MURFRESSBORO', N. C., 28th July. A son of Belial, by the name of Barden, residing in the Northern part of the (Hertford) county, has been doing misemed the last week. It seems that Barden had a servant girl, belonging an Abner Riddick in ly that she ran away from him and fled for dollars, which struck me as not exceshis agent, Mr. Fowler, that should the girl gar, sat thinking of Mary Ann's many again come home to keep her safe, and in virtues, and especially her knack for cno event allow Barden to have access to her. conomy. ter's house. B. pursued her thither, and in the absence of Mr. Riddick's agent, (Mr. Fowler) tied the girl, and was taking her off, when Fowler came upon them and insisted on her in mediate release, which Barden declared should not be done. F. then crilered a negro man to loose her. Barden threatened to shoot him I he did. Despite of the threat, the negro man released the charged with buckshot, and taking deliberate aim at Fowler, shot him down-the

MY WIFE'S ECONOMY.

The deaf creature lately came home from a shopping excursion in the most extravagant spirits.

"I have made such a bargain to-day! said she, "I have bought such a beautiful dress for nine dollars only! So I All idvertisements inserted in the tri-weekly said to myself, even if I got Madame are entitled to one lesertion in the Flourish to make it up, it will be economical,"

Now Madame Flourish was a French modiste who lately came from Paris, and had really great taste, but was most extravagant in her charges; and I never heard her name without a shudder. A few months before she made up a brocade for Mrs. Jones, which every body said fitted beautifully. "It looks as if you were bor in it," enthusiastically declared a friend," and it had grown with A SERVANT MALTREAGED.

So when I heard the proposal to take this other dress to Madame, I argued that, if she charged in the his employment, whom he treated so cruel- same proportion, her bill would be three haster. On learning the sive, and accordingly I made no objecpircumstances, Mr. R. gave instructions to tion to the suggestion, but lighting a ci-

In about a fortnight the dress came rain fled from Barden and sought her mas- home. It was a pretty, blue affair, with palms set in stripes, and Mrs. Jones really looked like a summer cloud in it, as she floated about the room, displaying it in every aspect, expatiating upon its merits. The sleeves, which were short, were neatly trimmed with a sort of narrow face, and the cape, for it was cut low on the shoulders-and dear Mary girl, and they were returning homewards Ann always wears capes over such dreswith the rescued woman, when Barden ses-was embellished with a wider lace raised a double barrelled gun heavily of similar pattern. I thought to myself in was the cheapest dress for twelve-dollars, making and all, that I had ever seen; and as I smoked my cigar, said menially, "Ah Jones, what a happy dog you are to have a wife with such a knack for economy ?"

Two days after the bill came in .-My wife opened it first, and I saw her draw a very long face as she run her eve over it. However, she rallied immediman he was doing as well as could be ex- ately, and handed the missive to me.-

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHNSTON permits his eard to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers could not fall to fall into the hands of the many impude: 14 unlearned Imposters, with innunerable Falsa Nag. combined Quackshops, swarming these large cities, copying Dr. Johnston's advertisements or advertising themselves as p bysicians illiterate shallow-brained fellows, too lazy to work at their original trade, with scarce too ideas beyond Johnstros's advertisements or advertising themselves as p bysicians, illiterate shallow-brained fellows, too lazy to work at their original trade, with scarce too ideas beyond the brute, who, for the purpose of Enticing and Decsiving, carry on five or six offices, under as many different False Names, so that the afflicted Strotters escaping one, is sure to tumble headlong into the other. Ignor in Quacks with enormous lying certificates of great and astonishing cures from persons not to be found, who kees you taking large bottles of Liconics Water and othe packages of fifthy and worthless compounds, cunningly prepared to impose upon the unfortunate and unsuspecting. Trifling menth after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and, in despair, leaves you with, ruined health, to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, ron as along a can count for the unfortunate of inspectation, he deems it necessary to say that his creden tials or diplomas slways hang in his office.

NO LETTERS RECRIVED UNLESS POST-PAID and contain a Stamp to be used for the reply. Persons writing should state ige and send that portion of advertisement describing symptoms.
