Important to Ladies.
Sir—I made use of your PHLEOTON with my last child, in order to procure a safe and easy travail. I used it about two months before my expected time, until I was taken sick, and I had a very quick and easy confinement, nothing occurred to protract my convalescence, and I got about in less time than was usual for me. I think it a medicine that should be used by every expectant mother, for should they but try it as I have, they would never again be about it at such times. I am yours respectfully, Mrs. ELIZABETH DIX.
Any merchant or druggist can procure RISLEY'S PHLEOTON for $1 a bottle.

SONG OF THE HONEY BEE.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!
This is the song of the bee.
His legs are of yellow,
A jolly good fellow,
And yet a good worker is he.

In days that are sunny
He's getting his honey;
In days that are cloudy
He's hoarding his wax;
On planks and on pillars,
And gay daffodillies,
And columbine blossoms,
He lavies a tax.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!
The sweet smelling clover
He humming hangs over;
The scent of the roses
Makes fragrant his wings;
He never gets lazy;
From thistle and daisy,
And weeds of the meadow
Some treasure he brings.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!
From morning's first gray light
Till fading of daylight
He's singing and toiling
The summer day through;
Oh! we may get weary,
And think work is dreary,
But 'tis harder by far
To have nothing to do.

—EX.

Third partyites of various stripes
Had skinner sure to vex 'em;
But what a fall when they did crawl
Under the flag of Exum!

The Skinnerial tongue, with silver string,
Was sweet, but did perplex 'em;
So in real estate they sought their fate
With oleaginous Exum.

With calamity howl and shaking jaw
He'll poud'rously get next 'em,
Ere November's ices, Democratic tides,
Will swamp their doughy Exum.

WEAVER AT PULASKI TENNESSEE.
THE STORY OF HIS ROBBERY AND OPPRESSION OF THE PEOPLE—THE NAMES AND AMOUNTS GIVEN—EVIDENCE WHICH CAN NOT BE DENIED.

Correspondence Charlotte Chronicle.
Having seen in some paper an account of Gen. Weaver's conduct while in charge at Pulaski, Tenn., I wrote to the clerk of the county court for either a verification or denial of the charges. I received the letter which I send you.

Very respectfully,
W. E. ABERNETHY,
Qathford College, N. C., Aug. 19.

PULASKI, Tenn., Aug. 15, '92.
Mr. Will E. Abernethy, Ruthford College, N. C.

DEAR SIR—Your letter of inquiry in regard to the acts of Gen. Weaver while in command of this place was handed to me to answer. I was between 15 and 16 years old when Weaver was here, and I know whereof I write, and in support of what I shall write, I refer to a few citizens of this county: J. P. May, President People's National Bank; Z. W. Ewing, ex-Speaker of the Senate; Flourney Rivers, State Senator; J. B. Stacy, ex-Clerk and Master of Chancery Court; Thos. E. McCoy, Sheriff of Giles county; Col. Solon E. Rose, Dr. William Battle, Dr. J. C. Roberts, S. W. Butler, Judge of County Court R. H. Ragsdale, County Trustee, and L. E. Abernethy, President Commercial Bank and Trust Company. Most of these men were here and know the facts. The others know from reputation.

The said Weaver seemed to have a perfect hatred for the Southern people. He pillaged, robbed, persecuted, vilified and abused our people in every imaginable way. He had citizens arrested and imprisoned on trumped-up charges, and made to pay to be released. He made the friends of D. O. Cox pay $500 for his release. Mr. Cox is dead, but his son, Ed. R. Cox, is living here, and can testify to said facts. So can Maj. J. B. Stacy and Col. S. E. Rose, friends of Cox, who paid part of the money. He robbed Mr. Jasper Cox (no relation of Mr. D. K. Cox) of $2,000 worth of spun thread. Jasper Cox is a reliable citizen of this county and now lives near Bodenham, Giles county, Tennessee.

He robbed John P. Williams, an old reliable farmer and soldier of the Mexican war, of all his hogs and meat. Mr. Williams' postoffice is this place. He had Dr. J. C. Roberts, of this place, arrested, and tried to make him pay $500 for his release, but after he found out that the doctor would not pay it, he turned him loose. The doctor is now living and will answer any letter. On January 26, 1864, he made the following parties pay him the sums opposite their names. I have the original receipt he gave my father, Chas. C. Abernathy. All the parties are dead except Dr. Wm. Battle, who will cheerfully bear me out.

Thos. Martin, $250; Dr. William Battle, $100; Chas. C. Abernathy, $250; Robert Dickson, $350; J. H. Newbill, $1000; J. M. Morris, $100; David Reynolds, $250; B. Abernathy, $200; Thos. B. Daly, $200. Total, $1,700.

He claimed in his order that it was for the support of Union refugees coming within his lines. Thos. E. Daly, son of Thos. B. Daly, and W. S. Newbill, son of J. H. Newbill, are living here and will answer any inquiry. I could give other incidents, or acts of said Weaver, if necessary.

Yours truly,
J. P. ABERNATHY.

STAND FIRM.

Louisville (Ky) Home and Farm.
We are here to tell the truth as we see it, and the sun is not clearer in the Heavens than that Weaver has not a ghost of a chance to be President of the United States. But why should a southern farmer desire to vote for Weaver instead of Cleveland. He said in Kokonak, Sept. 13, 1871:

"The record of the Republican party appeals to the candid judgment of all men as unpardonable, save, perhaps, that it was too lenient with the leading Democratic conspirators. The same old gang, save those who were shot or hung, are again conspiring to get possession of the government next year. We to them! for loyal hosts will crush them forever and forever out of all possible danger of such a misfortune to our common country."

He said in Oskaloosa, September 25th, 1872:

"No Republican canvasser, under any circumstances, have any part or lot with the hungry, rebellious, man hating, woman-slandering gang, perpetrated under the name of Democracy, a name so full of stench and poison that it should be blotted from the vocabulary of civilized man and handed over to the barbarism that it so fitly now and in all the past has represented."

Home and Farm has expressed the opinion that either Harrison or Cleveland would be the next President and that the people must choose one or the other. This brought the following response from a subscriber, whose name we suppress out of consideration for his family:

"To say that the people must choose between Harrison and Cleveland, and then alone, is a lie to its full face value—it's the word of the deceiver. You certainly are mistaken in the temper and education of the people, if you think they are going to swallow such stuff."

Home and Farm is striving to gain relief for the farmers, North and South, from the oppression of trusts, political and commercial. To secure relief farmers must have—Freedom from all fear of negro domination.

Wider markets and better prices.
Public economy and lower taxes.
A reformed currency that expands with the growing needs of the time.

A vote for Weaver will not elect Weaver but it may elect Harrison.

Harrison has in two messages demanded of Congress the passage of the Force Bill.

A vote for Weaver which may elect Harrison perpetuates the McKinley tariff, and the McKinley tariff reduces the exchange value of the cotton crop $50,000,000 annually.

A vote for Weaver which may elect Harrison is a vote which means increased extravagance and higher tariff.

These may be unpalatable truths to some of our friends, but there is nothing in them to excite ire. No intelligent man denounces his opponents as liars, and in this matter time will show who is mistaken.

We say that a vote for Weaver is a vote for Harrison for this reason, Harrison is to be elected must carry New York and Indiana.

Cleveland we believe will carry both of these States, and if, in addition, the States which voted for Cleveland in 1888 vote for him again he will be elected.

On the contrary if Harrison carries the States which he carried in 1888, and loses New York and Indiana, he may still be elected, if Democrats in the South divide their votes and give Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee or Texas to the Republicans.

The only thing that can possibly defeat Harrison is a united Democracy. But by dividing our strength we may enable Harrison to capture some Southern States, and thus elect him. This is our fear and no well informed man can say it is groundless. We believe in the sincerity and patriotism of the members of the Alliance. They are seeking what we are seeking too—relief from unwise legislation and oppressive conditions. They think this relief will come by the election of Weaver. We believe the attempt to elect Weaver may insure the election of Harrison, and so we tell the truth as we see it. Time will determine who is right. Waiting for that decision, let us not resort to denunciation. The man who resorts to it creates a suspicion of his own honesty or intelligence.

EXUM UNDER INDICTMENT.

HARD ON THE THIRD PARTY CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

AN INDICTMENT IN WAYNE AGAINST THE DOCTOR FOR CARRYING A CONCEALED WEAPON—WILL HE BE ABLE TO MAKE THE CANVASS?

Special to the News and Observer.
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 19.—From the present outlook, "Governor" Exum, of Weaverite fame, has every chance of "doing" his political canvass within the walls and iron bars of our county jail, as the criminal docket of Wayne Superior Court (September term), has an indictment against Dr. W. P. Exum for carrying a concealed weapon and threatening the life of Mr. Arnold Borden of this city, a few weeks ago. How would such a quick-tempered man like Exum, who takes the law into his own hands, be fit to occupy the gubernatorial chair of the good Old North State? This is a question our citizens are asking themselves just now. And the answer comes back that he'll never get there. As "a brag" and "a blower" Dr. Exum has no equal.

POLITICAL POINTS.

One of the best Alliancemen in Wilson county and a man of position, prominence and influence said to us Monday: "The Weaverites claim everything. They are lying outrageously. There are not 200 of them in this county."—Wilson Advance.

The Republican candidate for Vice-President contributes to the humor of the campaign by warning his Western supporters against "overconfidence." The Republican party, he says, "never fights so well as when it is scared." If this diagnosis be correct the party will not suffer from lack of incentive.—N. Y. World.

The North Carolina Third party seems perfectly willing to throw everything into the hands of the Republicans, who have done all the mischief of which North Carolina complains. They will get tired of that sort of business before they are done with it.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

If you (Alliancemen) are the cause of the Republican party capturing the State you have given a heavy blow to the cause of the Reform and put the management of your State in unworthy and incapable hands. LET NOT THOSE WHO WANT OFFICE MORE THAN THEY DO REFORM PRECIPITATE YOU INTO TAKING SUCH UNWISE ACTION.—Marion Butler July 14, '92.

When some of the Third party lights in North Carolina finally decide to join the Republican party, as some of them will before they are much older, they will not have so much packing to do or so far to go. They are more than half way on the road now. The faster they travel the sooner they will reach their destination and be at home.—Wilming-6th Star.

The Iowa Democrats have put their party in excellent condition to retain power in that State. The State ticket is a very popular one and the platform is soundly Democratic. It indorses Cleveland and Stevenson, favors tariff reform and denounces the fanatical policy of the Republicans upon State issues. Gov. Boies will make a gallant fight and ought to win.

If, as reported, Secretary Elkins has promised to deliver Alabama, Tennessee and West Virginia to Mr. Harrison, the astute speculator has been cheated once in his life. Secretary Foster pledged only the vote of Ohio in the National Convention in return for his portfolio. But it matters little. Promises are cheap when fulfilled as Foster's was and Elkin's will be.—N. Y. World.

We fail to understand how any self-respecting southerner can vote for Weaver, who has so black a record showing his hatred and abuse for and his lying about the southern people. A southern man who can stomach Weaver, it seems to us, could stomach anything. A man who can vote for Weaver, the villain of the south, ought to be able to eat dead crow and not get sick.—Kinston Free Press.

The scenes in the Third-party State Convention of North Carolina Tuesday, ought to remove the last scintilla of doubt as to the relation of the Republicans to that party. The enforced withdrawal of Mr. Skinner after he had been nominated for Governor, and because he would not agree to be a tool to divide the white vote so as to throw his State under negro domination, should prove a lesson to every honest Third-partyite in the South.—Richmond Dispatch.

Are Southern farmers ready to contribute 1,500,000 bales of cotton annually to pay pensioners? Are they willing to send the amount of money, represented by such a quantity of cotton, out of the South, every year, knowing that a mere fractional part only returns. If they are not, then let them see that such a large interest is no longer imperiled by the possibility of republican success. If this drainage is to be stopped the election of Cleveland and a democratic Congress is the only hope.—Raleigh Chronicle.

ENDING AT THE END.

A man goes up stairs at night in the dark. He has a pitcher of icewater in his hand. After he reaches the top step he lifts up his foot as if there were another step there. Upon finding that there are no steps, he puts his right foot down rather disappointedly on a level with his left foot and splashes some of the ice water upon his sleeve, his vest, for his slipper.

There is a moral to this. It is always well to stop when you reach the end of a thing. When a man is preaching, it is best for him to stop when he has reached the end of his sermon. If he stops just a little before the end, all the better, sometimes. This will be apt to make his hearers wish there was more. There are cases in which the gift of discontinuance is quite as valuable as the gift of continuance.—Ex.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The following is the State Democratic platform as adopted by the State convention assembled May 18:

RESOLVED, 1. That the democracy of North Carolina reaffirm the principles of the democratic party, both State and national, and particularly favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the currency, and the repeal of the internal revenue system. And we denounce the McKinley tariff bill as unjust to the consumers of the country, and leading to the formation of trusts, combines and monopolies which have oppressed the people; and especially do we denounce the unnecessary and burdensome increase in the tax on cotton ties and on tin, so largely used by the poorer portion of the people. We likewise denounce the iniquitous force bill, which is not yet abandoned by the republican party, but is being urged as a measure to be adopted as soon as they regain control of the House of Representatives, the purpose and effect of which measure will be to establish a second period of reconstruction in the Southern States, to subvert the liberties of our people and inflame a new race antagonism and sectional animosities.

2. That we demand financial reform, and the enactment of laws that will remove the burden of the people relative to the existing agricultural depression, and do full and ample justice to the farmers and laborers of our country.

3. That we demand the abolition of national banks, and the substitution of legal tender treasury notes in lieu of national bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis as the business interests of the country expand, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

4. That we demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of all agricultural and mechanical productions; providing such stringent system of procedure in trials as shall secure prompt conviction and imposing such penalties as shall secure most perfect compliance with the law.

5. That we demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

6. That we demand the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownership of land, and that Congress take early steps to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates; and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations, in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

7. Believing in the doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," we demand that taxation, national or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenue, national, State or county, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government economically and honestly administered.

8. That Congress issue a sufficient amount of fractional paper currency to facilitate the exchange through the medium of the United States mail.

RESOLVED, That the General Assembly pass such laws as will make the public school system more effective than the blessing of education may be extended to all the people of the State alike.

1. That we demand a graduated tax on incomes.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM ON THE FORCE BILL.

"We solemnly declare that the need of a return to the fundamental principles of free popular government, based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now, when the tendency to centralize all power at the Federal capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the States that strikes at the very roots of our Government and the Constitution as framed by the fathers of the republic."

"We warn the people of our common country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of the Federal control of elections to which the Republican party has committed itself is fraught with gravest dangers, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revelation practically establishing monarchy on the ruins of the republic. It strikes at the North as well as the South and injures the colored citizen even more than the white. It means a horde of deputy marshals at every polling-place armed with Federal power; returning boards appointed and controlled by Federal authority; the outrage of the electoral rights of the people in the several States; the subjugation of the colored people to the control of the party in power, and the reviving of race antagonism, now happily abated, of the almost peril to the safety and happiness of all—a measure deliberately and justly described by a leading Republican Senator as 'the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the Senate.'"

What Ails You?

If you have sudden darting pains in the joints or muscles, and it recurs every time you get cold, and appears in new places without leaving any of the old ones, the best thing to do is to send five dollars to the Drummmond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane New York, for a bottle of Dr. Drummmond's Lightning Remedy for Rheumatism. It will cure you. Be wise in time and do not be fooled with anything else. If you have get the above symptoms you have got the Rheumatism, and if the druggist tells you the truth he will say Dr. Drummmond's Remedy is the only known cure. Agents wanted.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND.

While the price of an article is largely fixed by supply and demand, yet sometimes other elements come in to affect the adjustment. Indeed, what the supply and demand are and are to be is a matter which each individual interest is in that particular commodity exercises his own judgment about. And thus after all it is the average judgment of the trade as to what the supply and demand will be that fixes the price.

In regard to the present low price of cotton there is however a further suggestion. The price of that article is fixed in England. The English manufacturers find their products now excluded from the American markets, and therefore they are not inclined to take any risks by giving liberal prices for raw American cotton. This exclusion of their goods was virtually effected by the last Republican tariff, passed by the Reed Congress. And it is noteworthy that beginning with that time the price of cotton went down to its present very low price. Such may have been one of the elements entering into the price of our Southern staple, affecting it so disastrously.

But what do the Republican leaders who are leagued with the manufacturers care for that?

We asked them to take the duty off of cotton ties; but, instead, they increased that outrageous tax on our Southern farmers. The last House repealed the tax, but the Republican Senate threw the bill overboard. How long are our Southern people to be treated so? Until the Democrats succeed in getting the United States Senate which we will probably do next March, if the Southern Democratic people do not prevent it, through unaccountable madness.

Answer This Question.

Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 75c. we will sell them Shilo's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Bryan & Chears, Plymouth, and Dr. B. F. Halsey, Roper.

Wilson Advance.
What grander picture does American history present, than that of Grover Cleveland, as he stood in the presence of his sage counsellors who would warn him of the disastrous effect of his veto of the pension bill and of his advocacy of tariff reform upon his prospects as the probable candidate of his party for the presidency?

In full view of the fact that the one aroused the indignant opposition of the grand army of the republic and that the other would bring down upon him the crushing weight of the manufacturing interests of the north, he replied:

"Gentlemen, I have given these matters through consideration. I have done right. I am willing to accept the consequences for myself and my party. In what I have done, I have had in my mind one man, who has been oppressed, bowed down, well nigh ruined by taxation—that man is the American farmer."

The Loss of a Leg.
Or an arm by amputation would not cause so much suffering as many people endure with Rheumatism. One of the greatest discoveries of the century is a certain cure for this terrible disease, a speedy relief from horrible suffering, and a rapid cure. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical that it is a wonderful preparation.

What a blessing! It is Dr. Drummmond's Lightning Remedy, price $5. Large bottle, and if the druggist has not got it, the remedy will be sent to any address on receipt of price; by Dr. Drummmond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York, Agents wanted.
