Don't advertise something on a single ad then say you don't believe in advertising when a newspaper man calls on you.

Taco Bowen, the hustling liverman, keeps up with his business, and the riding public find him accommodating and reliable.

Mr. J. F. Norman and wife returned from Nag's Head Tuesday. We regret to know that Mr. Norman is but little improved.

Miss Lizzie Golet has been employed to teach Public School No. 10, on the Lee's Mills road, and will begin next Monday.

We understand that the N. & S. R. R. will soon erect a new and much larger wharf and depot at this place. In fact material is already on the site for this purpose.

In the absence of Chief Engineer Dowdy who was off on a vacation, the Plymouth engine has been in the hands of Mr. Richard Elliott, first, and later, Mr. S. S. Amack, two as clever men as ever pulled a lever.

The present Board of Commissioners have taken steps to suppress whiskey drinking, to some extent, in our town. Are they going to be upheld by the people in their effort or not, is going to be the question later.

Hornthal & Alexander are offering the best and cheapest line of Cook Stoves ever sold in Plymouth. Call and examine the goods before buying elsewhere.

What has become of the Business Men's Association of Plymouth? Indeed gentlemen, you made a good start, but you need your assistance in other things. Meet again and see if you can't do something for the town.

We were shown on Monday by Mrs. Mollie Harrison a copy of the "Roanoke Crescent," published in Plymouth January 2nd 1861, by Col. R. S. Golet. It proves to be quite an interesting relic, and shows the advancement in newspaper business of 34 years.

Several of our citizens went over to Edenton Saturday night on the tug Arm and Hammer and joined an excursion to Nag's Head, returning Monday morning. A days rest at this pleasant resort and a plunge in the old Atlantic might have made the boys feel good, but the loss of two nights sleep, one going and one coming, gave them a "high old-time" appearance when they got home.

The University of North Carolina now ranks among the foremost Colleges in America in scholarship, equipment and general efficiency. See ad. je 25-4f

Just as we go to press the sad, yet hourly expected, news reaches us that our townswoman, Mr. W. A. Hassell died at 12:45 at his home on 3d street after a painful illness of several weeks, aged about 45 years. He bequeathed a wife and three small children together with many friends to mourn his death. We extend to those who mourn our heartfelt sympathies. Peace to his ashes.

Hornthal & Alexander have a carload of Agricultural Lime, in bags, for sale. They have also received 175 barrels Pennsylvania Flour. Something nice and fresh ground.

People are complaining heavily about the condition of the Roper road from Peacock swamp to town. This road is a nuisance to the traveling public, and a disgrace to civilization. But what is to be done? There are only a few men subject to road duty on it, and the material obtainable is not worth the time it takes to work it. Under the circumstances and existing road laws we think the road is kept in good order. It would pay the people to cooperate with the citizens of the town and build a good road, but will they do it is the question.

A fresh lot of table delicacies just opened at Hornthal & Alexander's, consisting of asparagus, California apricots, raspberries, Bartlett pears, etc., tomatoes, radishes, etc., &c.

It is said that a man who won't buy a paper because he can borrow one has invented a machine by which he can cook his dinner by the smoke from his neighbor's chimney. The same fellow sits in the back pew in church to save interest on contributions, and is always borrowing a ride to town to save the wear and tear on his own horseflesh. Yes, you know him. He's first cousin to the man who never winds his watch up for fear of breaking the spring. He undoubtedly was a near relative of the man who went in the back yard during the recent cold snap, soaked his hair in water, let it freeze, and then broke it off in order to cheat the barber out of a hair cut.—Ex.

Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough cures and the demand for it to-day is greater than ever before. Prompt to get and sure to cure.

Hall's Vegetable Sulfian Hair Renewer is, unquestionably, the best preservative of the hair. It is also curative of dandruff, itching, and other scalp affections.

Methodist District Conference.

The District Conference of the Elizabeth City District, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene in the Methodist church in this town on Thursday morning July 18. Rev. R. B. John, Presiding Elder of the district will call the Conference to order and will preside during all of its sessions.

The opening sermon will be preached on Wednesday night preceding by some minister closed by the Presiding Elder.

This conference is composed of one minister and four lay-delegates from each of the eighteen pastoral charges within the bounds of the district, besides the local preachers who are also members.

Until about a year ago all the charges in the District beyond the Albemarle sound and Chowan river belonged to the Virginia Conference when they were transferred to the North Carolina Conference by the General Conference which met at Memphis, Tenn. in May 1894. The North Carolina preachers are now serving these charges for the first time.

Plymouth has the honor of entertaining the first conference of the Elizabeth City District and we most heartily welcome to our town our friends from the other side who have never before mingled together as members of a N. C. District Conference.

The sessions of the conference will be held in the morning and afternoon with a sermon or something equivalent thereto at each eleven o'clock morning service and with preaching at night. The business sessions of the conference will occupy Thursday and the two days following and at these meetings all have a cordial invitation to be present.

Besides the regular members of the conference there will be a number of prominent ministers and laymen present from other points of the church in the State who will come to represent her schools and colleges and publishing interests. Rev. Jno. C. Kelgo, D. D., President of Trinity College, will be present and our people are to be congratulated on the happy privilege they will have of hearing this distinguished divine, than whom a more popular platform orator has perhaps never figured in the State.

Plymouth opens wide her gates of Christian hospitality to the members and visitors who may come to the conference, and bids all a hearty welcome in the name of the Master.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints. Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericksburg, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints. Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericksburg, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. vancement in both races. In 1885, the entire number of teachers in the county amounted to 37, the whites having 24, the colored 13. In 1894, the whites had 38 teachers, the colored 30, making a total of 68. This, contrasted with the showing of 1885, shows a gain of nearly ninety per cent.

It is, indeed, a pleasure to know that a deeper interest has been awakened among our entire people on this all important subject, which is now manifested in more active zeal to secure good and competent teachers, to have well ordered and comfortable school houses for pupils, sound and reliable text books, for study, and a general desire to advance the educational work of the community to a still higher standard of efficiency. Mrs. Rhodie Nash, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. She then sent to me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him this same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy. —Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by Plymouth Drug Co. 1m

SAY THE LOVING WORDS NOW.

Year after year, with a glad content, In and out of home we went— In and out.

Ever for us the skies were clear; His heart carried the care and fear, The care and doubt.

Our hands held with a careless hold All that he won of power and gold. In toil and pain.

O dear hands that our burdens bore— Hands that shall toil for us no more— Never again.

Oh! it was hard to learn our loss, Bearing daily the heavy cross— The cross be bore.

To say with an aching heart and head, "Would to God that the love now dead Were here once more!"
