EMBEZZLEMENT OF SEVEN THOUSAND DOL-LARS BY A DEY GOODS CLERK-AN ODD AF-FAIR.

The following is a correct statement of the circumstances attending the robbery of Walter H. Tilden, dry goods dealer, Broadway, South Boston, by his c nfidential clerk, a young unmarried man of about twenty-two years. It appears that Mr Tilden, who has been in business there for a number of years, has, within the past three years, gone behindhand in his business in the mos unaccountable manner He has had suspicions in regard to some of his clerks, and, we are told, has dispensed with the service of one or two, though he had no direct proofs of wrong doing upo their part. clerk, bowever, he had no suspicions was steady in his habits and spreared to live within his means.

After some cogitation upon the subject. Mr. Tilden, a short time ago, determined to et a trap for the unknown plunderer, and accordingly a two dollar bill was marked and placed in the money drawer. Much. to the surprise of Mr. Tilden, his marked bill was found in the possession of the unsuspected confidential clerk, who was upon this exposure of his guilt, induced to confess that for the past three years or more he had been in the daily habit of robbing his master's till, the sums thus obtained averaging from seven to ten dollars per day. and amounting altogether to from seven to eight thousand dollars.

But the most singular part of this affair is, that this clerk had not, as usually the course in such cases, squandered the money thus obtained in riotous living, but had actually invested it, or the greater portion of it in asfe and solid security. About three ousand dollars had been placed in a mortgage upon a dwelling house, while a furth. er considerable sum had been given to a young lady to whom he had been engaged to be married, who by his direction had invested it in a Savings Bank for future use.

Of course the lady had no knowledge of the peculiar way in which the money was obtained. All the accumulations of his three years of crime the clerk has prompt ly returned to his master, who, before the discovery, was nearly in a failing condition, but is now rather unexpectedly placed in a situation to meet all his engagements. We do not understand that any arrest has been made in the case.-Boston Traveller.

ing till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance such as ulcenate face and extremities, progressing with frightistra pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose tall in. and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadial suf ferings, by sending him to "that bourse from whence no traveller r turns." To such therefore Dr. Johnston pl. dges himself to preserve the most inviolable secret; and, from his extensive prac ice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortuna's victim of this horrid dis-case. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the un skilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either sond the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mie TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
