COMMERCIAL OFFICE FOR SALE We again offer the establishment of the Comwercial Office for sale. A credit of one, two and three years will be given on the sale, the purchasers giving bonds with approved security. KANSAS AFFAIRS-THE ADMINISTRATION

AND MR. DOUGLAS. We noticed on Thursday the ground taken by Senator Docotas in regard to the Lecompton Constitution of Kansas, and intimated an impres alon on our mind that he was in the right. This is somewhat of a complicated matter, but we believe we have got into "the merits" of the case. It appears that the people who voted for the members of the Convention, did so with the understanding that that body was to frame a Constitution which was to be submitted to the people, and this, also, was the impression of those who did not vote for it. It was not believed by any of the parties that the Convention had power to make a government, but only to form a Constitution to be submitted to the will of the people, The President of the United States declared the same in his instructions to Gov. WALKER, and the latter accepted the office under the conviction that the Constitution was to be submitted to the and the territorial Government thus construe the Nebraska Bill, but the Delegates to the territorial Convention were so instructed and a large number, if not a majority of them, signed a pledge to

The course to be pursued, under these premises, is as plain as any thing can be. But it is not followed. The question now is put Constitution with slavery or Constitution without slavery. This compels the voters to vote for the Constitution, or not vote at all.

We admit that this would be an eligible way to meet the material issue before the Nebraska people, as well as the whole country; but it looks to us like a breach of the contract, like not sticking to the bargain. Certainly as a matter of policy there cannot be the least objection to the course proposed; but policy ought not to come in conflict with principle and pledges; whether the act be performed is of a public or private nature; it has no more business to be brought up and vindicated, than injustice, falsification and fraud should be justified. This carelessness among publie men in this regard, imbues the whole body politic with immorality. We are surprised that public men have not yet been instructed by the teachings of history, that "honesty is the best policy" both in public and private transactions-the best in the end.

For a time, from what we saw in the ultra political party papers, we supposed that there was which it now possesses is the notes of local banks. about to be a rupture between this distinguished Senator. Douglas and our great and good President, Buchanan. We at no time saw any occasion for it, anxious as some politicians seemed to be that such should be the case.

From this embarrassment we are greatly returial of the Journal of Commerce, we take the following from that paper of Wednesday last:

It hardly required Mr. Douglas's indignant and emphatic repudiation of the charge that he had gone over to the Republicans, or that he had been read out of the Democratic party, to assure those who were asquainted with his character and history, that the charge was untrue. He has not differed with Mr. Buchanan and the Administantion on any principle. Mr. Buchanan has expressed his belief that the right of the people of any State or Territory to decide on their own local government and laws, is the only corprinciple, and he thinks that is should be the ole of those Territories, and he believed the people of those Territories, and no believed edge it, and see that it was practically carried out by submitting whatever Constitution they might frame to a vote of the entire people. So far, Mr. Buchapan and Senator Douglas are agreed. But since it is found that, contrary to the eneral belief and expectation, the Lecompton Convention were not bound to submit for popuar ratification any other portion of the Constitution than that relating to slavery, and that they not done so, Mr. Buchanan, whose duty as Federl Executive enjoyns him to sustain the law isted, can only regret that the Lecompton Convention were legally free to act as they have done, while as a legal body, legally elected for a legal purpose, he is bound to sustain them so far as he has power to interfere or advise in the matter. It is here only that Senator Douglas res-pectfully differs from the President. It is on the Miss ions. pplication of the principle—not on the princi-ic itself of popular sovereignty. He believes not the Kansas-Nebraska Act does impose on a Constitutional Convention the obligation to take the sense of the people on whatever Constitution they may frame, before Congress can listen to an application for the new State to come into the Julon under that Constitution. He says that in refusing, or rather omitting to do this, the Le-

" We learn from the St. Louis Democrat, of Dec. 22, that the Legislature in session at Lecompton has passed an act submitting the Calhoun (Lecompton) constitution to a vote of the people on the 5th of January, in three forms, as follows: "With slavery," "without slavery," and "against

If this be true, and we presume it is, every point of objection is met, and all parties who are onest in their views, will be satisfied.

WILMINGTON AND WELDON B. ROAD. The following just tribute to the merits of the above named Road is from a Wilson, N. C. Editor, Mr. E. II. Lake, written in April last, we cheerfully copy it as worthy of attention. We have passed over this road a few times, and we pronounce it the best running Road between the borth and south. Every thing connected with it moves like clock work. The trains run with such precision, that the people along the road regulate their watches by them.—

The connections are all met. To a secommodations are of a superior or er; the conductors ap-pear more like traveling companions, and study to render the passengers comfortable. The Su-perintendent is a gentleman, affable, and attentive to the feterest of the company. In Wil-mington, the ferminus of the road, there is the most splendid esting establishment we ever witmost spiceful eating establishing on two ever wit-cessed. Finally, this road is in an excellent con-dition, and inder the well directed suvervision of its managers. It must be regarded as the first Bailroad in the United States.

Mr. Lake more recently, on the 4th of the present menth, gives the following truthful description of the Boad and of the watchfulness and as aidnity of the Superintendent:

We have before called the attention of our saders to this excellent and well-conducted road tenders to this excellent and well-conducted road it is one among the best roads between Montagomery and New York. Its entire length is 162 miles. For so long a road, it has the fewest attrees of any with which we are acquainted.—After you leave Wilmington, for miles, it runs on a straight line. Connected with this road, there are 25 station, and a telegraph. At its beginning and terminus, there are two anperbeating establishments. The cars of this road are roomested.

The superintendent, S.L. Fremont, has an eye to the inferents of the company, and the prompt and faithful manner in which he accommodates the public, commands and justly entitles him to the respect of all.

On the evening of the 16th inst. a battle was fought at Fort Scott, between the free State, and pro-slavery men in which four of the latter were kille . Many were wonn led on both sides, including twenty three free state men. The Legislature of Kansas has repealed the laws authorizing the Lecompton Convention A bill has also passed, over Gov. Stanton's veto, organizing the militia of the territory, over which Gen. Lang, has been spointed major general. The York on Friday last. The failures in Europe Legislature has adjourned.

N. Y. Correspondence of the Commercial. NEW YORK, Dec. 22, 1857. Winter holds off in mercy to traders waiting r the movement of produce, to traders whosee thick jackets are in ponn, and to exiled Demo. c a s shut out from the shelter of old Tammany by the 'inside party," still the croakers prophes; a hard winter when it does come or at any rate a hard spring. But we cry shame on all such despondents now that merry thristmas has come people, and that the President and all his Cabinet | round without a shadow of paule in his joily face concurred with him. Not only did the General for an atom of contraction in his fat figure. The holiday 'rade, however, is light compared with the usual amount of it, when everything presentable is engaged for a week in advance by everybody who has friends or acquaintances. Amusements however are looking up somewhat and music and daucing will be quite as abundant as ever. The Opera has been quite profitable, partly owing to the popularity of the new basso, Carl Four nes, who has a voice like Capt, Rynders of the U. S. sloop of-war Saratoga: gun in quantity though the quality is the most remarkable feature of it. A bass voice at once pewerful and expressive, vast and manageable, is surely met with and consequently forms an anqual attraction. Carl Fournes sustaines a part in the grand series of Oraterio with which we are to be favored, commencing on Saturday night with the creation.

Busin s. is slack as it usually is at this season of the year, but there is a constantly improving feeling throughout the mercantile community,-The far west people write that they are perfectly wi'ling to sell their wheat and pay up, and would do so If they could, but that they cannot turn wheat into money now even at very low prices from the want of circulation. This $26,000,000 of gold in the New York Banks has been drained out of all sections of the country, but especially from the West, from which quarter immense amounts have been brought on to New York by express during the past two months. This gold the west could ill spare and the only circulation which may facilitate local transactions but cannot be used in payment of debts or to move produce. The resumption of sp cie payments by our Banks will cause a movement of gold in greater quantities toward England, this will be followed by a rise in cotton and breadstuffs, and then the westlieved by facts which have come to our knowl- ern farmer will have some inducement to forward sore throat, asthma, or any affection of the skin edge-and as they are best emboddled in an edi- his produce to the scaboard. So the condition of glands or muscles, a persevering use of the Oint-

After the holidays are fairly over business will begin to take some shape for Spring, and we shall see how the "suspended" houses are coming out Many of the extensions will soon move out and we may have a bit of a papic again in a small way. But we are too wise now to be frightened the Kansas-Nebraska Act conferred this right on before we are burt. Credits will be very generall shortened in all branches of business and this movement is likely to clear out numbers of small bouses doing a large business on an infinetessim-
