The merchant who talks business in his advertising usually gets business from it.

Mrs. G. W. Waters returned last Friday from a visit to relatives at Mackey's Ferry.

Mr. W. H. Harrison of the Acre, this county, dropped in to see us while in town on Saturday.

If you want the Best Post Hole Digger made, buy T. Wain's Patent West Borer and Hole Digger. The 4-inch size is best for peanut stack poles. Louis P. Hornthal. se 22-11

Advertising is as much of a necessity in modern business as any other "modern convenience."

A few dollars added to the cost of an advertisement may turn probable failure into certain success.

Ladies with small feet—I have 300 pairs small size ladies' shoes which I am offering at 50c.; regular price $1.00 to $3.00. W. C. AYERS

Our people deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. G. Jones, whose little 5 year old son died the past week.

Mr. H. G. Jackson of Farmville, spent a few days this week with his parents, Sheriff and Mrs. W. J. Jackson.

Sheriff E. S. Norman of Edenton, spent a few days here this week, the guest of his brother, Mr. U. J. Norman.

Miss Belle Starr, after spending some time with relatives and friends in Plymouth, returned to her home in Creswell on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hampton left on Monday for Baltimore. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Clara, who goes to resume her studies at Notre Dame.

Among those of our county girls attending the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro this session, are, Misses Lottie Gaylord, Plymouth; Stella Blount, Agnes Spaight, Roper; Myra Hardison, Creswell; Stella Hopkins, Cherry.

After an extended visit to her daughters, Mrs. J. I. Brewer, Edenton, and Mrs. W. O. Davis, Lake Landing, Mrs. L. Ralph has returned home. She respectfully solicits the patronage of those wishing neat sewing done. Rooms at Mrs. A. Swain's.

We invite the Ladies to inspect our line of Genuine "Delft" Ware, for kitchen and table use. No other ware can compare with it, and we are exclusive agents. LOUIS P. HORNTHAL. se 8-11

Mr. W. B. Ward returned from the northern markets on Saturday last. She brought with her for a trimmer, this season, Miss Margaret Isaac, of Baltimore, who has an experience of several seasons, her artistic taste being of such high order that she was tailor trimmer in a large city establishment last season.

Some of our town laws seem to be right much a farce. On Sunday night a grove of hogs broke into our garden and destroyed several dollar's worth of truck, and on Tuesday night cows broke in and we had three panels of fence to build. This is not only a great aggravation and financial loss and cost, and we should not have it to bear.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Plymouth, at Hotel Roanoke, on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and Fitting Glasses. se 22

Some Facts.

Write advertising as though you expected it to be believed.

The better a man advertises the more he will be able to advertise.

Don't take chances with public confidence if you already possess it.

The danger of over-advertising is much less than that of under-advertising.

Spruill-Beasley.

A pretty marriage was consummated at the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening last, at nine o'clock when Mr. Clarence Spruill led to the altar Miss Viola Beasley, the charming daughter of Mrs. Nellie Beasley, Rev. S. A. Cotton of Roper, officiating.

The attendants were: Mr. Richard Hardison, with Miss Elsie Gaylord; Mr. Cleveland Beasley, with Miss Jennie Spruill; Mr. John Francis, with Miss Nellie Beasley; Mr. Robert Chesson, with Miss Josephine Holliday; Mr. T. J. Gaylord, with Miss Leslie Harrison. The ushers were Messrs J. H. Leggett and C. M. Teterton. Miss Alice Newberry presided at the organ.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party and invited friends repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a grand reception was given them.

THE BEACON joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.

For the Housewife.

In housekeeping liberality is often the best economy, particularly at the beginning of Winter, when the wise expenditure of a considerable sum on the season's food supply may mean the saving of many a dollar. Some practical advice in this direction is given by Isabel Gordon Curtis in the October Delineator, which contains many features of housewifely interest. "Hallowe'en Party Novelties," illustrating delicacies for Hallowe'en refreshment and entertainment, is a reasonable item, and other culinary topics are "Serving Game Dishes," "Celery Novelties," "Home-Made and Whole Wheat Bread," and "A Rice Roundelay." In addition, Mary Taylor-Ross has some helpful notes on "Little Things of Housekeeping."

DO NOT

decide on a style for your fall Dress until you have seen the Ladies Home Journal Style Book for Oct., which will be the most complete number ever given away!

We solicit your patronage for the coming season, and, as in the past, we will endeavor to serve you faithfully and give you in return for your hard earned cash, value received,

We have just received a beautiful line of Ginghams, Percales and other wash goods suitable for children's dresses for school wear. There is nothing that will take the place of Ginghams and Percales for fall wear. It is high time mothers were securing these things in order to have them made up in time, and if you would like to get the best patterns, come at once as we have already started the sale on them, and of course the prettiest ones are the first to go

Men and Boys' Clothing!

We are now showing one of the strongest lines of Men's and Boys' Clothing ever heretofore offered to our trade, notwithstanding the advance in price of all woolsens, we are able, placing our orders soon and purchasing in large quantities, to offer clothing at old prices. We can sell you a suit just as cheap as we did last season, which is something very few dealers can do. We have never offered a prettier selection of Nobby suits for young men and boys than this season. You will make a mistake if you buy your Fall Suit before seeing our line and getting our prices.

Throat Coughs
A tickling in the throat; hoarseness at times; a deep breath irritates it;—these are features of a throat cough. They're very deceptive and a cough mixture won't cure them. You want something that will heal the inflamed membranes, enrich the blood and tone up the system. . . .
Scott's Emulsion is just such a remedy. It has wonderful healing and nourishing power. Removes the cause of the cough and the whole system is given new strength and vigor. . . .
