BEACON FLASHES.

The E. City fair will be open next week. Registrar Hilliard issued three marriage licenses on Wednesday.

The Edenton Fair was largely attended and is reported a success.

There is much sickness reported just now in this section, mostly chills.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Eborn, of Bath, paid our town a visit the past week.

Be sure that your name is properly registered, the books close to-morrow.

A series of meetings are being conducted this week in the Methodist church.

The Plymouth High School is flourishing, as is also the Preparatory School.

The State fair is in full blast this week and is the largest the State has ever had.

ELECTION TICKETS will be printed at this office as cheaply as anywhere, BUT THE CASH MUST COME with the order.

Mr. A. S. Leggett, wife and son, of Baltimore, are here the guests of Mr. Leggett's parents.

Dr. W. H. Ward has built an addition to his residence and is making other improvements thereon.

Mr. T. J. Norman has made quite an improvement in his residence by the erection of a piazza in front.

We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reid in the loss of their infant child, which died on Wednesday.

High at market prices paid for Cotton, Peas, Rice, Peanuts, Eggs, &c., at HORNTHAL & ALEXANDERS.

See the advertisement of Mr. N. B. Yeager in this issue and call on him when in want of anything in his line.

Mrs. Sallie Kerkeit of Berkley, Va., is honoring our town with her presence as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Norman.

Capt. A. L. Cahoon Democratic nominee for Representative was here yesterday. He speaks encouragingly about the outlook for Democracy.

John Brothers, a democratic Registrar of Salem township, Pasquotank county, was shot and killed by J. S. Wilcox, a leading republican on Monday.

Itch on human, mange on horses, dogs and all species, cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. W. Bryan, Druggist, Plymouth, N. C.

Mr. Edward McCabe has opened a restaurant near Brinkley's corner where he will be pleased to serve the public with meals at reasonable prices. See card elsewhere.

We are informed that Mrs. Mollie Harrison has purchased the lot next to the Beacon office and has contracted with Mr. W. J. Jackson for the erection of a neat residence thereon.

We regret to learn that Mr. W. C. Hiss, sell is being troubled somewhat in getting a site on which to erect his mill. He hopes, however, to have the mill in operation by the 1st of January.

Just received the largest line of Cloaks and Capes of the latest styles at Schultz's Cheap Bargain Store, Brinkley's corner opposite Market House. The ladies of Plymouth and surrounding country are invited to call and see them. No trouble to show our goods.

Mr. Willie Hall is home again, after an absence of about fifteen months spent in sight seeing in New York, Michigan and other northern states. He reports a jolly time with the girls.

The crew of the schooner "Melvin," which loaded here with stingles for the West Indies, deserted on Friday night, leaving Capt. Lepton in rather a bad fix. Part of two boys left, however, and set sail Wednesday, expecting to run in at New Berne and ship a full crew.

IMPORTANT-NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS! Mr. Henry Horntahl has just returned from New York and Baltimore where he has purchased for Horntahl & Alexander a complete line of the choicest goods, consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Groceries, &c., &c. Mr. Horntahl's experience as a buyer is a sufficient guarantee of the class and quality of our stock, and we are prepared to sell at prices to suit the times. Call and see us before buying elsewhere, and be convinced.

HORNTHAL & ALEXANDER

The most demoralizing show that has visited Plymouth for some time, gave semi-hourly exhibitions in the town hall Saturday afternoon and night. It consisted of a woman and man who came here "busted" from the Edenton Fair. The man, selling as manager, claimed that the woman was Kitty St. Clair, the only original "Hooshy-Kooshy" dancer in America, and many of the people here invested 10 cents to see the obscene affair. It would have been far better for the town had it bought them tickets to the next town instead of allowing them to show here. What will our city fathers encourage next? We thought darkness and cows were bad enough, but now-for them-we draw the curtain. We are sure the ladies and the churches are with us. You can't say this time that "We couldn't help it."

Every mother should know that cramp can be prevented. The first symptom of cramp is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by For sale by Plymouth Drug Co. "I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Harriet Mason of Chatham, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by For sale by Plymouth Drug Co. Im

The Democratic Ball.

The Democratic Campaign Ball given in the town hall Friday night last in honor of the candidates, Hons. W. A. B. Branch, Wm. M. Bond, Wm. R. Chesson and A. L. Cahoon, by the young gentlemen of Plymouth, was a grand success in every way.

At 9 o'clock the music from Tony's Band filled the hall and gay belles and gallant beaux glided to and fro with grace and ease, keeping time with the music in waltz, polka or quadrille.

To mention all present would take too much time and space. There were about two hundred people in the hall, among them many visiting ladies and gentlemen from other towns, all of whom were filled with patriotism and love for the cause of Democracy. Just over the stage hung a large banner of national colors bearing in bold letters, "Democracy, Branch, Bond, Chesson, Cahoon."

At 12 o'clock the curtain was raised, revealing to the people a table loaded with good things to tempt the appetites of the most fastidious, to which all were invited, and to which all did ample justice. For this delightful feature of the occasion is the Democracy and gentlemen indebted to the ladies.

At 1 o'clock the enjoyment of the evening was closed, and the verdict of one and all was that Plymouth had outdone all its past efforts.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 24th, Dr. Robt. W. Smith, one of our most popular young physicians, and Miss Anna Whaley, one of our charming society belles.

The marriage was very quiet, only the immediate families of the contracting parties being present.

THE BEACON joins the host of friends in wishing for this young couple much happiness, peace and prosperity.

Jury List.

The following named citizens were drawn by the County Commissioners at their September meeting, to serve as jurors at the fall term of Washington county Superior Court commencing Nov. 5th:

DIED.

at his home in this town on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, Capt. Jas. W. Swift, aged about 55 years, of typhoid. Capt. Swift held a position with Mess. Horntahl & Bro., as master of the three mast schooner "Octavius Coke," and stopped off about ten days ago. He had been in bad health for some time, and many thought he was consumptive.

For many years the deceased was a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist church here, and died in the faith, feeling that God had forgiven his sins, which from the life he led while living leaves no doubts in the minds of his friends and family. He leaves a wife and three small children and a large number of friends to mourn his departure.

The funeral services were held from the residence on Third street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. B. H. Mathews, and the remains taken to the old homestead near Plymouth, and in the presence of a large concourse of friends were consigned to their last long rest. Our sympathies are extended to the bereaved widow and orphan children who mourn.

NOT WHAT WE SAY, BUT WHAT HOOD'S SANSAPARILLA DOES, tells the story of its merit and success. Remember HOOD'S CURES.

CHESSONVILLE CHIMES.

October 22nd.

Miss Anna Savage, of Roper, spent Sunday with Miss Eva Chesson.

This neighborhood was well represented at the Edenton Fair last week. The "Wild West" performance was considered the most interesting feature.

Capt. Octavius Coke, Secretary of State, spent last Wednesday night with Mr. Jas. A. Chesson.

Mr. J. J. Chesson paid a visit to Mr. Louis Chesson Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Williams returned from a few days' visit to Miss Lizzie and Lela Savage, in Roper, Sunday.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY-A wholesale cost a lot of Ladies' Oxford Ties. Call and get a pair. T. W. BROWN, Roper, N. C.

ROPER RIPPLES.

Oct. 23rd. Mrs. Privott, mother of Mr. Wm. Privott is quite sick.

Capt. Lee of the steamer Roberts was in Roper last evening.

Mr. R. B. Munden is in charge of Mr. T. W. Blount's cotton gin.

Mr. George Robertson of Deep de Roper is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. A. T. Martin has returned home from a visit to friends at Berkley, Va.

There were no services at the Methodist church last Sunday on account of Pastor's illness.

Quite a number of our people attended the Edenton fair and report it as being up to the average.

Mr. W. H. Dalley and wife visited Mrs. Dalley's son at E City who is attending school at that place.

Mr. L. G. Roper's horse "Clement B." captured first money as a thorough bred at the Edenton Fair.

Miss Leticia Williams, of Chessonville, visited the Misses Savages at Roper last Saturday and Sunday.

Little George Fleming had another brother to arrive last Saturday and is happily domiciled at the parental home.

One of Uncle Sams post office inspectors paid Roper office an official visit last Saturday and of course found every thing all o. k.

Our farmers are very despondent at the price of cotton and peanuts. The farmers should stop planting cotton and raise more pork.

Dr. Hallay, one of the candidates for county office is being urged by his friends to stump the field and give us the full issue of the day.

Mr. J. H. Clark lost a valuable cow last Thursday, he gave $75, for her at two years old and she was worth $100. at the time she was taken sick.

Mr. Frank Wilson has been transferred from J. Mill to Creek Mill where he is now acting chief engineer. Mr. E. L. Herrington who has been assistant engineer at the Albemarle mill is now promoted to engineer at J. Mill. These two gentlemen are both worthy and efficient and well deserve the promotion they have received.

If you feel weak and all worn out take BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

The lowest prices yet known are now offered by H. Peal on buggies, wagons, road carts, farm carts, cart wheels and all road vehicles. A full line of vehicles suitable for the trade kept on hand and orders can be filled at short notice.

Chewing the Bag.

You may talk about fine, cheap buggies, but proof of the pudding is chewing the bag. I have been in the business long enough to know that it takes good material and first-class work to satisfy the people. It may cost more to begin with but it pays in the end. Compare my work and prices with any you please and you will be convinced.

I have the largest stock of buggies I ever had, call and see me.

H. PEAL, Plymouth, N. C.
