We appeal to every reader of THE ROANOKE BEACON, to aid us in making it an acceptable and profitable medium of news to our citizens. Let Plymouth people and the public know what is going on in Plymouth. Report to us all items of news—the arrival and departure of friends, social events, deaths, serious illness, accidents, new buildings, new enterprises and improvements of whatever character, changes in business—indeed anything and everything that would be of interest to our people.

FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1892.

TUESDAY, March the 22nd, has been set apart as the day on which the Silver bill will be fully discussed by Congress.

Prominent politicians declare that Mr. Cleveland can carry Ohio and Michigan. So he may, but the winning man must be able to climb over the Hill with more than two States at his back.

The Committee in whose hands the matter was placed by the industrial conference held at St. Louis, have decided that the nominating convention of the Third Party shall be held in Omaha, Neb., July 4th.

It is now thought that Judge W. P. Bynum, of Charlotte, will be the Republican candidate for Governor this year. Jeter Pritchard was at one time prominently mentioned, but after figuring on him for a time, it was decided that he could not carry the colored vote of the State, so his name has been tabled. Judge Bynum will make as good a subject for defeat in November as any other Republican, so far as we know.

The actions of the recent St. Louis convention is causing some dissatisfaction among Alliance men in the South. Capt. B. M. Collins one of the leading Alliance men in Warren county this State, has avowed his determination to withdraw from and to have nothing to do with the organization. He, like many other Alliance men, think that an effort will be made to turn the Alliance of North Carolina over to the Third Party, in which event the government of the State would be turned over to Republicanism.

WHAT can the proposed Third party do to relieve the depressed people? Like all other political parties that have been born within the past one hundred years, it must grow slow before it can be a success as a ruling power. The party has never been born that could capture a majority of the people in one two or even ten years. It takes time to bring about political unity, without which any party is sure of defeat.

Through the new party relief cannot come, if it comes at all, within a quarter of a century, but if those working for relief in the new party would turn the same attention to the Democratic party that they are giving the Third party movement, and aid honest Democrats in putting down Republican rule, they would find that relief which they are after. With their co-operation the Democratic party could run the Government as Jefferson intended it to be by the people and for the people, but if by the formation of the Third party a division is made, as it will be, then Democracy will be shut out and the new party cannot get in, therefore the only result to be expected is a Republican victory.

A big Alliance meeting was held at Covington, Ga., on the 27th at which Congressman L. F. Livingston and many other prominent Alliance men, who had just returned from the St. Louis convention, spoke, and they all declared it folly for the farmers, who compose a large part of the Democratic party, to leave it for the new party. At this meeting President Livingston, who has been considered a Third Party Democrat, openly declared that he was a Democratic Alliance man. He said the old adage of "Let well enough alone," applied to organizations as well as to individuals, and he therefore advised the farmers to work out their reform measures in the ranks of the Democratic party. At the close of the meeting a resolution was adopted to the effect that there was no longer any doubt as to Livingston's Democracy, although it had been doubted in the past and declaring it to be the duty of all true Alliance men to stand with him in the Democratic party.

Important to Ladies. Sir—I made use of your PILLOTTON with my last child, in order to procure a safe and easy travel. I used it about two months before my expected time, until I was taken sick, and I had a very quick and easy confinement, nothing occurred to prevent my convalescence, and I got about in less time than was usual for me. I think it a medicine that should be used by every expectant mother, for should they but try it as I have, they would never again be without it at such times. I am yours respectfully, Mrs. ELIZABETH DIX.

Any merchant or druggist can procure RISLEY'S PILLOTTON for $1 a bottle. CHARLES F. RISLEY, Wholesale Drug

A MONSTROUS PROPOSITION.

Charlotte Chronicle. The public cannot have failed to note that the following is one of the planks in the platform of the new party which was set up in St. Louis last week: "We demand that the government issue legal tender notes and pay Union soldiers the difference between the price of depreciated money in which he was paid and gold." When it is remembered that at one period during the war the difference between greenbacks and gold was $2.80 to $1.00, the enormity of the proposed back salary grab will be more fully apparent. What do Southern Alliance men who were in the Confederate army think of it? What do Southern Alliance men, whether they were in the Confederate army or not, think of it?

TELL YOUR WIFE.

Selected. If you are in any trouble or quandary, tell your wife—that is, if you have one—all about it at once. Ten to one, her invention will solve your difficulty sooner than all your logic. The wit of women has been proved, but her instincts are quicker and keener than her reason. Counsel with your wife, or your mother, or your sister, and be assured that light will flash upon your darkness. Women are too commonly adjudged as veridical in all but purely womanish affairs. No philosophical student of the sex thus judges them. Their intuitions, or insight, are the most subtle, and if they cannot see a cat in the meal, there is no cat there. In counseling one to tell his trouble to his wife, we would go further, and advise him to keep none of his affairs secret from her. Many a home has been happily saved, and many a fortune retrieved by man's full confidence in his better half. Woman is far more a seer and prophet than man, if she be given a fair chance. As a general rule wives confide the minutest of their plans and thoughts to their husbands, having no involvements to screen from him. Why not reciprocate, if but for the pleasure of meeting confidence with confidence? We are certain that no man succeeds so well in the world as he who, taking a partner for life, makes her the partner of all his purposes and hopes. What is wrong in his impulses or judgment, she will check and set right with her almost universally infallible "helpmeet" was no insignificant title as applied to man's companion. She is a meet help to him in every darkness, difficulty and sorrow of life; and what she most craves and deserves is confidence—without which love is never free from a shadow.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Is it not worth the small price of 75c. to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints, if you think so call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer, every bottle has a printed guarantee on it, use accordingly and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by Bryan & Chears, Plymouth, and Dr. B. F. Halley, Roper.

A TRIBUTE.

Miss Sallie A. Welch, daughter of Dennis and Rebecca Welch, died at her home, in Gliden, Chowan county, February 16, 1892 from the fatal effects of that epidemical scourge, LaGrippe. Miss Welch was a faithful and consistent member of Welches Chapel, near her home. In deportment she was a model; in her studies an average scholar. She was a gentle and affable school mate, always the same and ready at any time to do all she could for the cause of right and the good of her fellow man. Her death has made a home desolate, bereft a father of a kind and affectionate daughter and created a vacancy in her class which can never be filled. No, never. Her memory lives in the hearts of her school-mates and friends who mourn their loss, yet we do earnestly hope and believe that our loss is her eternal gain.

Wishes, death has removed from time our beloved sister and co-worker in the broad field of education.

Therefore be it Resolved 1st. That we bow in humble submission to Him who even regardeth the fall of the sparrow. "Whose mercy endureth forever," and who giveth and taketh life at his own discretion.

2nd. That the school has lost one of its brightest students, Eastern Carolina one of its most faithful teachers and her father a most dutiful daughter.

3rd. That our deepest sympathy be extended to the bereaved father, sisters, brothers and all other relatives.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and to the Baptist Pilot and the ROANOKE BEACON for publication.

Done by order of Plymouth State Normal School this 25th day of February 1892. W. A. McDonald, Chm. W. A. Taylor, Sec. I. L. Bell, J. J. Jones, Miss S. A. Enre } Committee

[The above resolutions of respect upon the death of a pupil whose efforts have been to elevate her race socially, morally and religiously, are published by request of the officers of the Colored State Normal School of this town.—Ed]

Answer This Question. Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 70c. we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Bryan & Chears, Plymouth, and Dr. B. F. Halley, Roper.

JAPANESE COURTESY.

Sir Edwin Arnold, in lecturing in Chica, go on Japan said:

I was led to Japan by grammar. No guide-book took me there. I had read all the guide-books, and most of them are not very good. None of them lured me to Japan, but I picked up a grammar once, which was very splendidly done by Mr. Chamberlain, and there I read. "The Japanese language has no imperative mood. The Japanese language has no form of verbs and no word of abuse." I rubbed my eyes, but there it was, the positive affirmation that one could not swear in Japanese, you could not abuse anybody in Japanese, and you could not tell a person to go, rudely or roughly, in Japanese; and I found it really to be so. The worst thing you can say in Japanese is "fellow!" Or if you are very much put out you say "There! There!" It sounds like an exaggeration but you cannot find a bad word in a Japanese dictionary. There are those who might find that a great privation. Now, it stands to reason that language should be the same upon the people and it does. Although not Christians, they carry out, as we never do, the maxim, "In honor prefer one another." They invariably speak of another person in the most respectful way and of themselves in the most disparaging way. In Japan you must not say "Where are you going this afternoon?" You must say, "Where do you angustly condescend to repair?" You must never say, "Come in." You must say "Condescend an honorable entrance." You must honor your friend and dishonor yourself, and this habit is carried almost to a ludicrous extent, and it reacts upon the habits and manners of the people, so that in Japan you find a piece of tranquillity, of restoration and soft pleasure and peace which I declare to you, I have not exaggerated.
