Largest in the South.

We advertise Trinity College in this issue. At its recent commencement $150,000 were donated to it. It is now the largest endowed college for whites in the South. It is always aggressive in educational work. A department of law has been added, and in this offers superior advantage. Students studying law at Trinity will have the advantages of the courts and the influence of one among the strongest bars.

In New Quarters.

Mr. J. W. Bryan and Dr. Hassell moved into their new quarters yesterday. This new drugstore is roomy and well arranged. In the rear Mr. Bryan has an office, and Dr. Hassell has a reception room and private office, something he has long needed.

Mess. Brothers & Brooks, the furniture men, also moved back to their old stand yesterday (the old is now new) and when they get their stock in place they will have one of the neatest furniture stores in the South.

At Creswell July 5th.

On the above date, as has already been announced in these columns, the corner-stone of the new Episcopal church will be laid, the ceremonies to be conducted by Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, Bishop of East Carolina. The services, &c., attending this occasion will be interesting and well worth witnessing, while a day spent in this pretty little town, among a people whose hospitality has no limit, will never be regretted by those who attend. Let Plymouth have a large representation on this occasion.

Bingham's School.

We are in receipt of the Catalogue of Bingham's School for its 105th year. This school is located near Asheville, and from every evidence is one of the most prosperous schools in the State. It has an attendance of 119, representing an area extending from Pennsylvania to Texas.

Two years ago Maj. Bingham offered eleven scholarships to the young men of this State, to be awarded by the Congressmen and Senators of the State, there were over 100 competitors for these scholarships. All these scholarships are now vacant except in the 8th District, and an examination will be held about the middle of August, time and place to be named by Congressmen.

If you wish your boy to have a good education, together with military training, correspond with Maj. Bingham.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Fincaiste, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble." For sale by all druggists.
