Many troubled with ringing in the cars and bend when asleep, great nervoueness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashforness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangen cut mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent sotary of pleasure finds he has imblocd the seeds of this painful discase, it too often happens that an ill disc ed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from spplying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delay ing till the constitutional symptoms of this horning disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore threat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of right, deafners, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightial ra-pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commis-scration, till death puts a period to his dreadult suf scration, till death puts a period to his dreadial suf-ferings, by sending him to "that toutse from whence no traveller scrans." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pickges himself to preserve the most inviolable secres 1 and, from his ratensive prac-tice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horid dis-case.
