Election takes place on the 4 h of May

N. Y. Correspondence of the Commercial. New-York, April 21st 1857.

It has been a dull week for our Variety Fair, and the state of the market for the principal articles of traffic may be quoted as follows. Domestic and political virtues on the 6th inst. are scarce but not in demand. Easy conlarge, the previous demand having stimulbut holders are very firm and not anxious States. to part with their stocks. Nicaragua is a better remedy for the beardless than any of full growth in six weeks."

Business has been very quiet. Tens ue to bring very high prices, though ed by speculators to the highest point they can possibly reach. Of course, endeavors which convinces us that the deficiency in supply will not be so great as has been anticipated. Take heart, then, ye innocent lovers of "the cup that cheers, but not inebriates." A vigorous investigation is now going on of a failure in the dry goods trade amounts to patties for whose responsibility guilty. there is little security, offers unusual inducements to the dishonest. Business, too, is done here on too little capital. We know of houses doing a trade of about $35,000 per annum, of which they would clear about $6,000 if all their debtors paid them, who, on a capital of $6,000, hire a store at $3,000, pay about $2,000 to help of all kinds, and manage to live dashingly on the remainder! Such a state of things, it is evident, must bring about disastrous results. The heaviest part of the dry goods business. however, is done by large houses, whose capital and credit, would keep them affoat in the dullest of seasons.

Mrs. Cunningham still keeps before the public as the wife of the d'ceased Dr. Cunningham, claiming the widow's portion. At present, the public mind is evidently re-acting in her favor. The weather has been very chilly and unseasonable with frequent rains. The snow which has fallen deeply north of us, gives a frosty edge to the breezes from that quarter, and winter woolens are not yet thrown aside for the gayer garments of spring. ...

SINGULAR DIVORCE CASE. A person in rather a high position has just obtained from the civil tribunal of the eine (in France) a separation from his wife, with the right of keeping his child, in consequence of the following circumstances: The child had the measles and the medical attendant declared its life to be in danger; but the mother, nevertheevening party, to which she had been invited. "You cannot leave the child, who is dying," exclaimed the husband. The wife house on Fifth avenue before a month. ied that it was impossible for her to remain away from the party without breaking her promise, and being guilty of a want | honesty of his goods?

The husband again remonstrated with her, but in vain; she insisted on going to the party, if only for an hour. The hus-band then informed her that if she carried her intention into execution, the door would be closed against her on her return. The wife left for the party, but on her return tome was refused admittance. The tribunal has derided that the husband was perfectly justified, and has furthermore ruled

MONEY MAKING VS. ADULTERATION. Our London exchanges inform us that a baker in that city publicly advertises a reward of two thousand five hundred dollars for the detection of any adulteration in the bread he bakes and sells; and that since nobody has been able to obtain the reward by discovering the least impurity therein, the baker is of course making a great and rapid fortune.

We rather wonder than no ingenious this simple method of getting rich in a hurry. Certain it is that the baker, grocer or the story and the fate of its hero. THRILLING ROMANCE. Some time since a Cincinnati paper received and printed the first chapter of what shore, where a large crowd stood breath promised to be a thrilling romance, in the expectation of being provided with the concluding portions as they might be needed. The chapter was very ingeniously written, and concluded by leaving its principal character suspended by the pantaloons from a Yankes, this side the water, has hit upon perpendicular precipice.
