. MISCELLANY.

A GREAT MAN IN DISGUISE. Many years ago it happened that the formed the journey in three weeks. Among of"the passengers packed up in ample cavities, Vernet took particular notice of a fat man, was a red and vulgar face, whose desque personage, he showed him a great it makes"— ideal of politeness, which the fat man returned awkwarnly, but good humoredly. They soon same to a hill; and as the poor | Two hundred and fifty pounds to the acre drag up the Coche-voiturin with its fat and lean care the passengers got out. As they were walking, they passed near a ditch of no great width, and Vernet, who was a good leaper, offered to bet that he would clear it.

.. What! cries the fat man much surpri-To be sure I could; it is not wide.

I should like to see you set about it. Why so? says Vernet, clearing it. You've done it sure enough, said the fat man; I should like to try it too; you have ging him in the mouth, when he got my put -me in spirits, and I think I could get

The circumstance caused considerable excitement yesterday morning, and surmises were rife indicating that politics or denominational sectarianism was the cause. We are assured by the Rector, Prof. Ingraham, that there is no probability of such being the case. He expresses himself as satisfied that nothing denominational or political is connected with the act.

PROSPECTUS OF THE "SOUTHERN SENTINEL,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be published weekly, at Wilson, N. C. THE existing condition of political parties, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "Southern Sentinel' proposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed be fore. The Constitution has been invaded; the law trampled and spat upon; religiousliberty assailed fat man went up to Vernet and said : Sir, lians heard her and fled. The baptismal ballot boxes broken and burnt ; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effeced; the wis hymn book with sever 1 of the leaves torn pushed into high positions; and fanatici m, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to how among us in the South. These evils, so far as it humble abilities shall serve.

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL value. The vestry room, which contained Will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to incul cate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political but RELIGIOUS liberty, and will do battle against ev ery political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culveris, or open convention. The Sentinel will also, to refiere the monoton of politics. devote space to literary topics, origina and selected as well as to miscellaneous subjects which shallinelude Agricultural and the latest Commercialintelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one o the most useful and efficient journals in the South The first number of the Sentinel will be isenabout the first of the next month, and sent to sub scribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year.-Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take in fact a general assortment suited to the town and country trade, which they will sell wholesale and retail, at as low prices as can be afforded by any other house in the business.

They would call especial attention to their Ready-made Clothing, which is all manufactured for themselves, and under their own supervision, and which they can warrant as faithfully gotten up, and calculated to give full satisfaction to purchasers. One of the partners will leave for the North a-bout the 20th inst., to purchase goods. It is very desirable to obtain as much money as possible by that time, and they trust that those indebted to them will make it convenient to settle their ac-

A CERTAIN DISEASE DR. JOHNSTON.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, determined the sense of shame, or dread of discovery, determined him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, driaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, denfness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head. A CERTAIN DISEASE. shin bones and arms, blotches on the head face and extremities, progressing with frightful ra pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in. and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that bourse from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this borrid disease. It is a melancholy fact, that thomsands full victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or clea make the residue of life miserable.
