DEATH OF JUDGE TOOMER. It is our duty to announce the death of Judge Toomen, aged 72-years, which occurred recently at his residence near Pittsboro'. We are among the many who personally knew his worth. No man in this or any other country exhibited through all his life, greater purity of character, or more consistency in all that is amiable and praiseworthy. With a generous, benevolent and sympathetic heart, he combined learning and eloquence in an eminent degree. We look for a proper tribute of respect to his memory and a record of his public and private worth, to some other pen.-For ourselves, we have always thought that official titles or positions added no dignity to Mr. TOOMER. When we heard the name of John D. Toomen, there arose to our perceptions a character entitled to our affection, respect and admira-

"BRAR HIM! HEAR HIM!! The following is an extract from an oration, delivered before the citizens of Herkimer county, at Little Falls, New York, July 4th, 1856-by E. P. Hurlburt, late Justice of the Supreme Court : "CITIZENS OF THE EMPIRE STATE! You can afford to be brave, magnimous and just! You are masters of an Empire, which, compared with the Confederated Colonies at the period of the Revolution, has as large a population—far greater wealth and resources, and possessing to a larger extent all the elements of immediate has larger extent all the elements of immediate hational success. " You now supply about one-third of all the revenue of the Federal Government. You have in your great City, the Metropolis of America. "In your sons you will yet find-though slum-ereignty of a separate and independent State. Then 'be just and fear not!' "Around you, in a crisis, will gather all New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and all the great, growing and beautiful West; and, toguther, you would present to the world a specta cle of national strength and prosperity, equal to the virtue, justice and honor of your unblemished national character. 'Be just, then, and fear not!" Be true to the instincts of humanity, and fear not; and 'let justice be done, though the Heavens fall.

Does this savor of disunion? Yes-er noas I will explain. Rather than lend the resources and power of the present Confederacy, to the propagation of African slavery into the territory now free, I would dissolve our present political union.

"Rather than admit another slave State into the Confederacy, I would dissolve it. Rather than endure the curse of such another four year's governmental infamy as Pierce, Dou-glas and Company have inflicted on us, I would dissolve it—so help me Heaven!"

Our friends will here see the prevailing sentiment of black republicanism at the North. What can we expect from such a source, if by a want of union among ourselves, we permit their chief to occupy the Presidential Chair? Surely this cannot, must not be. Before the issue is made up, let us discard all irritating reference to the past. Let us forget them, and press on to things Before us. "We are one" in interest; social. moral and political. The destiny of the South is a common one, and we must all partake of the issue, whether it be adverse or triumphant.

WHERE THE AID HAS GONE. At a big meeting in Albany, a short time since, several thousand dollars were subscribed for the "relief" of the starving people of Kansas. Gerrit Smith gave $3,000; Edward C. Delevan gave $1,000; and others gave smaller sums. The money has been accounted for by the committee appointed to disburse it, as follows: The printers, (New York Tribune, Times, &c.) got $815. Paid clerk hire, $136. For an agent, $232; total committe account, $683. Paid for the relief of R. Buffum and family in Kansas, $25; to committees for "relief" purposes, $400; total for relief. $450. Paid for Sharp's rifles, $643; for passage of armed emigrants, $577; to Chicago committhe for civil war, $1,400, Loaned to Gen. Schuyler, $250; to C. Robinson, "governor," $500; making a total of three thousand five hundred and ten dollars devoted to civil war; while only four hundred and twenty five dollars were devoted to the Albany Argus, called for bread and they gave them bullets! What a farce spon-philanthroay! What a paradox spon religion!

POLITICAL ITEMS. Gen. J. B. Howell, an old line Whig of Favette county, Pa, has announced that he will unite with the Democratic party during the present political struggle.

Political excitement increases in Pennsylvania. les are held daily in every town; and the Demo-Meetings were also held at Newport and Columbia although the name of the latter be "Legion." the same evening, and at Shamokin on the 24th.

Five hundred and eighty-three Germans of New Haven took part in the Democratic procession on Thursday evening last. Among these were included the Turners, who bere a flag of

THE DIFFERENCE. told that we cannot reach th rescure the ear of abolitionism, because the subject is with them a matter of religion. -This, of course, is fanatical. There can be no religion when the Bible is denied and its doe triner rejected. We will not insult the intelligence of our readers by any attempt to combat this delusion as a principle; nor do we believe it valways delusine. Much oftener is it the promptings of a proud and malignant heart, influenced also by avarice.

The North boasts of its literature. We have no jection to giving the free States the credit of a great deal of sinless literature, while we charge them with the most atrocious misuse of cultivated intellect, in assailing the Constitution, and in endeavoring to bring this fair portion of the Union into disrepute, not only among their own people, but throughout the world.

We will at this time notice one case, illustrative of many, where the profession of religion is made, while the doctrines intended to be inculcated must tend to the most horrible results.

Mr. Srows, who is absurdly called reverend to denote his moral rank, with the scarlet beast his wife, are now in Europe, consorting with the enemies of republican liberty, and using every offort to spread abroad a sentiment that may create detestation for the Pederal Constitution, and hatred for the people of the South. With the work of the wretched thing whom we conventionally call a woman, we have now to do; and while we by no means believe the effect desired will reach the most distant attainment, yet it is well enough to shadow it forth, to show what this authoress is willing to do for the sake of Money. In the South, where domestic peace and social bappiness and order now prevail, in as eminent a degree as any other place on earth, this woman would induce revelt and murder. Would sever the strong ties that bind in affection the master and the slave-and where peace and harmony now prevail in the southern households, would bring in the demon of destruction in all the horrid forms of violence, cruelty and blood. We need not enter into details. All who are in the least conversant with the history of our race, know that language is too weak to describe the scenes that arise from unbridled passion and fanatical r venge. All this is done for what? Not for any kind sympathy for the colored race, as this professed Christian, would have the world believe; because all she says and does enures to their discomfiture; but for money -the history of the case makes it transparent, that MONEY is the sole object. Not one speck of honor, honesty, patriotism or christianity, dwells in her bosom, nor in that of the reverend noodle, her husband. The reports of enormous sales, in Europe and America, of her new work; come upon us with assured verity-and many thousands of dollars will be gained in this christian work-exceeding the rich speculation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." We know enough of the contents of the latter named work to anderstand its character. In the descriptions of the "quadroons" and others, held up as the victims of violation-is shown a mind and heart intensely dissipated with impure desire and unholy thought. EUGENE SUE fires up the passions of the licentious. Mrs. Srowe by a christian pretense, disturbs the emotions of the pure. Well does the Poet, describe this crea-

At every point and motion of her body. O, these encounterers, so glib of tongue, That give a coasting welcome ere it comes, And wide unclasp the tables of their thoughts To every ticklish reader! Set them down For sluttish spoils of opportunity, And daughters of the game.

And now we will endeavor to show how Christian sympathy for the slave is expressed in the South. In this we will present one case, as illustrative of many, as we did in the other; and thus show the difference between the true and the false. We select the Church of which we are a member, the M. Episcopal. In every congregation room is provided for the slave and free people of color, who worship with the whites, and one portion of the day is exclusively devoted to the former. In many places they have separate churches, appropriated solely to their use. Our preachers go into the plantations and have stated times for preaching to the slave laborers; many give all their services to the slaves; travelling under the burning heat of summer and through chilly rains and sleets in winter. And for what do they do this? For MONEY? No, no, no. A supply of food and decent clothing is all they covenant for in the service of Christ; and wh re these are not abundant, they uncomplainingly work, work, work. And this is not all. The whole body of our Clergy, with very rare excepthus do these men show, that

A gentleman, whose name we did not learn, says the San Francisco Golden Eagle, arrived in this city from Bird's Hill, for the purpose of procuring surgical advice in relation to the possibility of removing from the stomach a large snake, which has inhabited that locality for the past fifteen years. Exactly at what time the reptile was taken into the stomach the sufferer is not aware. He felt its presence in the vicinity of the kidneys many years ago; but the pains experienced, although sometimes acute and troublesome, occasioned no alarm until about two years since. when, one day feeling quite unwell, he placed his hand upon his bowels, and distinctly felt the snake crawling within him. Since then it has grown enormously, and has attained a length of at least fifteen inches, and a size round the middle of five or six inches. Its proportions can be pretty accurately ascertained, as its entire shape is fearfully obvious to the touch. It is quite active, and nossesses an insatiable appetite, judging from the amount of food and water consumed by the sufferer, who is continually parched with thirst, and not unfrequently requires from three to four gallons of fluid daily. Through the recommendation of an Indian, he has lately found considerable relief from the incessant thirst by drinking water liberally diffused with vinegar. He has made several ineffectual attempts to dislodge the varmint" by starvation and the free use of stimulants. To Rail Road Men-Something new and Useful Our neighbor, Dr. Ze Butt, of Lincolnton, has invented, and patented one of greatest labor-saving machines of the day, which he calls a " SELF-LOADING CART," and which is certainly a most valuable invention, particularly to those who are engaged or interested in grading Railroads; or in excavating or removing earth.

These carts are made to be drawn by either one, or two horses or mules; are very simple and strong in their construction; not at all liable to get out of order, and are operated by the driver, who loads and unloads the cart without even so much as getting down from his seat, and in much less time than can be done by a dozen men with shovels in the old manner of loading carts.

To the Rail Road men, this invention is invaluable, and we would particularly call their attention to it, as many Rail Roads are now in progress in the South, and labor high, and laborers

THE PENNSYLVANIA BARGAIN. We believe that there can no longer be any loubt as to the combination between the Black Republicans (Fremonters) and the Know Nothings Fillmoreites) of Pennsylvania, with a view to efeat the Democracy, both at the State election of the 14th of October and at the Presidential election of the 14th of November. The following are said to be the terms of the compact :- In the first instance, it is agreed that the Fremonters and Fillmoreites shall combine to elect the Know Nothing candidates for Canal Commissioner and he other officers to be chosen by the State at large, as also the candidates for Congress in the districts where the Fillmoreites are strongest, The first day, the snake became uneasy; the sec- and rice rersa where the Black Republicans are the man held out. SHEPHERDS.

Some persons being in conversation the other day on religious subjects, one of them remarked that a certain clergyman, who had been the shepherd of a flock, had become so haughty that he did not know some of the members of his own church, because they were poor.
