

The Roanoke Beacon.

The Official Paper of Washington County.

Published Every Friday by THE ROANOKE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

W. FLETCHER AUSBON, Editor and Business Manager.

Subscription price, $1.00 per year. Advertisements inserted at low rates. Ordinary notices exceeding ten lines, five cents a line. Count the words, allowing eight to the line, and send money with MS. for all in excess of ten lines. The editor will not be responsible for the views of correspondents. All articles for publication must be accompanied by the full name of the writer. Correspondents are requested not to write on but one side of the paper. All communications must be sent in by Thursday morning or they will not appear. Address all communications to THE ROANOKE BEACON, Plymouth, N. C.

We appeal every reader of this Roanoke Beacon, to aid in making it an acceptable and profitable medium of news to our citizens. Let Plymouth people and the public know what is going on in Plymouth. Report to us all items of news—the arrival and departure of friends, social events, deaths, serious illness, accidents, new buildings, new enterprises and improvements of whatever character, changes in business—indeed anything and everything that would be of interest to our people.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1894.

GOVERNOR-ELECT Wm. C. Oates, of Alabama, was inaugurated Governor of that State on Saturday, the 1st day of December, notwithstanding the fact that Kolb insisted that he was Governor, and on the same day took the oath of office.

The oath of office was administered to Kolb by a Justice and he made his inaugural address from a farm wagon in the street opposite the State building, while the oath of office was administered to Col. Oates by Chief Justice Brickell in the State building, and he delivered his address from the proper place, and is the Chief Executive of the State of Alabama.

It is often the case that things are not so bad as they seem. Whatever the conditions that surround us courage is essential to the attainment of the best results. The courage to do right, is ever an element of true greatness.

Let us listen to the words of our wise men, and take courage. "The Democratic party," says Mr. William C. Whitney, "has had four times as many defeats as victories since I have been a voter, and it does not demoralize easily. It will be stronger in the end." Mr. Whitney is authority with the present generation of Democrats; but there is one who stands even higher than he in the respect, confidence and affection of the older men of the party. That man is Allen G. Thurman. The Richmond Dispatch says: "Recently Hon. A. G. Thurman, of Ohio, became 81 years old. To the friends who called on him to offer their congratulations he made a few remarks. Among other things he said:

"In 1846 the Democrats were whipped worse than at the present time, but this defeat was like an earthquake. Two years ago we carried everything, and some thought we would do the same this year. But I became a little uneasy and did not advise any of my friends to bet. But we are bound to beat them, and why? Because the Democratic party is the natural party of free institutions. I'll be gone perhaps, but a party founded on the principles of a free government will stand so long as that government is maintained. You have been in worse places than at the present time and come out all right, and you will come out all right again."

There is no telling what the extent of the late "land-slide" may be, or how far it will reach in future. We believe that it will not reach to 1896, but supposing it does, what then? No party has a monopoly of the popular favor. Power brings responsibilities which no organization ever yet formed was able to meet satisfactorily always. If the Republicans regain complete control of the government in 1896, which, mark you, we do not believe they will do—and they fail to meet the popular expectation, however unreasonable that expectation may chance to be, they will be driven out of Congress in 1898 and out of the Presidency in 1900.

The lowest prices yet known are now offered by H. Pearl on buggies, wagons, road carts, farm carts, cart wheels and all road vehicles. A full line of vehicles suitable for the trade kept on hand and orders can be filled at short notice.

GOOD TIMES COMING.

NOW LET THE POPULISTS FULFILL THEIR PROMISES TO THE PEOPLE AND LEGISLATE PROSPERITY INTO THE LAND

Morganton Herald.

If the apostles of fusion are not arrant frauds and cheats there are good times a-coming.

They have taught on the stump and through the press and in secret midnight conclaves that the Democratic party is responsible for all the ills that human flesh is heir to.

Now that Democracy has been defeated they must make times better or acknowledge that they are a lot of bunco steers, unworthy of belief and bent on treason, stratagems and spoils.

They have told the people that the Democrats have made the price of wheat so low. Let them now see to it that wheat doubles in value, and that cotton goes booming back to twenty cents a pound,—or let them make the damning admission that legislation is powerless to effect the price of agricultural products.

They have charged the Democrats with cutting down the price of labor and grinding the face of the poor. Let them now see to it that wages are promptly raised, that there is plenty of work for those that want to work and that those who won't work are provided with an office or pensioned off at the public expense.

They have complained that the Democrats have made money scarcer, and they made the money question one of the most prominent issues in the campaign. Now let them flood the country with silver and green-backs,—let them start up the mints and put the printing presses in motion and distribute to every man, woman and child the fifty dollars they have promised; or let them admit that they have been guilty of obtaining goods under false pretenses.

Of course, the good times are coming. There will be a demand for an unlimited quantity of cord-wood at two dollars a cord, corn will bring two dollars the year round,—money will grow on white oak trees and laborers will only have to name their price to get it.

Yes, good times are coming. The Fusionists will give the country: Free silver. A gold standard. High tariff. Low tariff. Free trade. Free sugar. A sugar bounty. Lower goods for the people. Greater profit to the manufacturer. Higher wages.

And if they don't give all of these things right away, their names will be mud. For to the Fusionists everything must be done to-day, or the party that don't do it will be anathema martha.

The good times are coming. If they don't arrive on schedule time, Mary Ann will be at the bottom of it. For the indications are that Mary Ann—she is the State.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home." SHE'LL MARRY ME.

Ah, life looks very bright to me Since I have heard her say, With sweet becoming modesty, She'll marry me some day.

If I will give up smoking; If I will go to church; If I cut the club and leave My best friends in the lurch; If I will never stay out late, But hasten home at 9; If I will let her have her way— She's promised to be mine!

If I will move to Kensington And never touch a card; If I will buckle down to work And labor long and hard To buy her stylish bonnets And gowns and lots of gloves, Then I may be the happy man, The lucky man she loves.

If I'll be always pleasant And never, never scold, And never make her nurse me And not grow cross and old, And always stay good looking— She can't stand ugly men— If I come up to her ideal, Why, we'll be married then!

That's why I am so happy And why I often seem Unconscious and abstracted— I'm living in a dream! She is so sweet and pretty, And so unselfish too! I wonder how I won her love— I can't believe it's true!

—London Sporting Post.

Any one who has children will rejoice with I. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by Plymouth Drug Co. 1m

Hood's is Good Makes Pure Blood

Scrofula Thoroughly Eradicated. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:" "It is with pleasure that I give you the details of our little May's sickness and her return to health by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. She was taken down with

Fever and a Bad Cough. Following this a sore came on her right side between the two lower ribs. In a short time another broke on the left side. She would take spells of sore mouth and when we had succeeded in overcoming this she would suffer with attacks of high fever and exact bloody looking corruption. Her head was affected and matter oozed from her ears. After each attack she became worse and all treatment failed to give her relief until we began to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. After she had taken one-half bottle we could see that she was better. We continued until she had taken three bottles. Now she looks like Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures The Bloom of Health and is fat as a pig. We feel grateful, and cannot say too much in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. A. M. ADAMS, Inman, Tennessee.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.
