This morning Deputy Marshal J. Thompson proceeded to the Mansion House in Chambers street, and arrested ex-Consul J. W. Fabens while he was eating his breakfast, and took him immediately before Commissioner Stillwell, who required him to give bail in $3,000 for violation of the neutrality laws. Col, Febens states that he is "Director of the Colonization Society for the Republic of Nicaragua," appointed in 1855 by Don Patricia Rivas, and declined to give hail. CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 29 .- No businees was transacted in either House of Congress yesterday beyond the reading of the jour nals of the preceding day and the presentation in the Se ate of a few memorials and resolutions. Both Hous s, soon after assembling, adjourned in respect to the memory of the Hon. PRESTON S. BROOKS, under circumstances plainly denoting the deep impression which his sudden death has made upon his fellow-members. The solemn event will be formally announced at 12 o'clock to-day in the House of Representatives, and immediately thereafter in the Senate, when it is expected that his many personal friends will speak in appropriate eulogy of his character. The funeral ill then take place from the Capitol in the following order:

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. There is an evil highit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in ductime, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of pro-tracted, insidions, and devastating affections. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until the find the nervons system shattered, feelstrange and mind (See pages, 27, 28, 29, of Dr. K's bo

"Nelf Preservation.")
The unfortunate thus affected becomes fooble, is unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study : his step is tardy and weak; he is dull, irresolute, and engages even in his sports with less energy than usual. If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its warst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considera-
