A ROMANTIC STORY.

The following story, from the Paris correspondent of the New York Times, will serve to show the rapid manner in which the Russian government does an act of justice: "Some eighteen months ago, a Miss Ward, of one of our Southern States, was valid, from the fact that no Russian subject could be legally married except by Greek service. Of course the lady was in great consternation, and at the time of the coronation of the Czar she with her mother went to St. Petersburg. Mr. Sala, two gallons of soft water; scrub it well the principal writer for Dickens' House- with soap and this gall mixture; let it rehold Words, drew up a petition for her main till quite dry-when it will be perto the Russian government, and it was feetly cleaned and look as well as new, as presented by Mr. Seymour, our Minister. The case was laid before the Emperor, and an order was issued to the Russian minister at Naples, where the Count was living, for his arrest. He was seized by the Neapolitan police at the expense of Russia, carried to Warsaw, where the lady and her friends were waiting, marched into the church by a body of policemen, and was there compelled to stand before the altar and be married in due form. His wife, then the Countess, turned to him with a formal boy and his wife retaining a third by law."

DEATH BY STARVATION.

MODESTY.

A simple and modest man lives unknown, until a moment, when he could not have foreseen, reveals his estimable qualities and generous actions. I compare him to the concealed flower springing from an humble stem, which escapes the view, and is discovered only by its perfume. Pride quickly fixes the eye, and he who is always his own eulogist dispenses every other person from the only obligation to praise him.

The difficulty of refuting very silly and weak arguments reminds one of the well-known difficult feat of cutting thro' a cushion with a sword.

Why is a butcher's cart like his boots? Because he carries his calves there.

DR. JOHNSTON. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected son e of the met astonishing cures that were ever known, Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervoueness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfumess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent votary pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ili-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delay-30 0 sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nades on the affin bones and grus, blotches on the head. face and extremities, progressing with frightful ru-pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commitseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suf ferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive prac-tice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid discase. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands full victims to this dreadful complaint, ewing to the un . skilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercary, ruin the constitu-tion, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themelves by private and improper indulgences. These are some of the sad and melancholy of.

Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Hear, Dyspepsy. Nervous irritability Derangement of the Digestive Funcions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Montally -The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings.

Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Sofitude. Timidity, &c... are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of allages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor. becoming weak, pale and emacfated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. By this great and important remedy weakness or the organs are speedily cured and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most Nervous and Debilitated ndividuals who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to MARRIAGE Physical or Mental Disqualifications, Nervous Irritability Tremblings and Weakness, or exhaustlen of the most fearful kind, speedily cured by Dr

Johnston. Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indelged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when askep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible and destroys both ... ind and body, should pply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and including in a certain secret habit.—Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE. Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote communial happiness. Indeed, without fless, the journey through life becomes a wears piletimage: the pros-pect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melan-choly reflection that the happiness of another be-comes blighted with our own.
