

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.

Cheap Goods,

—BY—
A. MARCUS!

I beg the people at large—the ladies especially—to visit my store this season.

I have just returned from the northern markets with a full stock of Clothing, Ladies' ready-made dresses, dress goods, Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings, Trimmings of all kinds, Notions, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Musical Instruments of all kinds, Winter underwear, Trunks, Valises, etc.

Men's suits, $3.00 up; Overcoats, $2 up; Boys' suits, $1 up.

These goods were selected by myself, and I defy any merchant in the county to offer them, quality considered, at anything near as cheap as I sell them. Don't take my word, but come and see for yourselves.

A. MARCUS.

BEACON FLASHES.

Those who have friends visiting them, or who intends leaving home themselves, will please let it be known at this office, so the fact may be mentioned. It does not matter whether you are a subscriber or not. All we ask is—let us know it.

The ladies of the M. E. Church are preparing for an elaborate Bazaar to be held during court week. They will also serve meals during the week. Their prices will be as cheap as at hotels, and the menu will far surpass anything to be found elsewhere in the town. If you would live good and help a good cause, board at the Bazaar court week.

Mr. D. H. Clark is in Norfolk this week.

Mr. C. W. Snell of Mackey's Ferry, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Emma Norman made a short trip to Edenton this week.

Mr. W. L. Sherrod, of Hamilton, has been in our midst this week.

Mr. J. D. Phelps, of Mackey's Ferry, was in town on Wednesday.

Miss Eva Hassell, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. Ed. B. Norman.

Mr. A. O. Gaylord has been attending court at Washington this week.

Miss Eva Chesson of Roper, is the guest of Mrs. J. M. Horton this week.

Miss Mary Newbold of Creswell, is the guest of Miss Hennie Fagan this week.

Mrs. Ida Midgett has returned from an extended visit to relatives in Richmond and Norfolk.

Miss Carrie Coke of Edenton, spent several days with Miss Charlotte Wood during the past week.

I have on hand and will sell cheap, a good, second-hand 50-saw cotton gin, with condenser. This gin is in good condition and will go at a bargain. Louis P. Hornthal.

Mrs. J. L. Phelps and little son, Master William, have been visiting relatives in E. City the past week.

If you wish your ad. changed before court week be sure and have copy in our hands by the first of next week.

Messrs. Raymond Hassell of Roper, and W. M. Davenport of Mackey's Ferry, were here this week to attend the Hassell-King wedding.

After a residence of several months in Edenton, Mr. F. E. Bratten has moved with his family back to Plymouth. We extend to them a cordial welcome.

We return thanks to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton for a nice basket of vegetables and spare ribs sent us this week. Such presents are greatly appreciated by us.

Matilda Nicholson, whose reputation as a nurse is well known here, wishes us to say to the people that she can now be found at the Knoda Basnight house, just beyond Mr. Brickley's brick yard. It

Mrs. E. S. Patrick and daughter, Miss Colchester, of Mackey's Ferry, were in town on Wednesday, and while here made us a brief call. Come again, and tarry longer.

Mr. D. T. Singleton, one of our county's most popular teachers, passed hurriedly through town Tuesday morning, enroute to Lonsburg, Raleigh, Durham and other points.

Col. W. F. Beasley was in town the past week, and while here made a visit to the County Home. He reports the cottages there in excellent condition and the inmates well cared for.

The report of the Hassell-King marriage not being given us before the hour of going to press it is impossible for us to publish it this week. However, it will appear in our next issue, if we can get it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams and Misses King and Belle Carstarphen, of Hamilton and Geraldine Wilkins, of Enfield, were the guests of Mrs. Ed. B. Norman this week. They were here to attend the Hassell-King marriage.

Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be in Williamston, at Hotel Roanoke, November 9th, 10th and 11th, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, for the purpose of treating diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and fitting glasses. Dr. Hyatt will hereafter visit Williamston three times a year.
