Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when as to, great nervousness, being slarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfuness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, daters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as sicerotic sore threat diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of right, desfners, nodes on the shin bones and arms, biotches on the head, face and extremitles, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the painte of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston piedges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunn's vietim of this horrid disease. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the unskilfulness of Ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-
