MISCELLANY.

From the Journal of an Old Fellow DETACHED PASSAGES.

I do abominate laughing. There is nothing that jars upon my feelings so much as one of your genuine horselaughs. It is like the rasping of a saw, or a sleigh running over bare ground .-Yet people have got a most villianous habit of laughing when I speak; why, I know not, unless it is that I never laugh myself. I find I am getting the characscandalors barbarian, who had broken Dyc. We can do nothing with it. We upon me, I should be most sadly temp-ted to shoot myself. I fear I have said some amazingly silly things. I will be may be light when his heart is heavy. Mr. Graves ?

'True, true, but then you've got such a comical way with you.'

Here then is the fault-it must be mended-I shall look to it. If there is any thing which from my soul I do loathe, it is that sickly, silly, silken sentimenalism, which has become among certain classes the ruling fashion of the day-bah-garlick is nothing to it. The very thought occasions an involuntary rising of the stomach. And yet it meets me at every turn. Love tales, love songs and love talks swarm around like the locust plague of Egypt. 'How touching I' sighed the fair Miss Angelica, as she sang one of these sentimental strains all about disconsolate

'Yes, indeed,' said Miss Pastorealla, putting her handkerchief to yer eyes. I can't help crying when I hear it, said the sobbing Miss Euphemia.

How to Make Water Cold WITHOUT ICE.-Let the jar, pitcher or vessel used for water, be surrounded with one or more folds of coarse cotton, to be constantly wet. The evaporation of water will carry off the heat from the inside and reduced it to a freezing point. In India and other tropical climes, where ice cannot be procured, this is common. Let every mechanic and laborer have at his place of employment two pitchers thus provided, and with lids and covers, one to contain fresh water for drinking, the other for evaporation, and he can ing, the other for evaporation, and he can always have a supply of cold water in warm weather.

NOTICE.

THE Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company have made arrangements for forwarding all goods consigned to the care of the Company, and destined for any point on the line of the North Carolina Road, free of ammissions.

If landed on the Company's wharf, there will be no charge for wharfage of drayage; but these expenses will be incurred if landed on any other wharf, and will be added to the freight on the way-bill, to be collected on delivery, by the North Carolina Railroad Company.

DR. JOHNSTON. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfuiness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and improdest votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of his painful disease, it too often happens that anill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful raill at last the palate of the mouth or the A NOTHER case received this morning. Call awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to a the month or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to a the commission of the month or the bones of the nose fall in. ferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful complaint, owing to the unskilfniness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects, produced by early habits of youth, viz:—
Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous
