INDIAN MURDER IN MINNESOTA. Rumors were flying around our streets on Saturday, of the murder of an Indian, and of it we have obtained the following reliable particulars: It seems that on Saturday, the 4th, one of the Sioux Indians called at the house of Mr. Brannel, a Frenchman, residing on the Minnesota river, 16 miles west of this city, and complained of having lost a blanket. He had been previously at the house, sympathizing with his loss, Mr. B. and his wife started into the works? fields to assist in finding it. He wandered off some hundred yards, when the treacherous Indian threw off the garb of his friendship, and commenced a deadly assault upon Mrs. Brannel, knocking her down, strangling her, and attempting to violate her person. He held his victim firmly by the throat, but her cries for aid, though smothered and interrupting, attracted her husband to the spot, who rushed to her protection.

At his approach the Indian left his victim, and turned upon Mr. B. with a drawn knife-when the Frenchman seized a loaded rifle, and shot his assailant through the head. The body of the Indian was then drawn away by Mr. and Mrs. B., and burried in a deep hole which they covered with brush. They considered that an immediate surrender and acknowledgment of the deed would expose them to an attack of the Indians. But the concealment served them no better, for the dead body was discovered on Monday, and a body of Sioux sent to dispatch Mr. and Mrs. B .- who fortunately heard of the pursuit and fled to this city. They have since left here, and are now with the United fingers yet plainly visible upon her hit.

The remaining Sioux in that vicinity customer. are desperate, and have sworn vengence. They have killed his cattle, desolated his gardens, and stolen his furniture, and now threaten to burn his house. They are continually prowling around, the place, in bands of 50 to 75, yelling, like a set of infuriated fiends, "blood for blood!" and declaring if they cannot get him, they will take some of "Not as you mix it and man his nearest neighbors; that they will don't," responded the egg merchant. have a white man's scalp to dance on before they are content. SIMEON AND WESLEY.

Dobbin, in reference to an interview between Simeon and John Wesley:

Three or four years after Simeon, whose name has since become sacred in the annals of the Church of Christ, was ordained, this young minister had an opportunity of conversing with the founder of Arminian Methodism; wishing to improve the opportunity to the utmost, he began to question him thus:

"Sir, I understand you are called an Arminian: now I am sometimes called a Calvinist, and therefore, I suppose, we are N. C., by Messrs. Costin & Gafford, samples of to draw daggers. "Yes," said the veteran, "I do, indeed." "And do you utterly despair of recommending yourself to God by anything that you can do, and look for salvation solely through the blood and righteousness of Christ?"

"Yes, solely through Christ." "But, sir, supposing you were first saved by Christ, are you not some how or other to save yourself afterwards, by your good

"Allowing, then, that you were first turned by the grace of God, are you not in some way or other, to keep yourself by your own power?"

"What, then, are you to be upheld evey hour and every moment by God, as much as an infant in its mother's arms?" "Yes; altogether."

"And is all your hope in the grace and mercy of God to preserve you unto his heaverly kingdom?" "Yes; I have no hope but in him."

"Then, sir, with your leave, I will put up my dagger again ; for this is my Calvinism; this is my election, my justification, my final perseverance. It is, in substance, what I hold it; and therefore, if you please, instead of searching out terms and phrases to be a ground of contention between us, we will cordially unite in those things wherein we agree.'

EDUCATION.—It is a source of regret to all nterested in the Educational interests of our State, (and who is not?) that our papers are so much devoted to party polities, &c., that this great cause has been too much neglected; we propose, therefore, to devote to this subject, a portion of our space. We will foster and carefully note the advancement of Education, sot only in our higher Schools, but also in our Common Schools.

AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURE AND COMMERCE, at this stage of our history, are commanding the attention of all our good State and money-hoving citizens. Therefore, the Markets will be reported with care, and all items, calcu-lated to throw light on either of those inseparable oranches of industry, will be carefully gleaned and inserted every week, It is unnecessary to say more if we had time, but the "whistle of the locomolive" on the East and the cheering news from the West admonish us to close. PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL,"

Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C. THE existing condition of political parties, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "Southern Senti-nel" proposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience un-seated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchai-ned from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to how among us in the South. These evils, so far as it humble abilities shall serve,

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL Will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political but met.tgrous liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

The Sentinel will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shallinclude Agricultural and the latest Commercialintelligence. CIRCULAR. A BOOK FOR EVERY SOUTHERN METHODIST

The Annals of Southern Methodism, for 1855 will be a 12 mo. volume of not less than 360 pages well printed, from stereotype plates, upon good It will contain all available statistics in every department of the operations of the METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

The design embraces the Plan of Episcopal visitation; accounts of the sessions of all the Conferencesheld in 1855, the appointments, numbers, &c; a summary of all reported revivals, notices of the dedication of new Churches; reports of College educational movements; a resume of our Mission ary operations, embracing whatever seems of gene rai interest in that department; the movements of the Tract and Sunday School Societies; whatever appertains to our publishing interests, with an-nouncements of all New Books published by our Concern, or written by Southern Methodists; what the Church is doing for the instruction of Slaves Historical and Biographical Essays; interesting personal reminiscences; and a miscellany of important facts and incidents.
THE "ANNALS."

It isbelieved, will be a fair and full daguerreotype of the progress of Southern Methodisi It will occur to you at once, that if I have succeeded in preparing this volume with any reasona-ble amount of skill, it will not only be a very agreeable book for present reading, but that every year will add to its value as showing the posture of Southern Methodism at this particular juncture of its THIS DIGEST

Will be specially valuable as a Book of reference. To whatever question of general interest may arise in regard to the events of 1855, it is hoped that a satisfactory answer will be found in the Annals. While it is believed that the Ministers in our Church will desire copies as soon as they can be obtained, I have paid regard to the what I supposed the tastes of general readers. The older members of the Church will find sketches that carry them back to their earlier compeers, as in this department I have not restricted myself to the history of the year, but have collected whatever has appeared during the year, which, as history and biography, preserves the memoirs of the olden time, and of the early men of Southern Methodism. The work will be published at One Dollar a cop.
Those who subscribe in advance, shall receive the first copies issued from the press. A gold dollar pasted in a letter can be sent securely and is preferable to bills of distant sanks. Those of the banks in North and South Carelins will be as good as gold. In return a copy will be sent well wrapped and pre-My address is Goldsboro', N.C. CHARLES F. DERMS.
