ded district conventions declare that the Democratic Congressional Convention held in Edenton on Tuesday last, was the most enthusiastic and harmonious that has been held in the district for years. A gentleman who viewed the audience from the stand remarked that he could see from the expression on the faces of these intelligent representatives of the white voters of the 1st District, that they were determined-that they had met for a purpose, and that purpose was to nominate a man who could defeat Harry Skinner, who in his greed for office has long since forgotten the party that first nominated him, the man, who for gain, has ignored the pleadings of his oppressed people and sold his birth-right to the gold bugs.

We believe the honest voters who want fair and just legislation, and especially those who have been cat basely deceived by Mr. Skinner, will gladly welcome such a candidate as Jno. H. Small, but of this candidate we will say more later.
