MR. DAVIS' LECTURE.

Our townsman, Ggo. Davis, esq., delivered 's lecture, by invitation, at Library Hall, in Peters burg, on the "Last days of Royalty in North Caro lina," on Thursday evening last. From what we can learn this Lecture was a very finished production, as might be expected from the fine talents of the author.

THE CABINET.

The New York Herald speculates about the appointment of the Cabinet. The Editor thinks that all the cabinet officers may be readily filled, except the Secretary of State. He seems disressed about the Premier. Give yourself no uneasiness, Mr. Herald; Mr. Buchanan is quite competent to select that officer as well as the oth-

COUNTING THE VOTES.

The counting of the Presidential votes which took place on the 11th last, is reported in the National Intelligencer of the 12th. This is done by the President of the Senate in the presence of the two Houses - the Tellers of the several Houses being in immediate proximity to him. Messrs, Jones of Tennessee and Howard of Michigan, appeared on the part of the House of Representatives, and Mr. Bigler, of Pennsylvania, on the part of the Senate, the latter of whom occupied a place between the two former.

The mode of operation is as follows : The President of the Senate Mr. Mason opened a box before him, and taking from it an envelope containing the certificate forwarded by the Electors of the State of Maine, handed the same to the tellers. with the remark : "Gentlemen tellers, I deliver to you the electoral vote of the State of Maine The certificate was then read aloud on the part of the tellers by Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, and, the result being announced, was taken down and recited aloud by Mr. Asbury Dickins, Secretary of the Senate, and appointed by joint resolution to serve in the capacity of Secretary on the present occasion. This same formality was repeated with reference to each of the States, in the order according to which their electoral votes were presented for scrutiny, the tellers seeming to be regslated by no rule in delegating to each of their number the task of reading the certificates. Nor did there seem to be observed any general formula in drawing up the certificates by the Electors of the different States, and the reading of that from Arkansas occasioned some merriment by reason of the statement contained in it that the electoral votes of that State had been duly cast for James Buchanan, "not a citizen of Arkansas, as President of the United States. This phraseolo gy, we may remark, was probably suggested to the Arkansas Electors by the language of the Constitution, prescribing the duties of electors, to

"The electors shall meet in their respective States and vote by ballot for President and Vice President, one of whom at least shall not be an inabitant of the same State with themselves."

When the certificate from the State of Wiscon sia was read, it appeared that the Electors of that State had thrown their votes for President and lice President on the 4th day of December, 1856. nstead of the 3d of that month, as the law di-

> CONGRESS-YESTERDAY. WASHINGTON, February 13, 1857.

In the SENATE, after the dispatch of the usual morning business, the debate in relation to the electorial return from Wisconsin was resumed upon a resolution offered by Mr Weiler, providing for the appointment of a committee of one on the part of the Senate to join a committee of two on the part of the House of Representatives to wait upon Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Breckinridge. and to convey to them respectively the official announcement of their election to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States .-The resolution was temporarily withdrawn that the Senate might first pass upon a resolution offered by Mr. Crittenden, declaring the electoral vote of Wisconsin null and void in consequence of its failure to be thrown on the day prescribed by law, and further declaring that the said vote should be excluded from the official count of the several States. Upon this resolution a discussion arose, which was participated in by Messrs. Thompson, of Kentucky, Stuart, Hunter, Crittenden, Collamer, Toucey, and Pugh. The same divergence of views was manifested in the debate of yesterday as we have already had occasion to with the spirits of the deceased now had, through remark in our summary of the proceedings the agency of various persons called mediums. PHILADELPHIA, Pa. ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE

DR. SWAYNE'S

REV. JAMES R. DURBOROW.

Pastor of Berlin Circuit, Baltimore Conference. Md., have testified to the following EXTRAORDINARY CURE. POINT OF ROCKS, Frederick County, Md.

DR. SWAYNE .- Dear Sir :- Believing it a duty owe to the public, and in justice to you. I have thought proper to make known one of the most extraordinary cures, in my own case, that has ever been truly recorded. In the month of October last I was afflicted with a severe gathering in my breast, which formed a large abscess, and also communicated to my Lungs and very much afflicted them, and discharged large quantities of corrup-tion, external and internal. My breath could also pass through my Lungs and out through the cavty of my breast with apparent case, attended with a violent cough, day and night, loss of appetite, and extreme debility, so that my physician; thought my case entirely hopcless and beyond the power of medicine. I remained in this wretched condition for a long time, until I was wasted to a mere skeleton, and there seemed to be no hope for me; but having read in the public papers of the many wonderful cures performed by your COM-POUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, I immediately sent to Baltimore for five bottles and commenced its use, and to my great satisfaction and my anxious family, the abscess or opening is my largs began to heal, and the cough subside and on using ten bottles I was restored to perfect Bealth. I believe, that to your valuable medicine, under the blessings of Divine Providence, I an indebted for this great change, and I am happy to say, that I am now enjoying as good health as I ever have.

Over five years have clapsed, and I still remain a perfectly hearty man at this date, June 2d, 1856. I have not had a day's sickness for the last 18 months. Please accept my grateful acknowledg Yours, very respectfully, THOMAS DIXON. The Subscriber is well acquain ed with Thomas Dixon, and can testify that the he has been afflet ed as above represented. I regard his recovery almost as a miracle. He is a worthy member of So JAMES R.
