

OMNIBUS OATHERUM.

GOLDEN RULES FOR GARDENERS. Never work with bad tools. The difference between the work done in a month would have a set of new ones.

MORE CAMELS.—It is said that a private enterprise is on foot for introducing camels into Texas, Arizona, and New Mexico, in consequence of the success of the Government's experiment with these animals.

A CIVILIZED BEAR.—The Salem Register says: The usual course last Monday in our streets, was enlivened by the appearance of a man, with a tame bear walking on his hind legs and dressed in female apparel, not even neglecting the hoops.

ANOTHER DISASTROUS FIRE AT DEBQUE.—The Lawrence block, the largest and most extensive structure in Dubuque, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night, loss $110,000, insured for $70,000.

OPPOSITION TO SMALL NOTES.—The Senate of Pennsylvania has passed a joint resolution authorizing the Governor to open a correspondence with the Governors of other States for the calling of a convention for the adoption of a measure to prohibit the issuing of notes under five, ten or twenty dollars.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Col. R. B. Jones, a well known and highly respected citizen of Philadelphia, fell from the third story window of his restaurant and confectionary on Saturday, and was picked up in an insensible condition. No hopes of his recovery are entertained.

SETTLING A DISPUTE.—A California paper tells a story of two miners having jumped a claim which had previously been staked off by two women. It was a warm dispute, the man asserting his right on the ground that but for his labor the richness of the claim would not have been developed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The furniture store of Henry Redford, in Fulton street, Brooklyn, was burnt last night, causing a loss of $70,000, on which there was an insurance of $28,000.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE NATIONAL HOTEL DISEASE.—Col. Charles A. Jones, contractor for the building of the custom houses at Chicago and Milwaukee, and for the Washington aqueduct, died at Rochester, N. Y., on Monday last. His health, it is stated, had been impaired ever since his visit to Washington at the time of President Buchanan's inauguration.

REASONING.—To see a party of ladies throw aside, for a time, the airs and false foppery of the parlor, and indulge in a little wholesome, old-fashioned amusement. Such a party (says the Utica Evening Telegraph), we had the gratification of seeing the other night, on the ice. Didn't they enjoy themselves, though? If any of our "prim" ones do not believe there is sport in this "vulgar" recreation, let them bring out their skates and sleds and beaus come even, and we'll warrant a change of opinion.

RESIGNED.—Hon. R. M. Lee has resigned the office of Recorder of the City of Philadelphia, a post that he has held for many years, and the duties of which he has discharged with fidelity, without pay or emolument. He has sent his resignation to Gov. Packer.

FIVE YEARS IN RICHMOND.—Joseph Miller has been tied in Wheeling for passing counterfeit money, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

CARRIERS IN WASHINGTON.—Friday night about one o'clock, as Mr. Jos. B. Chandler, clerk of the Senate Committee on Territories, was proceeding to the United States Hotel, from the hop at Brown's, he was throttled by three men, and a valuable gold watch taken from his pocket. The perpetrators escaped.

LARGE ARIZONIAN WELL IN CALIFORNIA.—M. Bontemps, of San Jose, has the largest artesian well in the State, with a small pipe it will throw a jet of water 50 feet in height. The present stratum is eight inches wide, rising eight feet above the ground, with a force to turn a mill of several run of stones.

SUICIDE OF A BOY.—James E. Durvin, a fine boy aged 9 years, and universally beloved, committed suicide a few days since, by throwing himself into the river near his father's residence in Caroline county, Va. He was the son of James F. and Elizabeth E. Durvin, and the only cause assigned for the rash act, is that his mother had threatened to chastise him. The parents are overwhelmed with grief.

A MAN-DESSMAKER REVEALED. One of the most fashionable dressmakers in New York is reported to be a man. For several years past he has been fitting dresses to the charming forms of the New York ladies, and fitting the ladies to the charming forms of their dresses. He is said to have been extremely popular with the ladies, and many regret that the discovery of his sex extended beyond themselves.

INAUGURATION OF THE WASHINGTON STATUE.—The Washington (D. C.) Light Infantry, Captain J. T. Davis, at a late meeting, decided to join the Washington Yeagers in their excursion to Richmond, on the 21st of February, to assist in the inauguration of the statue of Washington.

THE LUMBER TRADE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says:

The present open winter is not very promising to the lumber trade, and we fear our noble Susquehanna will not present this spring its accustomed busy life. The Raftsmen's Journal says: But little timber has as yet been hauled to the river bank, in consequence of the scarcity of snow, and unless we should have considerable winter between now and spring, our eastern friends will not be bothered much with a superabundance of lumber this season from clear-field country.

FIRE.—Have de Grace, Md., was visited by a destructive fire Friday morning, which destroyed the store and dwelling of Mr. Samuel Patterson, Mr. Mosman's tavern, and the dwellings of Mrs. Wilson and a Mr. Cook, adjoining the above. Loss about $12,000.

TERRIBLE CASUALTY.—A little lad named Konger a pupil in one of the St. Louis public schools, put a package containing about half a pound of gunpowder and some matches in his pantaloons pocket. By some means, while playing with some boys, the matches became ignited, set fire to the powder, and the result was an explosion, which tore the flesh from the boy's legs and abdomen in a frightful manner. His clothes took fire, and he was fearfully burnt. It is not expected to survive his injuries.

A correspondent writing from Birmingham, N. Y., gives the following as an incident: That section, and another episode of California adventure. A gentleman, by the name of Driggs, left his family—consisting of a wife and five children (girls)—in this country, about 14 years since. He (Driggs) went to California, Australia, Sandwich Islands, and many other places. He arrived last week in this place, and after little search, found his daughters three of whom were married. Angelina, said he to one of them, where is your mother? 'O! O! O! dear me! she was married, two weeks ago, to a Mr. Ayres, a farmer, with 14 children, who lives in the country.' To which the father replied, 'Never mind, my dear child. I hope she will have all the comfort this world can give. I will never trouble her.' He made the girls various presents, and sent many to their mother. He stated, he had often written home, but never received an answer to his letters. He is a noble looking man, 50 years of age, and has a 'pocket full of rocks.' His wife is 49, and her present husband 35. He took an affectionate farewell leave of his daughters, and is to return in two months. This is no fiction.

WHARF'S WAY TO CANAAN. Of the several epic, lessous which Mrs. Stowe has managed to teach the white folks through a dark medium in her "Dred," the following hit at the sectarian prejudices too often existing between Christian denominations, is too good to be lost: "Old Tiff" for their mist, anise and cummin wrangles, while inquirers are a king the plan of salvation. Old Tiff has the care of the children of his dead mistress, and having told them that their mother had gone to the land of Canaan, one inquires as follows: 'Uncle Tiff, where is the land of Canaan?' 'De Lord, a nery, child, dat's what I'd like to know my self. I's a studdin' upon dat. I's gwine to camp-meetin' to find out. I's been to plenty of dem ar, and never could quite see dar. 'Pears like dey talk about every thing else morn' dey does about dat. Dere's de Methodists, they cut up de Presbyterians and de Presbyterians pick out de Methodists; and den both on 'em down on de Episcopal. My old mist' was Pis copal, and I never seed no bar in it. And de Baptists think dey ain't none on 'em right; and while dey's a blowin' out at each other dat ar way, 'Is wonderin' whar's de way to Canaan?'

LIBERALITY OF TEXAS METHODISTS. It is stated in the Southerner of Waco City, Texas, that at a recent meeting of the Methodist conference in that place a collection for missionary purposes was taken up, which amounted to 1,500 in cash, and 6,000 acres of land. And that the sum of $25,000 were subscribed by the preachers of the conference for the purpose of purchasing a steam press for the Texas Christian Advocate, and building a publishing house in the city of Galveston.

INFLUENCE OF A MOTHER'S PIETY.

There was once an obscure and pious woman living in the south of England—History is silent respecting her ancestry, her place of birth, and her education. She had an only son, whom she made it her great business to train in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. In the seventh year of his age, his mother died, and a few years later, he went to sea, and engaged at length as a sailor in the African slave trade. He was soon an adept in vice, and though amongst the youngest of the crew, he was the most proficient in guilt. But his mother's instructions sent in his echoes to him, and though at first he sought to defend himself from them, they grew louder and louder, until, listening to the voice of a successful preacher, the author of books which the church will never let die, and the writer of hymns the use of which is co-extensive with our tongue.

This wayward son, whom his mother, though dead, addressed and reclaimed, was the means of the conversion of Claudius Buchanan, so distinguished for his labors in the East Indies, and the "Star of the East," a book published by Mr. Buchanan first called the attention of Mr. Judson to the missionary work, and sent him an apostle to B. rnah.

The saint, turned preacher, was also the means of delivering the Rev. Th. S. Scott from the mazes of ruinous error, and of introducing him to the way, the truth, and the life. Mr. Scott prepared the Commentary known by his name, and which still continues its mission of converting and sanctifying power.

The influence of this same minister and author, in connection with that of Doddridge, was principally instrumental in making Wilberforce the Christian he was. To Wilberforce's "Practical View of Christianity," the conversion of Leigh Richmond was ascribed, and Leigh Richmond wrote the "Dairyman's Daughter," and other tracts, which have contributed to the salvation of thousands of souls.

That obscure and pious woman was the mother of Rev. John Newton, one of the ablest and most devoted ministers that ever graced the Christian Church.

AN ALABAMA POLITICAL JOKE.

They tell a good many political jokes of our neighbors now occupying the ancient lands of the Alabama, among them the following: An out and out party man, a landlord, who had accommodated political friends for twenty years, happened to go into a nominating convention just as they had finished their business, and heard a little delegate say that "it is convention adieu, adieu, adieu." "Five dollars," said the landlord, "Ten dollars to be paid when the hearing is restored to its original acuteness. Address, Mrs. M. D. Horace Winslow, M. D., C. Duplan, Allestree B. Francis, M. D., T. Van Buren, M. D., Bedford Doremus, M. D., New York, August 7, 1847."

Students wishing to perfect themselves in this branch of medical science, will find an opportunity in the office of the new medicine, Eye Infirmary of Dr. Deleye Le Brun, Union Place Clinique, every Monday and Friday afternoon, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock, and on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock. Terms—Five dollars, including tuition, free. Ten dollars to be paid when the hearing is restored to its original acuteness. Address, Mrs. M. D. Horace Winslow, M. D., C. Duplan, Allestree B. Francis, M. D., T. Van Buren, M. D., Bedford Doremus, M. D., New York, August 7, 1847."

One of our boys—one who was one nearly thirty years ago—writes to us from the interior of the Keystone State and says: "Wiggins is an Irish lawyer at our bar, an honest fellow, as all lawyers are (!!); and Prince is the prince of jokers, and another of our set. They met, as usual, at the Supreme Court. Wiggins had argued a case very much to his own satisfaction, in the course of his speech addressing the Court as gentlemen, instead of using the customary form, 'Your Honors.' After our journey, Prince took Wiggins aside, and said, 'You made a great mistake in your remarks, in addressing the Court as gentlemen; the Chief Justice was very much offended, and you had better apologize for it in the morning, or your case will suffer.' Wiggins determined to make the matter all right. At the opening, next morning, he rose and said: "May it please the Court, I rise to beg your honors' pardon for a blunder of mine, committed yesterday. In the heat of debate I so far forgot myself as to call your honors gentlemen. Hoping that you will excuse my inadvertence, I will endeavor not to make the mistake again."

"The gravity of the bench was overcast, and Court, bar, and audience applauded the freshman"—Harper.

A truly housewife said to a slattern—"How do you amuse yourself?" "Amuse, said the other, staring, 'don't you know I have my house work to do?'" "Yes, I see you have it to do; but as it is never done, I thought you had some other way of passing your time."

THE partnerships heretofore existing this day place under the firms of STERN & BROTHER and STERN & NEWHOFF are dissolved, and the business of the said firms, all having interests therein, are hereby transferred to the said STERN & NEWHOFF, who will continue to do business at the old stand, as successors of STERN & Bro., and all the debts of the business affairs of the said firms, all having interests therein, will please present them to M. Newhoff for settlement previous to 15th of November next; all those indebted to him will please come forward and pay up, or else their claims have to pass into the hands of collection.

L. STERN, J. STERN, M. NEWHOFF. Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 3, 1837. 23 if.

SUNDRIES.

30 FINKINS PRIME BUTTER. 10 half barrels Pickled Shad, of prime quality for family use. 1 half barrel Pickled Salmon for family use. 40 extra large Labrador Herring, for family use. 30 extra large Potatoes for family use. 30 bushels prime White Planting Potatoes. 200 extra large Onions. 200 extra large Onions. 500 White Pine Apples. Just received per Brig Triumph from New Brunswick, for sale by Jan 15th. ADAMS, BROTHERS & CO.

EAR AND EYE.

DR. LE BRUN offers to those suffering from deafness, his infallible aurial remedies, which have been successful in the most obstinate cases of confirmed deafness. These remedies have been pronounced by Drs. Kramer, of Berlin, and Deleau, of Paris, and Charles Pickler of London, as the only remedies ever applied for disease of the internal and middle ear. They operate either at once for the various diseases of the ear, or gradually, as the inflammation of the disease is confined to the external ear, their effects are apparent on the fifth or sixth day. Dr. Le Brun warrants a cure in every case, when the ear is in perfect organization, and has lighted certificates from those who have been deaf from infancy, whose hearing is now completely restored, and who are now enabled to apply for the cure of deafness. Over twenty-seven hundred cases of deafness have been successfully treated by him. Certificates to that effect may be seen on application.

In all cases of deafness arising from inflammation of the ear, or even perforation of the "membrana tympani," the use of the aurial remedies, with accumulation of mucus, nervous debility, indigestion, and other ailments, has been cured by the use of his aurial remedies. In nearly every instance, he is successful. Where the want of secretion is apparent, the "aurial cure" is given, and the patient is cured. Where the want of secretion is apparent, the "aurial cure" is given, and the patient is cured. Where the want of secretion is apparent, the "aurial cure" is given, and the patient is cured.

Dr. Dutton the only practitioner in the United States who practices the new medicine, and successful method in treating all the diseases to which the eye is subject. Where every other means have failed to afford relief, he asks for such a fair and impartial trial. Patients, by sending a few particulars of their case, can have remedies sent to any part.

Dr. Dutton the only practitioner in the United States who practices the new medicine, and successful method in treating all the diseases to which the eye is subject. Where every other means have failed to afford relief, he asks for such a fair and impartial trial. Patients, by sending a few particulars of their case, can have remedies sent to any part.

Dr. Dutton the only practitioner in the United States who practices the new medicine, and successful method in treating all the diseases to which the eye is subject. Where every other means have failed to afford relief, he asks for such a fair and impartial trial. Patients, by sending a few particulars of their case, can have remedies sent to any part.

THE OLD WELDON HOTEL.

IS NOW OPEN ON THE SOUTH EAST SIDE OF THE CITY. The new building is a grand and spacious one, and is open in the name of the newly opened. EXCHANGE HOTEL. And it is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the use of the new building, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, but gentlemen and ladies will please recollect that this house has been built on the site of the old Weldon Hotel, and has been occupied by three different proprietors during that time, and has a new Proprietor at present, and that the house is called the Exchange Hotel, and is bounded by the city, and is getting their meals—the Proprietor pledging himself to satisfy all who may favor him with a call, or no call. Passengers will find meals ready on the arrival of every train, with good Porter to attend to them and check their baggage to any point which they may desire to visit. The House is within twenty steps of the Ticket Office, where passengers can obtain their Tickets, and where they can be in good time after getting their dinner or supper, as there is considerable baggage to change. Passengers will please bear in mind that there is no charge for the