 If a man is in love it's his business.
 But if they marry it is L. P. Hornthal's business to start them to housekeeping as he keeps everything they need from a knitting needle to a steam engine.—See.

At N. B. Yeager's jewelry store will be found one of the highest grade Phonog-raphs, it's articulation is clear and distinct and it produces all the latest war songs, vocal and instrumental music. It is a great instrument. Call and see it.
 Court adjourned Tuesday night, the Judge having been called home by the serious illness of his wife. The criminal docket was about exhausted, but no civil cases had been tried. There were several cases of much importance and this unexpected adjournment has been a great inconvenience to our people.
 We have seen fish, and heard about fish, and we have read about fish, but we never saw so many fish as inhabited the waters of this section the past week. On Sunday last people gathered on the road leading across the swamp going to Mr. J.
 H. Hamilton's to see the men pick up fish. The run, a very small stream, was Washington; L. Eborn, of Creswell; N. K.

 Hughes, of Chowcherry; L. L. Williams, of E. City; Francis Joyner, of Burton and F. B. Tignor, Convocation Evangelist.
 Judge Roman seemed very kind and sympathetic in his dealings with persons convicted here this week. In nearly every case he would ask if the defendant was able to pay the cost, and in many cases the prisoner was recognized for the payment of costs, which means that the county will have to pay most of the cost. This may be good on the evil doors, but it is tough on the tax payers.
 Just received, a big shipment of "A" and "G" Champion turn plows. Stonewall and Climax cotton plows, at HORNTHAL'S.

ROPER RIPPLES.
 April 26th.
 Almost every one in our town is courting this week.
 Miss Mollie Chesson has been quite sick, but is improving.
 Mrs. E. H. Herrington is quite sick, but we hope she may soon be better.
 Visitors here are scarce. Come to see us friends, the small pox is not here yet.
 A little girl named Mary Catherine is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Forbes as a permanent visitor.
 There are a lot of beggars around this town, but the right kind you know—begging for the church.
 Rev. E. H. Davis filled his regular appointment here Sunday morning and his sermon was a grand one as usual.
 The ice cream supper given at Mrs. Roper's for the benefit of the M. E. Church was quite a success. It was given under the management of Mesdames Roper, Wilson and Clark.
 The public school closed Friday and though there is a right full school at the Academy, our energetic teacher, Miss Anna

Peacock, who was assistant in the public school, opened a school Monday in the face of all disadvantages and has now nineteen pupils enrolled.
 It looked like Summer was here in full blast from the number of buggies that dashed too and fro on Sunday afternoon, and a good number of pedestrians were also out.
 Those who drove down to the sound enjoyed the evening we are sure. Boys and girls enjoy yourselves while you may. God only lends us our youth for a little while and when it plumes its golden wings for flight it is not long ere we settle down to middle age. We thank our ideas, our pleasures change and we look not regretfully on the exciting pleasures of youth. So again we say take advantage of youth that is enveloped in a halo of happiness, that is like a star sparkling in the shadowy firmament of life; and never forget to thank Him above who confers our happiness on us in youth and all along the way, even unto the perfect day.
SHAKESPEARE.
 In 1888 my wife went East and was attacked with rheumatism. She received no relief until she tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Since that time we have never been without it. We find it gives instant relief in cases of burns and scalds and is never failing for all rheumatic and neuragic pains.—D. C. BIANI, Santa Ynez, Cal.
 For sale by all druggists.
