NEWS AND NOTES FOR WOMEN.

Connecticut has a woman mail carrier.

Minnesota has a dairy school for women.

The college colors of Vassar are pink and gray.

There are three times as many widows as widowers.

Mrs. George W. Childs has a splendid collection of silver.

At the last census Nevada had only 4931 girls of school age.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, has a Woman's Board of Trade.

Miss Kate Cary is perhaps the best cross country rider in America.

Bela Lockwood is about to begin the practice of law in Virginia.

There are 10,000 more women than men in the District of Columbia.

Some of the Russian railroads have smoking cars for the use of ladies.

According to the last report no less than 80,000 women own and ride bicycles.

Among Vassar College's forty-seven instructors are fourteen of her own alumnae.

Women are less sensitive to pain than men, and actually feel less of it in given operations.

The day of severity and angularity is past, and the simplest dress must now have its touch of beauty.

Miss Ella Knowles, of Montana, has recently received a fee of $10,000 for her services in a mining lawsuit.

One of the season's whims in dress is the extravagant and far from tasteful one of silk stockings with a lace instep.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett is laconically described in an article on women writers, as "the mother of two sons and twenty-two novels."

Of the nine candidates successful in the late examination in the art, theory and history of teaching at the London University, eight are women.

The Princess of Wales has a great fondness for having her picture taken in "groups." The Prince dislikes the ceremony as much as his spouse enjoys it.

Mrs. Daniel McDonald is First Vice-President of the Northern Indiana Editorial Association. She helps her husband edit the Plymouth (Ind.) Democrat.

Rosa Bonheur, the French painter, is not afraid of work. Though over seventy years of age she spends a long, busy day at her easel. Her only recreation is photography.

In Korea a woman is a poor beast of burden, to whom is given not even a name. She is designated as the "first daughter of X," or the second or the third, or as the "first wife of Y."

If the fleshy women should follow all the "don'ts," or adopt any proportion of the Spartan suggestions to train down their weight, there would be really nothing left for them to live for.

Queen Victoria is described by a recent writer as rather a comfortable, motherly-looking old woman in a plain black dress, from beneath which is visible the toe of a broad, easy-fitting shoe.

The King of Italy has shown an almost feminine instinct in his choice of punishment by forbidding the Duchess of Aosta from appearing at court for two months, because she rode a bicycle.

Brooklyn is the only city in the United States which can boast of a female Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue. Miss Lucy E. Ball has just been promoted to that position in the City of Churches.

The question has been raised in India whether it is proper for women to baptize converts of their own sex. It has special reference to the work of the Zenana missions, which is largely carried on by women.

Ladies' chalets are to be a new feature in London. They will provide at various points of the metropolis in little cottage buildings the advantages of a lady's waiting room in conjunction with a millinery shop.

There are now three women physicians on the Sanitary Corps of the New York Board of Health—Drs. Alice Mitchell, Helen Knight and Frances G. Dean. They are under the same rules and are required to do the same amount of hard work as their masculine associates.

The latest bicycle suits for women are made of wool, mohair, serge and silk, in all the darker and mixed shades. Braids and buttons to match the goods are used in trimming. An enthusiastic rider needs several changes in a season, as the dust and heat cause a suit to become shabby very soon.

This is bad news for the girl that visits the winter resort: A crusade is being started against the engagement ring. One of the reasons given for its proposed abolition is that many girls become engaged for no other purpose than to add another ring to their collection and break off the contract as soon as it becomes convenient.

New York buys more laces than any other city in the world. It has at least a score of women whose laces exceed $50,000 in value, and probably a hundred whose collections would sell for $20,000. Five hundred dollar fichus, $200 handkerchiefs, $300 scarfs, and a $1000 over-dress are mere bagatelles in the wardrobes of the wives of millionaires.

Mrs. Ernestine Schaffner, of New York, known as the "Tomb Angel," has been doing for nearly ten years her good work of seeking to free from jail innocent persons who are falsely accused. Although she is most of the time on about $20,000 bail bonds she has not in all her experiences lost more than $1000, and she was cheated out of a large part of that sum by a dishonest lawyer.

When Mrs. Hetty Green, of New York, who is said to be worth $60,000,000, entered the Tiff House at Buffalo, the other day, the clerks thought she was a beggar and were disinclined to let her register. She wore a rusty old black dress and carried the dilapidated handbag that has been her trusty companion for years. She walked with the aid of a cane. The room given her was the cheapest and most secluded in the hotel.

The Chicago Style.

"Maybe it's a chestnut worked over," remarked the drummer to the hotel clerk, "but I heard a story the other day which illustrates the kind of men some Chicagoans are."

"Let her go," said the clerk encouragingly.

"One of those rich fellows there," continued the drummer, "had a close-fisted friend of his with him at his country place, and during the evening the friend dropped a quarter in the grass and immediately went down on his knees to find it."

"What are you looking for?" inquired the host, who was talking to another guest some distance off.

"I've dropped a quarter in the grass."

"Here, let me help you with a little light," said the Chicago man, and he knifed a $5 bill with a match and held it till the friend found his lost quarter."—Detroit Free Press.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: E. J. A Lucky Rhymor.

Mirabeau L. Towns, a Brooklyn lawyer who once lived in Atlanta, received a legacy of $150,000 the other day from an eccentric Irishman who had taken a fancy to the lawyer's rhymes.

About ten years ago the Irishman called on Mr. Towns and requested him to take the case of an old woman who wanted damages for being bitten by a dog and drenched with water from a hose. But the condition was that Mr. Towns should utilize his poetic gifts by making an argument in rhyme. The proposition was accepted and the jury gave the woman a verdict for $75. The Irishman gave him another case which he also won, after making his argument in rhymes.

To cut a long story short, it is enough to say that this strange admirer of Mr. Towns's poetry is dead, and has made the rhymor one of his four heirs, each of whom will get $150,000.

We do not believe that there is a similar case on record. Certainly, no American ever before received such a rich reward for a few jingling verses. Let our poets be of good cheer. Perhaps their golden age is here. It opens well this autumn drear, and spreads its sunlight far and near.—Atlanta Constitution.
