RAMLER.

A Cure for Headache.

Any man, woman or child suffering from headache, biliousness or a dull, drowsy feeling should take one or two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers night and morning. These famous little pills are famous because they are a tonic as well as a pill. While they cleanse the system they strengthen and rebuild it by their tonic effect upon the liver and bowels. Sold by Spruill & Bro.

Wouldn't a good spanking improve your neighbor's children, though?

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Spruill & Bro."

Beautiful Wedding in Roper.

The marriage, at the Methodist church in Roper, April 20, 1904, of Mr. T. Raymond Hassell and Miss Maud A. Mitchell was a beautiful and happy event. The contracting parties are excellent young people and held in high esteem.

The decorations of evergreen and white flowers, the three arches in one of which was suspended a floral bell over the heads of bride and groom, the rich background of potted plants and flowers, the soft electric light falling upon the scene and the living beauty of handsome groomsman and blushing bridesmaids in pure white produced a vision suggestive of the ideal in its charms.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. W. F. Craven. The soft strains of the march were produced by Miss Lizzie Turner, of Mackey's Ferry. Subdued tones of "Tis Not True" accompanied the ceremony.

The attendants were Mr. W. T. Marsh of Belhaven, best man, with Miss Ruth Whitehurst, maid of honor, Mr. W. B. Davenport of Mackey's Ferry, with Miss Ella Herrington, Mr. L. L. Lewis with Miss Eva Chesson, Mr. R. P. Walker of Plymouth, with Miss Neva Cahoon, Mr. Edgar L. Spruill with Miss Alice Cahoon. Ushers, Mr. J. J. Hassell of Plymouth, and Mr. J. B. Mitchell of Norfolk.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine with veil caught by a pearl crescent and carried white carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. W. Mitchell. Delicious refreshments were served. Many useful and handsome bridal presents were given. The many friends of the happy couple wish for them a long and prosperous life.

The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. O. Everett.

A Card of Thanks.

As the season is now about over, I take this method of returning thanks to the people of Plymouth and surrounding country, both in my own name and in the name of "Uncle Bob" McVay, the old reliable mule-raiser of Kentucky, who was with us twice this season, for the liberal patronage, warm friendship and many courtesies extended to us during this time, all of which are most heartily appreciated. Should nothing not now known occur to the contrary, we hope to be with you again next season, and trust that our future associations may prove as pleasant as those of the past have been.

Should you need a horse or mule before our return, let us know your wants and we will gladly supply them at any time.

Yours respectfully,
 S. H. NEWBERRY.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success, fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold by J. O. Everett.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Release substitutes. Sold by J. O. Everett.

If your poll tax is not paid before the first of May you can't vote next fall.

FOLEY'S HONEY & TAR
 For children, safe, sure. No opiates.

From our certain knowledge, we are giving better prices (by 50 per cent. in some instances) than any job printing house that has worked the town this year. And we deliver the goods free. Their work can not be better, for we have brand new type of latest style, so where is the advantage in sending your work off?

THE RALEIGH MORNING POST FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The present year promises a series of intensely interesting political developments. The season has arrived for County, District and State Conventions. In County, State and Nation both sides are lining up for writn and fire contests, and all eyes point to the most interesting campaign in the life-time of the present generation.

To aid the people of North Carolina in keeping posted, the Raleigh Morning Post is making a most liberal campaign offer as follows:

One Dollar will pay for the Daily Post until after the National Convention in July. Two Dollars will pay for it until after the election in November.

Any person sending us a club of six names for either of the above periods, together with the money paying for said subscriptions, may have one copy for the same length of time free.

All subscriptions and remittances should be sent to The Morning Post, Raleigh, N. C.

THE NEW YORK WORLD THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established itself in public favor, and it is now recognized as the strongest publication of its kind in the United States. Advertisers and publishers seeking establishing combinations—and they know best—unanimously testify to this. It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell.

Next year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political events.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 150 papers. We offer this unequalled new paper and THE ROANOKE BEACON together one year for $1.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

SPRING MILLINERY!

We would call the attention of our many friends to the fact that the Millinery season is begun. You have already shown us many favors, both by your presence and by your purchases. We wish to thank you heartily for these manifestations of good will, and to solicit the continuance of the same. Those of you who have been to see us know that we have quite a nice line of Hats and other Millinery. We are always delighted to show our goods to prospective buyers and invite you all to visit our store before making your selection. Again thanking you for favors shown, we remain Yours truly,
 Mrs. A. M. AYERS.
 Special attention to mail orders.

Millinery Display!

I wish to announce that the people of Plymouth and vicinity are now having the opportunity to inspect the most select line of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats that has ever been on exhibition in Plymouth. The display consists of the very latest Paris and New York patterns for the season—all suggestions as to trimming and making can be had from Miss Roberta Tharmond, whose services I have again been able to secure; who is one of Baltimore's best authorities on artistic designs. I have also a sweet line of Late-est Novelties in Summer Dress Goods and Trimmings. I invite you to call and inspect our stock. Very respectfully,
 Mrs. W. B. WARD & CO.
