I was adwritten by me to him in 1000. vised by my friends not to notice his arti-vised by my friends not to do so. A The Examiner is printed on a large double The Examiner is printed on a large double friend, however, published an anonymous communication in the Sentinel, censuring his malignant attacks, and his publication of the private letter.

In the next issue of his paper, of the 28th day of August, Mr. Robinson, without in quiry of me, falsely charged me with being furnish a full summary of news. It will be the the author, or one of the authors, of the aim of the editor to make The Examiner just such communication to the Sentinel, taking oc- a paper as will cause it to be a welcome visitor in casion to pronounce me a "liar," "miscreant," "ass," "infamous man," "regardless of veracity or honor," "malignant creature," guilty of "unblushing, unmitigated falsehood," "meanness and vileness, "skulking let him hope for no quarters," and "let him tions for the new volume. slide for the present," end making use of many other libelous and slanderous epithets and charges, grossly assailing my character as an honorable man.

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Landon; graduate from one of the most eminent Calleges of the United States, and the greater past of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Par-is, Philederphia, and elsewhere, has effected some is, Philaderiphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when askeep, great nervourness, being clarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfunness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangen ent of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and improdent volary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of shine painful disease, it too often happens that un lil-tim-ed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from sourceion and respectability, can shore befriend him, delay-ing till the completions. OMMISSION MERCHANTS, ing till the constitutional symptoms of this horizon disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated COMMISSION MERCHANT, sore throat. diseased nose, noctural pairs in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, desiness, node sore throat diseased nose, noctural pairs in the head and limbs, dimners of sight, dealners, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful ra-pidity, till at last the palate of the moust or the bones of the nose fail in. and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commis-scration, till death puts a period to his draadial suf ferings, by sending him to "that boarse from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable screery; and, from his extensive prac-tice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a sale and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid dis-ense. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the un-skillaleess of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that deady poison mercary, ruin the constitu-tion, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to on untimely grave, or elac make the residue of life mis-erable. crable TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. derous publications. Mr. Robinson, it is well known, does not hold himself responsible, according to 5 the code of honor, for what he may say or publish. When I read the above article, I felt greatly provoked at his unceasing attempts to persecute me, and determined that I would not tolerate his conduct longer, and 5 would cane him. I had no purpose then of shooting him, but was afterwards informed that he went armed with a revolver for me. On Saturday afternoon 1 walked down to Mrs. Griswold's hotel, and J being in company with several persons, one | ato of whom had a gun, (having just returned from hunting squirrels,) I inquired what kind of shot it was charged with, and was informed it was with small shot. I had not seen Mr. Robinson since his libellous attack, and at the moment determined, as he went armed for me, so that I could not get near enough to cane him without being likely to be killed, that I would shoot him, with the view of chastizing, and not killing him, and took the gun from the hands ho of the owner, without telling him my object. Very soon Mr. Robinson crossed the street, but I could not shoot him without in the risk of hitting persons beyond him, until too near to shoot without endangering his life cr maiming him. In a short time, 15 I saw him again, about twenty-five yards C off, with his left side towards me, and immediately fired, lodging the contents of the 88 gun in his left leg, thigh, butt, and arm, tal several shot taking effect in his back obliquely.

The affair occurred in view of a number of persons, in the most public part of the town-
