Since she was "sealed" she refuses to associate with him and walks the room all night, her agony unrelieved by tears, in a state bordering on insanity.

Alice Young, the daughter of Brigham, who was last winter "sealed" to H. C. Clawson, a pimp of the Prophet's, who had previously three other wives, a short time since packed up her effects preparatory to leaving her husband; ut the storm has blown over, or was stilled by the voice of the Prophet. I am told that Clawson now seeks a younger sister to be "scaled" to him.-The mother-Brigham's first wife-

A young woman, who forsook her friends in England, and came to this country last fall, under the delusion that it she could only reach "Zion," her happiness would be completely insured in this world and the next, was taken on her arrival into Brigham's family as his mistress, when the monstrous state of affairs was soon revealed to her,-

She anxiously inquired whether it had always been thus and if there was no hope for a change. She was told that, instead of any hope of improvement, affairs daily were growing worse-when the poor woman in her agony exclaimed, "Oh! I am lost! lost!!

An Elder in this Church, a short time ago, disregarding the remonstrances of a wife, was "sealed" to a young woman, one of the arrivals last season. The newly "sealed" woman, on being brought into the family and witnessing

There are some less grave stories told about this people. Elder W. W. Phelps, one of the very old Mormon rascals, who plays the part of the Devil in one of their ceremonies representing the Garden of Eden, perstaded one of the "hand-cart women" that she could not be saved unless she was "seal."

What else could be expected from a devotce of Mormonism, should be the passive instrument for the gratification of man's sensual appetites, and who laugh to scorn the idea of her moral and intellectual worth.

The carrier of the Southern mail brings news today of an attack on a party which left here a short time since for California, consisting of four men son of Brigham, returned last fall from a mission to England. He embraced the first object of his adoration, and was led to believe, by the wily prophet, that in the fullness of time he would be permitted to embrace the second. After serving out his culistment he returned here last spring, brimfull of love and Mormonism, and figured extensively as employee and confident of Brigham, and Professor of the Art of War, drilling recruits to serve in the expected collison between the United States and Mormondom, To return to Tobin; the current of true love with him, as with all heroes, ran with a ripple, and various reasons are assigned why the fair Alice took sanctuary in he will obtain the mother's consent to the arms of one Hiram Clawson, where some three or four doves had nestled before her. The gallant Tobin sought consolation in the arms of a Miss Rich: but even the charms of love and consolations of religion failed to satisfy his ambitious longings. He found it best to make a journey to California. In other words, as we say here, "the country became unhealthy for him." Unfortunately, however, he had been a "leetle" too deeply initiated into the mysteries of Mormonism to be permitted to leave the country, after his close untimacy with the Governor of Utah.

The Mormous here, in speaking ef his transaction, wink their eyes to each other, and say, "The Indians are very bad on the lower road." There is no doubt but the attack was planned in this city, and that orders were sent from here to execute it. It was said publicly by the Mormons, immediately after the party left the city, that they would occurrence had such an effect upon the not live to get through to California. wife that she became sick and gave and reports came in several days in adpremature birth to her child. TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JUHNSTON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it amprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers could not fail to fall into the hands of the many impude: 1 cunlearned imposters, with immunerable Palse Nas. 1 combined Quackabops, seasoning those large cities, copying Dr. Jonnston's adventisements or advertising themselves as p hysicians littlerate shallow-brithsed fellows, too lary to work at their original trade, with scarce too ideas beyond the brute, who, for the purpose of Entieting and Pecciving, carry on sive or six offices, under as many diffarent Palse Names, so that the afflicted $\text{Strain}_{1} = \text{conting}_{1}$ in the conting one, is sure to tumble headlong into the other. Ignoran Quacks with enormous lying earlificates of great and astonishing cures from personnet to be found, who kee you taking large bottles of Luounce Wayes and othe packages of fifthy and worthless compounds, commingly prepared to impose upon the unfortunate and unsuspecting. Trifling mouth after manth, or as tong as the small, sat fee can be obtained, and, in despair, leaves you with retined health, to sigh over your galling disappointment.

It is this motive that indexes Dr. J. to advertise, was real and an adventise, was real and an analysis that or disaborate with the reputation, he deceas it necessary to say that his credit title to disaborate and manual with his reputation, he deceas it necessary to say that his credit title or disaborate and manual with his reputation, he deceas it necessary to say that his credit title to disaborate and manual with his reputation, he deceas it necessary to say that his credit title to disaborate and manual with his TAKE NOTICE.
