QUEEN ISABELLA

Grandmother of the King of Spain Died Saturday.

An Associated Press dispatch from Paris dated April 9, says:

Ex-Queen Isabella of Spain, grandmother of King Alfonso, died here at 9:45 o'clock this morning, of influenza with complications.

The American embassy, which is opposite the palace castle on the Avenue Kleber, the late Queen's residence, was early informed of the queen's death and Ambassador Porter was among the first to call and sign the palace register.

The Infantas Isabella, Eulalie and Marie, daughters of the late queen, were at the bedside when she died.

The queen had been afflicted with the grip for two months, which gradually affected the lungs. Last night she became unconscious, and the death agony began at 7 o'clock this morning. The three infantas and Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria, husband of the Infanta Marie, were summoned to the bedside, but the dying queen did not recognize them.

M. Delcasse called during the day and was admitted to the death chamber, and President Loubet sent an officer of his household to present his condolences.

It is understood that King Alfonso will not come to France for the funeral, as he did not come for the funeral of his grandfather, King Francis, who died in April, 1902.

The deceased queen had been one of the conspicuous figures of Paris since she left Spain. After her abdication, in 1870, she continued to live with queenly magnificence here, giving largely to charitable institutions.

Scientific Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to scientific rheumatism for years," says E. H. Watron, of Winton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and had been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Spruill & Bro.

WOULD KISS WHITE GIRLS.

Negro Insults Two on Street and Cools Heels in Cell.

Danville, Va., April 8.—Misses Janie Luther and Hattie Robertson, sixteen-year-old white girls, were accosted last night upon the street by Henry Johnston, colored, who stated that he proposed to hug and kiss both of them. The young women quickened their pace, but were unable to shake off the negro, who grew bolder in his advances when the evident fright of the girls became apparent.

The young ladies at last broke in to a run. The negro kept pace with them, taking hold of their arm to prevent them from eluding him. The screams of the girls aroused several gentlemen, who hastened to their assistance. The negro showed fight upon their approach, but was easily overcome. Later he was locked up.

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Bowel Complaints in Children.

"We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Netherlands, Texas. "We have given it to all of our children. We have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found anything to equal Chamberlain's. If you will use it as directed it will always cure." For sale by Spruill & Bro.

Conditions of Sending Estimates in This Port Receipts Contest.

Subject to the usual conditions, as stated regularly in The Constitution each week, the contest is now on. Attention is called to the following summary of conditions:

1. Send $1.00 for The Weekly Constitution one year and with it ONE ESTIMATE in the contest.
2. Send 50 cents for The Sunny South one year and with it ONE ESTIMATE in the contest.
3. Send $1.25 for The Weekly Constitution and Sunny South both one year, and send TWO ESTIMATES in the contest—that is, one estimate for The Constitution and another for The Sunny South.
4. Send 50 cents for ONE ESTIMATE alone in the contest IF YOU DO NOT WANT A SUBSCRIPTION. Such a remittance merely pays for the privilege of sending the estimate. If you wish to make a number of estimates on this basis, you may send THREE ESTIMATES FOR EVERY $1.00 forwarded at the same time estimates are sent. If as many as ten estimates are received at the same time without subscriptions, the sender may forward them with only $3.00—this splendid discount being offered for only ten estimates in one order. A postal card receipt will be sent for ALL ESTIMATES RECEIVED WITHOUT SUBSCRIPTIONS. Where subscriptions are ordered, THE ARRIVAL OF THE PAPER ITSELF IS AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT YOUR ESTIMATE HAS BEEN RECEIVED AND IS CAREFULLY RECORDED.
5. The money and the subscription and the estimate must come in the same envelope every time. The estimate, the money and the subscription go together. THIS RULE IS POSITIVE.
