In 1856, he was awarded the 1st premium for saddle Stallion at the Maryland Ag-ricultural Exhibition.

(Extract from the Balt'more Sun's report o the Agricultural Exhibition Friday October 28 1857.)' "There were several other horses in the 2 500 for exports. Rates advanced $ on the rering, and among them the celebrated Morgan Horse Vermont, belonging to Mr. T. T. Nelson .-This is deciedly the finest draft stallion in the exhibition, and is equally fast as a racker or trotter His limbs denote extraordinary strength, and his movements are rapid and graceful. He took the first prize last year, and was conceded by those who saw him yesterday, to have no superior as a road or saddle borse. One of his colts on the ground took the first premium as the lest of the whole collection, including all the colebrated road blood in the country.")

One of his two years old was also awarded a premium at last fall s agricultural exhibition, as was also one of his three years old the previous season, who has been sold since to go South for $1000. Address. a. T. T. NELSON, Union Meeting House P. O.
