

RHYMING PRESIDENTS.

The first of our presidents every one knows,
For yearly the fame of George Washington grows,
When eight years he'd served, John Adams served four;
Thomas Jefferson followed for eight years more
James Madison next, and then James Monroe.
Each sat for two terms; next, for one term, you know,
Came as Adams again, John Quincy by name.
Andrew Jackson for two terms as President came,
Then Martin Van Buren four years held sway,
But William H. Harrison in a month passed away,
Giving place to John Tyler, who next took the seat.
And became President, the full term to complete.
James K. Polk, for one term, came from Tennessee;
Then Zachary Taylor, the next one we see.
But death, ere two years, called him from the race.
Millard Fillmore completing the time in his place.
Franklin Pierce, his successor, the next four years.
Then for one term James Buchanan appears,
Then Abraham Lincoln, whose first term was passed
In guiding our country through war's fierce blast;
But his second term hardly begins when it ends.
And his murder brings grief to his millions of friends.
Andrew Johnson completed the unexpired space
Then Ulysses S. Grant for eight years held the place.
Rutherford B. Hayes for one term held the chair,
Though Democrats held his election unfair.
James A. Garfield the people next chose as their chief,

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Be. H. Miss has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by Spauld & Bro. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Better be a big peg in a little hole than a little peg in a big hole.

Mrs. Fred Unrath,
President Country Club, Boston Harbor, Mass.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

WINE OF CARDUI

But though mourned by the country his time was but brief,
For a murderers hand shot the president dead,
And Chester A. Arthur was chief in his stead.
Grover Cleveland for four years next sat in the chair,
When Benjamin Harrison succeeded him there,
Four years, in his turn, in the seat to remain,
And when his term ended came Cleveland again.
For William McKinley, one term's barely o'er
When the people have given him four years more.
Once more in our nation came sorrow and grief,
Again an assassin strikes down our chief,
And Theodore Roosevelt assumes the command
The latest executive here in our land.
—G. L. Conroy.

A Thousand Dollar's Worth of Good

A. H. Thurston, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes, "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicines until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me a $1000 worth of good." Sold by J. O. Everett.

THE NEW YORK WORLD

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established itself in public favor, and it is now recognized as the strongest publication of its kind in the United States. Advertisers and publishers seeking clubbing combinations—and they know best—universally testify to this. It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell. Next year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end. The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to infect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political contests. In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE ROANOKE BEACON together one year for $1.50. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.
