Savannah if we may judge from her papers, was agog last week to witness the 1st drawing of Winter's larger scheme, which, the reader is aware, has been removed from Macon to that city. The drawing took place on the 16th, at St. Andrew's Hall, and we find a glowing account of it in the News. The Georgian & Journal furnishes the result in the article copied below. We are no advocates of Lotteries or of buying Lottery tickets-never bought one, and probably never shall. Under the old system of combined numbers, it was a current rumor in Baltimore one wason, that the Lottery stock men realized that year about 500 per cent, on their investment, and we saw a calculation made that, under their current schemes if all the prizes were drawn, The ticket holders would recover an average of 66 2-3 on every dollar inserted. That was a bad financial operation. Under the Havana plan of single numbers, the operation is, no doubt, much more just to the pub ic. Indeed, we have been told that a dividend of about ten per cent, per annum is about all that can be counted upon by stockholders; so that as a busines to investors, it does no: pay more than any business should, particularly one of great detail, labor and responsibility Mr. Winter is a business man, prompt in everything, and his establishment here is one of the country. THE CAPE FEAR ROVER.

CHERAW, S. C. April 1. 1857. We understand that George McDonald, he celebrated Robber of Cape Fear, after an absence of some three or four years, has recently returned to his old haunts and his old profession Since his return his only exploit, so far as heard from, was to demolish the furniture, crockery, &c., of a helpless old woman. For this offence, a watrant was issued against him, and placed in the hands of an officer. The officer summoned a posse of twelve men, and found George, who however, was not to: ken by surprise. He very blandly and courteously invited them to alight and take a glass with him, expressing at the same time, m ch pleasu e at the meeting. The officer, however informed McDonald of the nature of his business, whereupon McDonald expressed his good feeling for the party, and his want of inclination to injure any of them, at the same time warning them he was not to be arrested. He exhibited a pair of revolvers, a bowie knife and a double barrel gun, at the sight of which the officer and his party held a counsel of war at which it was concluded that prudence is the best part of valor -They bid George good morning and left him in the full enjoyment of his liberty.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.

The Baltimore Argus has received the following from a correspondent. It looks like a hoax, or at least an exaggeration -There is, however, a Mr. Philip Pendleton, postmaster, residing at Winson, Md., in Alleghany county .

Winston, Md., March 28th, 1857. Messrs. Editors :- I now hasten to give you an account of quite a tragical affair that happened on the night of the 27th of this month. It seems that the son of Philip Pendleton, of this county, and a young man by the name of Drain, from Chicago. had some misunderstanding, which resulted in Drain's challenging young Pendleion. He accepted the challenge and chose for weapons bowie knifes. They nailed themselves down to a two inch oak plank by the pants and fought until Drain was mortally wounded. Young Pendleton was cut nearly in pieces, and is now lying in a or ends, and to contain no manuscript whatcritical condition. Part of Pendleton's ever. knife is still in Drain's head. There is no Persons mailing letters to foreign counhope of his recovery. The Dr thinks they tries, with which the United States have not will both die. It is a sad lesson for young entered into postal arrangements, are reminmen of their age to meet with so untimely in end. I have not been able to find out the cause of the quarrel. As the mail is about starting I have scarcely time to go into particulars. I will write soon and give particulars of the sad occurrance.-Drain was 22 years old small of stature, while Pendleton was about 19. This is an example for young men with hasty tem-
