N. Y. Correspondence of the Commercial. NEW YORK, June 16, 1857.

All this week we have been under the shadow of that terrible comet's tail, and one growing out of the other. On a deluge has been poured upon us from Tuesday last a young man named Theabove, as if the very heavens had grown odore M. Ganz, disappointed in love, indignant at the filthy condition of our fever breeding streets, and taken upon themselves the duties of the commissioner. We have had at least two days of winter weath was instantly crushed to a jelly. A day er. This has at least been good for the or two afterwards Miss Maria Rohe, the grass, however it may affect the root crops, young lady who jilted Ganz, fell ill of of it lying between soaked blankets for a ful death, and such was her mental suf-
