THE Clark-Kilgo controversy is still on, and the only result we see in sight is bad. We admit the truth of the statement that the country is largely Republicant between the country is a country of the country in the country is a country of the country of the country is a country of the country ty is largely Republican, but as a Democrat we will never consent to vacating the field, for we believe the Democratic voters should have a chance to cast their votes from President down to constable. We say let the Democratic party hold its convention and nominate a set of candidates that will stump the county from one and to the other, and let these candidates be men who are without reproach and who will have the patriotism to follow the opposing candidates and tell the people what the Republican party has done for North Carolina. Let their corrupt administration be exposed.

While we are the minority party let us show to the people that we represent the principles which can and will give to North Carolina a clean, honest government. We insist upon the white man's party having candidates so the white people can east their votes as a protest against the present state of affairs.

WAR SITUATION.

There is but little war news just now. Quite a number of new eases of vellow fever is reported among the soldiers at Santiago, but Gen. Shafter doesn't feel alarmed.

The dissatisfaction among Cubans over the terms of surrender at Santiago may oause Uncle Sam some trouble.

Gen. Miles and his Porto Rico expedition reached their designation Tuesday, landing at Guanica, where, after a skirmish with Spanish soldiers, they raised the Stars and Stripes. The Spaniards were driven into the hills,

The latest news is that Spain has sued for peace, not through the great powers of Europe, but by a direct appeal to President McKinley. The proposition was formerly submitted to the President on the 26th inst., by the French Ambassador. There are no special terms as to how peace shall come, set forth.
