THREE CHEERS AND A TIGER. The Boston Saturday Evening Gazetie

gives the following history of the origin of the expressive growl, which, under the name of "tiger," has acquired a general popularity in this country :

In 1822, the Boston Light Infantry, under Capt. Mackintosh and Lieut. Robert C. Winthrop, vi-ited Salem and encamped in Wasilington square, and during their stay a few of the members indulged in sports incidental to camp duty, when some visiter exclaimed to one who was a little rough, "Oh you Tiger !" It became a catch word, and as a term of playful reproach, "You're a Tiger," was ad pted as one of the pecu

Boston some musical genius sang an impromptu line, "Oh you Tigers don't you know," to the air of "Rob Roy McGregor Dause. oh !" Of course the appellation soon induced the Tigers by name to imitate the actions of the liger, and the "growl" was introluced, and at the conclusion of three "a tiger" was invariably called for. In 18-

26 the Infantry visited New York, being the first volunteer corps to make a trip from the Tigers at a public festive lawoke the echoes and astonished the Gethamites by giving howl. It pleased the fancy of the hosts, and gradually it became adopted on all f-stive and jo ois occasions, and now "three cheers and a tiger" are the inseparof the corps, and where the true tone is 1y. heard, one may be sure that the Boston Light Infantry, Capt. C. O. Rogers, is not more than a mile distant.

SERVANTS AND LABORERS. The Boston Courier thus discourses upon the employment question :

At this time domestic servants and the laboring classes generally need employment more than ever. Those who are dependent on their daily wages for their daiy bread should then te sustained and encouraged rather than discarded. By pursuing the latter policy we add to the number of those exposed to immediate suffering

ANNIE LAURIF. by IUYL.

If you want to hear Annie Laurie sting come to my house to night, said a man to his friend. We have a love portentous length, which demanded immeforn fellow in the village who was sad- duate settlement-or in default thereof, the ly wrecked by the refusal of a girl whom he had been paying attention to for a year or more. It is seldom he will In this emergency, M. C----r bethought attempt the song, but when he does, I tell you, it draws tears from those unused to weeping.

A small and select company had assembled in a pleasant parlor and was gaily chatting and langhing, when a tall young man entered whose peouli-ar face and air instantly arrested their clear vivid complexion which dark haired consumptives so often have. His wit's and money's en :, M. C -- r betook locks were as black as jet, and hung profusely upon a square white collar. His eyes were very large and spiritual and his brow such an one as a poet should have. But for a certain wandering look, a casual observer would have pronounced him a man of uncommon intellectual powers. The Germa i musician and tenor singer His talents have already elicited the admiration looks," went the rounds as he came for. of several salons where he has sung. He they whispered that he was love crack-ed, but the rest treated him with respectful deference.

It was late in the evening, when singing was pro; osed and to ask him to sing "Annie Laurine" was a task of un-common delicacy. One song after another was sing and at last that one was named. At its mention the young man grew deadly pale but did not speak, he seemed instantly to be in a reverie.

TIT FOR TAT.

A German tenor singer of some note, resident in Paris, was injured by a fal. from the top of a diligence. His breast was burt, and he found, on his recovery, that he had not only lost flesh, but his voice had forsaken him. With care, time, and ameliorating medicine, the tones returned ; but now there appeared an apothecary's bill of him of Meyerbeer, the great composeralso a German. Being reduced to the last extremity, he called upon his countryman and stated his distress and its cause. With wonted liberality, Meyerbeer introduced the tenor singer to several of his friends, and procured him occasions for displaying his condition; and that we solicit all our fel talents-whereby he was shortly in posses-sion of a sum of money sufficient to settle in a spirit of brotherhood, humanity, and attention. He was very pale' with that the obnoxious bill. But there was little patriotism, to aid and sustain all who may left; and finding himself once more at his himself again to Meyerbeet.

He was cordially received. The great composer, after listening to his tale of dis-tress, opened his escritoire, took thence paper, pen and ink, and wrote as follows : "To Monsier le Baron Rothschild : Sir-Permit me to recommend to your powerful protection and good graces M. The cheapest ordina-ry pistol is three or four times the price of this be-sides being dangerous in the hands of boys. This pistal is loaded with the common Fire Cracker, which forms a complete cartridge, and will carry a hall ten or filteen paces with the same precision as the ordinary pistol, but not with sufficient force to co any serious damage. As America is a shooting nation, the Young Americans must and will learn the art by which our independence was secured.—

Hence this Target Pistol is exactly in time, and nust meet with universal sale among our youth of the South and West. Its operation is perfectly sim-ple, and it is not liable to get out of order. A full description will accompany every case of pistols — The pistols are put up at the factory in cases of 50 each. ready to send by express to any part of the United States or Canada.
