MECKLENBURG DECLARATION. The people of Mecklenburg county have resolved to celebrate the approaching Anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, as we learn by a Letter of Invitation to attend on the 20th of May next, from the Committee appointed to manage the affairs of the celebration. We thank the Committee for their kindness, and will attend if we conveniently can-though we fear we cannot. In the mean time we hope and believe the spirited and patriotic citizens of Mecklenburg will observe the day in a manner worthy of the descendants of the illustrious sires, whose gallant deeds they will commemorate.

MR. RANSOM'S ADDRESS. of which the author very feelingly and patrioti- the labor of learning. cally urges upon his countrymen. On page 8, is engraven upon the enduring marble of Art and brightened and hallowed by the ever burning Reason and Justice, may become sacred in the eyes of all men, and, like the Palladium of the ancients, set in the clear skies of intelligence, forand the storms of human passion. The Sun of Liberty and the United Stars around it, will shine upon our eyes with a steadier and purer luster when beheld in the screne vault of virtue and wisdom. The Roman orator, gazing upon the splendors of the City of the Cossars, exclaimed, that there was nothing in which human virtue more nearly approached the dignity of the Gods than in building States, or preserving them when founded," and surely an American citizen as he surveys the boundless prospect of his country's grandeur may well add, that, to preserve this government is a divine duty, and the brightest page in the history of our scholars will be that on which shall be inscribed their devotion, their attachment and their services to the Union." From the 17th page we extract as follows:

"And shall Bunker Hill be divided from Yorktown, and Mecklenburg from Philadelphia?-Shall our sires of the Revolution have left the bloody tracks of their naked feet on the snows have lived for nothing? Is American history, ment to fail, and is man never to be free? Are and greater than the last, as "Angar with young Ishmael wandered from not room to notice to-day. men and the hands of all men against her? Or are we to witness the sadder spectacle of a secbett declares that the only really practical method, is to copy from the French lexicon every noun contained therein, together with the gender, and retailing the adventures of this merry couple, commit them to memory." But when it is remembered that there are 20,500 nouns in French, who will undertake it? Prof. Jonanne, whom we happen to know to be a most estimable gentleman, a man of genius and a proficient in the philosophy of his mother tongue, has made a scientific analysis of the language, and demonstrates by his results that this affair of gender is not the unsystematic thing it has ordinarily been supposed .-He shows that in French, as in the ancient classical languages, the gender may be determined by An esteemed young friend at Chapel Hill has termination, and in four mnemonic rhythmic versent us a copy of the Address delivered before ses, easily committed to memory because the the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies of the verses compose fables, he gives the whole sys-University of North Carolina, June 4, 1856, by tem. CURIOUS ATTEMPT AT COURTSHIP .- There has been quite an excitement recently in the quiet village of Oakdale, Shelby county, Missouri, in consequence of the attempt of two or three young fellows from Georgia, hastening there to win the affections of a young lady, who suddenly was discovered to possess many thousand charms. It appears that she had sent five dollars to Swann & o., of Atlanta, Ga., for a half ticket in one of their Lotteries which draws every Saturday throughout the year. A prize of considerable magnitude was the consequence of her little specplation, and her admirers having discovered that she had drawn so much money, hastened to the little village to pay their addresses, supposing the young lady would not be aware of her good forune. She had as many adorers as the lady in the farce of the "Lottery Ticket," but she did not lose her heart so suddenly as she won a fortune. A telegraphic despatch from Swan & Co. arrived in time to foil the wily aspirants for her hand and heart.

In the month of October last I was afflicted with a severe gathering in my breast, which formed a large abscess, and also communicated to my Lungs and very much afflicted them, and discharged large quantities of corruption, external and internal. My breath could also pass through my Lungs and out through the cavity of my breast with apparent case, attended with violent cough, day and night, loss of appetite, and extreme debility, so that my physicians thought my case entirely hopcless and beyond the of medicine. I remained in this wretched condition for a long time, until I was wasted to a mere skeleton, and there seemed to be no hope fo me; but having read in the public papers of th many wonderful cures performed by your COM-POUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, 1 immediately sent to Baltimore for five bottles and nmenced its use, and to my great satisfaction and my anxious family, the abscess or opening in my lungs began to heal, and the cough subsided and on using ten bottles I was restored to perfect health.
