I asked my Husband's advice on what was to be done. He answered with a smile "You are a woman, and can manage these things better than I. Talk with ingols on the subject. You know my detestation of this genteel tippling, but I have no authority over him."

A fair opportunity offerd, in my Husband's necessary absence at a circuit court for a week, to speak on the subject without implicating him:

As Ingols was visiting the sideboard as usual, and (what seems to'me an alarming symptom) covering the lower 1 art of the tumbler with his hand, I asked him, with a little hesitation, if he drank brandy for his nealth.

"I cannot say that I do," said he, smiling. "Will you take a little for yours, cousin?" "No, I thank you,' said I; "I am afraid of it'

"Afraid of it, cousin? It will not hurt you. You would be all the better for a little tonic."

"A little tonic might not hurt me, cousin William, but I fear being tempted .-- distrust my own strengh of character."

"Pehaw; you are not serions; I have been drinking a little several years."

"Why do you drink it?" I asked .-.Your mind is naturally active, your con versation agreeable, you have no mental or bodily suffering, and have a thousand rational modes of enjoyment; If you will only look into your own feelings, you will find a cormorant settling over them, whose guilty cry is 'give, give;'

"You are a sweet monitor, cousin Clara : I belive I must take a little brandy, if it is only to hear you scold so prettily,"

"Oh, Ingols," I answered, "do not; not; peremptorily repudiated by the Corresin mercy to yourself, treat this subject so pondencia, which is well known to relightly. RATES OF POSTAGE

To the East Indics, Java. Borneo, Labnan Sumatra the Moluccus, and the Philippine Islands.

We are authorized to state that, arrange ments having been made by Great Britain for collecting in India the British and othe foreign postage on letters between the United Kingdom and the East Indies, whether transmitted via Southampton or via Marseilles, in the British mail, hercafter the United States postage only should be prepaid in this country on letters for the East Indies to be transmitted by either of the above routes, viz : fire cents the single rate when the Atlantic conveyance is by British preket, and twenty-one cents when by United States packet.

Owing to a reduction of twelve cents in the British postage beyond England, which took place on the 1st of February instant, the single rates of letter postage be ween the United States and Java, Borneo, Labnam, Sumatra, the Moloccas, and the Philippine Islands, will hereafter be as follows :

To Java, via Southampton. 33 instead of 45 cents the halt ounce; and via Marseilles 53 instead of 75 cents the half lounce; prepayment required.

To Borneo, Labnan, Sumatra, the Moluccas, and the Philippine Islands the rate wil be 41 instead of 53 cents when sent via South ampton, and 61 instead of 73 cents the quarter ounce, or 71 instead of 83 cents the bal! ounce, when sent by closed mail via Marseil es; prepayment also required.

The lates above mentioned as chargeable on letters for the Island of Java will provide for their conveyance by British packet as far as Singapore, but they will alterwards be subject to a Netherland rate of postage on account of the conveyance from Singapore o Java.

By the Prussian Closed Mail the rates these countries remain uncl anged.
