BEACON FLASHES.

Court next week.

Next Tuesday is election day.

Politics and whiskey have been raging the past week.

Political rows don't benefit the participants, or anyone else.

We need a mail route between this place and Roper or Mackey's Ferry.

When you cast your vote be sure that you vote according to your conscience.

Be sure to see us when you come to court and settle for your subscription.

Hold your temper on the day of election and defeat your opponents at the ballot box.

Mr. Willie Hall and sister, Miss Emma are in attendance at the E. City Fair this week.

Several new buildings are going up around the suburbs of the town, mostly by colored people.

Highest market prices paid for Cotton, Peas, Rice, Peanuts, Eggs, &c., at HORNTHAL & ALEXANDER'S.

Don't think because you get left in an election that some body has cheated. All can't be elected.

From the amount of talking some people do, one would imagine that they could vote at least fifty times.

Democrats, only three days remain for you to work, so put forth all your energies and let the Democracy win.

Perhaps the heaviest rain for many days fell here on Saturday afternoon and night. It was almost a cloud burst.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY—At wholesale cost, a lot of Ladies' Oxford Ties. Call and get a pair. T. W. Blount, Roper, N. C.

Missionary meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night, Nov. 4th. Come everybody and spend an hour pleasantly.

L. Schultz did not go to jail, but is still on the corner with stacks of goods selling at slaughter prices. See change in ad.

Capt. A. M. Walker, of Baltimore, has been in town the past week looking after the interest of his real estate business here.

MORE SHOES AND BETTER SHOES.—A large lot of Ladies' Russel Oxford Ties just received and will be sold at wholesale cost. T. W. Blount, Roper, N. C.

Owing to the election which comes off on Tuesday of next week, court will not be called, so we are informed, until Thursday morning.

Dr. R. W. Smith spent several days in Hertford this week, and we are informed he will bring his mother and sister to this town to reside.

Strange to us that some men take so much interest in politics while others take so little, and the ones who take so much are the least benefitted.

PINE TIMBER WANTED—All persons in Eastern Carolina having large or small tracts of pine timber for sale will do well to correspond with The Plymouth Real Estate and Rental Agency.

The Evangelist, Rev. J. F. Jenkins, of Wilmington, N. C., will assist the pastor of the Baptist church in a meeting beginning Sunday, Nov. 11th.

Dr. J. T. Hampton and wife who have been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks will leave this morning for their home in Philadelphia.

The Odd Fellows' hall being erected by the colored fraternity in this town will be quite a large and handsome one, and reflects credit upon that order.

Itch on human, mange on horses, dogs and all stock, cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. W. Bryan, Druggist, Plymouth, N. C.

Mrs. Eliza Rankins, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Warren Ambrose near town, for some time left for her home at Snowden, Tuesday morning.

The Str. Plymouth changed her schedule yesterday leaving here at 9:30 instead of 6 o'clock as heretofore. She will make two trips daily between here and Edenton just the same.

The lowest prices yet known are now offered by H. Peal on buggies, wagons, road carts, farm carts, cart wheels and all road vehicles. A full line of vehicles suitable for the trade kept on hand and orders can be filled at short notice.

Mr. John H. Truit one of our former townsmen now a government official at Washington has been here for the past week visiting his brother Mr. F. M. Bunch. Glad to see you old friend.

It is foolish for Third party candidates to try to convince the colored man that the Democrats are opposed to education. The past record of the party proves that Democracy means education, to the black as well as the white.

Just received the largest line of Cloaks and Capes of the latest styles at Schultz's Cheap Bargain Store, Brinkley's corner opposite Market House. The ladies of Plymouth and surrounding country are invited to call and see them. No trouble to show our goods.

To our knowledge there are but two vacant residences for rent in this town, while a large number of new dwellings have been erected during the past few months, it seems that the demand is equal to the supply, and often greater.

Mrs. N. B. Yeager received a telegram Monday night from Dr. L. A. Woodson, of Patton, Ala., informing her that her son, Mr. J. S. Day, was critically ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Yeager left on the 6 o'clock train Tuesday morning for Patton. We hope the case may not prove as serious as supposed, and that our young friend may soon be restored to health.

IMPORTANT—NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS! Mr. Henry Hornthal has just returned from New York and Baltimore where he has purchased for Hornthal & Alexander a complete line of the choicest goods, consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Groceries, &c., &c. Mr. Hornthal's experience as a buyer is a sufficient guarantee of the class and quality of our stock, and we are prepared to sell at prices to suit the times. Call and see us before buying elsewhere, and be convinced.

HORNTHAL & ALEXANDER

A Would-be Detective Threatens to jail Mr. Schultz and gets into Trouble.

On Tuesday night Mr. Mack Orange, of Edenton, claiming to be a detective, came to Plymouth and while under the influence of whiskey made such threats against Mr. L. Schultz as to lead to his (the detective's) arrest.

It seems that some years ago a gentleman in Delaware was robbed of a gold watch and a large sum of money, and the inside case of the watch had the man's name and some other inscription in it. The detective succeeded in finding the case in the possession of a party at E. City, and that party proved that he got it from Mr. Schultz, whereupon the detective came with the case to Mr. Schultz, who admitted that he once owned it and said he bought it from a colored woman in Oxford. During the conversation the detective threatened to jail Mr. Schultz but he could not show any papers so Mr. Schultz refused to go to jail, and at once got out papers before Justice Armistead charging the detective with blackmail. The detective was arrested by officers Tucker and Latham and the case tried at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. After the evidence was given the prosecutor saw that the prisoner had made a mistake while under the influence of whiskey, and asked that the case be dismissed, which was done.

This little circumstance ought to prove a lesson to men, that while transacting business of any kind, it don't pay to get too full of "King Barleycorn," for drunken men are liable to get themselves into trouble as well as their friends.

FROM CRESWELL.

CRESWELL, N. C., Oct. 24, '94.

EDITOR ROANOKE BEACON:

We are having it very rainy at this writing and it throws the farmers back in the saving of their cotton, some say they guess it don't amount to much as prices are so very low.

The school at this place has suspended and Prof. Massey, the Principal, has returned to his home at Durham, as his ill health would not permit him to continue. Miss Naama Ebora is teaching a primary school.

Mr. Thos. S. Armistead, of your place, honored us with his presence Saturday and Sunday.

Mess. Willis McCleese and John Swain, both of Columbia, were in our town this morning. Mr. McCleese came to see the Undertaker, Mr. W. J. Mercer, to get a casket for his uncle, Mr. William McCleese who departed this life yesterday afternoon. To the grief-stricken relatives and friends we tender our sympathies.

Mrs. James Dillon and charming daughters, Misses Estelle and Fantine, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this place for some time will leave for their home in Norfolk to-morrow.

Mr. E. J. Nixon who has been attending school here will leave for his home at Chesapeake to-morrow. We know it will be a sad parting to him, leaving his "best girl" behind. Well, Ned you must come again soon.

Mr. D. H. Holmes, Mate on the Wagner, stopped off for a few days recreation.

CHESSONVILLE CHIMES.

October 30th.

It was quite stormy here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Neva Cahoon was sick several days last week.

Master Will Chesson paid Master Edgar Spruill a visit Friday.

Mr. James Moran, of Edenton, spent Saturday and Sunday in this neighborhood.

We are glad to know that Mr. Edward Blount has recovered from his indisposition.

Miss Lillian Marriner left for Norfolk Tuesday morning, where she will reside with her aunt and attend school.

The expert lady bicyclist, Miss Gussie Carstarphen, sped through this place Friday accompanied by Mr. Edward Leary.

We observe that the bicycle fever has not abated in this community, as they are constantly being purchased. The latest is by Mr. J. J. Chesson.

Dr. Johnston, the Presbyterian minister of E. City, spent Saturday and Sunday nights with Mr. Chas. Riddle; and conducted services at Pleasant Grove Sunday morning.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or eczema Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles.
