THE WEATHER AND CROPS IN SOUTHWEST-ERN VIRGINIA.

The Abingdon (Va.) Democrat, of Monday, says that for a week preceding Tuesday last, snow fell every day in Washington co, Va., sometimes in considerable quantities. It adds:

In some places in this county, the peach tries were killed by the severety of the past winter, and the fruit will be a total failure everywhere. The apples, too, are destroyed; it is feared .-Vegetation is as backward as it was the last of February, and the consequence is there is great suffering among the stock. We hear of several persons losing cattle for want of food.
